But Police Confiscated a Dan-Weapon Found on a Young Man.

Arrested on a charge of vagrancy Saturday night, a well-dressed ng man, who has been employed on a boat all the past season, threatened to cut his throat with a knife, when taken to the police station, and on making the threat flourished dangerous looking knife. However, e was not given a chance to carry out his threat, as the knife was taken away and the police had no further trouble with him.

When arraigned before Magistrate Farrell, in the Police Court on Monday morning, the young man was remanded for a week, and inwiries will be made about him.
