

The Paily British Whig

LAST EDITION

YEAR 98; No. 24.

Progressives To Support Six Weeks' Adjournment Of The Commons

Over Convict's Extradition.

Beaten in Michigan Prison Till He Fainted.

fight against extradition has caused Midland and Scottish Railway for wide interest, appeared before 1926. Further orders, notably for Judge H. A. Lavell on Thursday passenger train stock, are in conafternoon in the judge's chambers, and after evidence had been heard fegis, and T. J. Rigney, K.C., representing the United States Government, Judge Lavell decided that United States Government but not until fifteen days have elapsed. writ of habeas corpus. Before proceeding with the case,

Judge Lavell asked Regis if he in- have been complaining of the delay election. dition. "Oppose, Sir," was the Richard Tubbs, a detective of the Department of Public Safety, Lansing, Mich., who was here for the ose of taking Regis back to penitentiary where he was ving a term of from three to fifyears for stealing a secondnd pair of trousers and three dollars, was called by Mr. Rigney. Mr. Tubbs did not know Regis before he had seen him in the Portsmouth entiary where he was undersentence. He had held a contion with Regis on the 14th of ary and had asked him about tended to fight extradition or not. coast by Canadian railways he was an inmate of the Ionia insti- dress the Empire Club at lunch. tution in 1922 and ceased to be an "This problem has never been he made his escape.

Not Warned. Mr. Nickle questioned Detective .'I believe amalgamation of that he might say would be used wards solving the question. against him in evidence. Mr. Nickle amalgamation, co-ordinated operadeclared that Regis had denied that he had told Tubbs that he was an of certain parts of one or other of escaped convict from the Ionia intion, but Tubbs still insisted that Regis had asked him what he as well as other commodities carried, would get if he went back of his own accord, but he had answered that it was out of his jurisdiction to give an answer. Tubbs also said that Regis ken of being transferred e Ionia penitentiary to Jackson as he could not get along with the warden.

Nickle stated that Regis had been strapped at the Ionia institu-His arms had been suspended as he had not been there. In ans-shelter. to a question by Judge Lavell, him back?" Mr. Tubbs--"Yes."

Mr. Nickle-"How do you know that he escaped? How do you know he was not on parole? You don't know how he got out?" Mr. Tubbs-"I know from the re-ontended that this had a bear- rich natives and tourists. on the case as to why Regis should not be taken back to Ionia.

Proclaimed Crown Prince.

Moscow, Jan. 29—Leon Trotzky Progressives and Liberals are eaid monds valued as high as $200,000 paint at Smith's jewellery store on that had been forwarded from News despatch from Teheran, the Washington, signed by the officials, Persian capital, says the eight-year—while enroute from Montreal. At the removed to the concessions commitontinued on Page 7) ___ Crown Prince.

♦ Canadian - sketers - won - all ♦ + championships at stake in the + here yesterday. The Dominion's * * skating ace, Charles Gorman, of * ◆ St. John, won the senior title; ◆ 4 Miss Leila Brooks, of Toronto, 4 • won the senior ladies champion- • ship; Thomas Tebo, of St.
 John, the 18-year-old crown and O. H. Smythe, of Moncton, * the 15-year-old title.

Four Hundred Engines and 15,000 Freight Wagons. London, Jan. 29 .- Four hundred new locomotives and 15,000 goods wagons are included in the £10,000, 000 scheme of renewals and improvements which has been author-Earl Regis, the young man whose ized by the board of the London ied to consent to or oppose ex- of goods in transit, owing to the shortage of rolling stock.

sideration of Transportation in Dominion.

Toronto, Jan. 29 .- "I believe the Federal Government should appoint a Mr. Rigney-"What did you ask committee at once, to consider frankly the question as to what can be Mr. Tubbs-"I told him what I done to have Canadian grain which was here for and asked him if he is exported to Europe, carried to the wanted information on the law shipped from Canadian ports," stated taining to extradition, and asked Dr. Adam Shortt, internationally what his sentence would be if known Canadian economist. went back of his own accord." former professor of political econ-In answer to Mr. Rigney, witness omy in Queen's University, Kingsstated that Regis had admitted that ton, who was here yesterday to ad-inmate in May, but he could not say squarely and frankly faced," assertof what year. All this was said in ed Dr. Shortt, "and I believe the the one interview. Mr. Tubbs stated time is at hand when it should be. Earl Regis. He also admitted to have all export grains routed through the dominion, instead much of it going through the United and brought out that Tubbs two great railway systems of the ot warned Regis that anything country would go a long way totion, and the temporary cutting out the systems, the cost of transportation would be materially lowered. he did. Tubbs further stated That would, of course, apply to wheat and would, I think, be a big factor in helping to have export wheat from the west routed through Canada. It would reduce the cost of carrying the wheat, one of the main obstacles at

STORM STRIKES COAST.

im (Mr. Nickle) that he had Liners Battling Fierce Gale-None in Distress Vancouver, Jan. 29. The heavy and his toes barely touched the storm which is lashing the mid-Paciground. Salt sacks had been placed ac about 3,000 miles due west of on him back and front, and he had Prince Rupert, is moving slowly tobeen beaten and the salt had gone ward the coast, according to fraginto the pores which had been open- mentary wireless reports received ed and bleeding from the beating. to-day. A lesser easterly gale is now he straps had been taken off, raging off the British Columbia coast. Storm signals have been disstated that he would not played at all ports, and small craft deny it, because he did not know, have been warned by wireless to seek

There were no reports that any a sixty-mile gale and high seas. tated that if it had been done, it ships were in distress. The Canadian was done against the prison regula- Pacific liner Empress of Asia, from posted for two days between Point Yokohama for Vancouver, is buck- Rey and Cape Flattery. The wind Mr. Nickle-"You expect to take ing heavy winds, but reports that she reached fifty-four miles an hour of expects to arrive on schedule Friday Point Rey and fifty-four miles at

War on Hip Shakers. Rome, Jan. 29 .- Italy has declared war against jazz dancing of that variety known as "Wicked hip shaking." As a consequence raids on more or less questionable dance halls are frequent. Dance halls of the de-Mr. Nickle brought out the fact luxe variety are not being bothered t Regis was born in Canada and They are too expensive for any but

Taken in Commons.

Mr. Lapointe Makes nouncement---The Conservative Leader Seeks Information.

ment will seek an adjournment of cheon on Thursday stated that Bolthe House of Commons for six shevism and anarchism are foreign cupied most of yesterday afternoon was beyond his comprehension how weeks for the purpose of re-organ- to the Anglo-Saxon nature, and in the Commons devoting himself a province of that day could return ization. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, will never be adopted by Great Bri- largely to an exposure of the posi- protectionist Conservatives, The work will give employment acting Government leader, in the tain, Australia, Canada or the Un-tion of the Progressives regarding Discussing the question of transw. M. Nickle, representing to many trades all over the country. Commons yesterday afternoon said ited States. The private ownership the interests of the farmers. In- portation, Mr. Tobin declared that Locomotives and wagon construct "it is the intention of the Governtof his own home by the assertions of Evans, as soon as the rates to the Pacific tion will involve an expenditure of ment as soon as the vote on the ad- workman of Canada, he said, ac- of Rosetown, to the effect that the Ocean were reduced, grain began to nearly £5,000,000. This will be car- dress is given to ask the House for counted for the fact that there was manufacturers prospered at the ex- flow westward to the Pacific ports. Regis should be returned to the ried out partly in the company's own an adjournment of six weeks for the much less unrest in Canada than pense of the agricultural section of He favored equalization of rates east National outer station where he will workshops, but the greater part of purpose of reorganizing the Govern- Great Britain. In it will be undertaken by numerous ment and dealing with matters which the meantime Regis can apply for a private firms. The order for 15,000 have to be dealt with as the result of new wagons will be of interest to Parliament having been called traders and manufacturers, who earlier than usual after the general

Mr. Lapointe's announcement was made in answer to a question by Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the Opposition. Mr. Meighen had asked what the Government intended to do following the disposal of the address. In consequence of varied The rumors as to the Government's programme.

Many members of the House had been unable to make arrangements for themselves and their families for the session. The Government, Dr. Adam Shortt Favors Con- said, should state its position regarding adjournment, giving reasons > Replies to Mr. Meighen. Mr. Meighen asked if the House would be informed as to the extent of the proposed Cabinet re-organization. Mr. Lapointe replied that he did not believe that Mr. Meighen would expect the Government give such details before the re-organization was effected. The Governor-General must be consulted, and > many other formalities settled before the news could be published.

Mr. Meighen said the House was entitled to know what portfolios would be retained and what amalgamations would be made. Actual names perhaps might be difficult to that he had said that the prisoner It would be of great value to Canada disclose, but the House was entitled Crashes its Way Close to know how many ministers Ontarlo would get and how many would go to other provinces. It was entitled to know whether Parliament would be asked to continue to face "a truncated ministry" or as one minister had described it "a ministry in due course."

The House then passed to other

The Progressives, it is announced will support the adjournment and co-operate with the Government in putting through needed legislation.

TERRIFIC STORM

Heavy Snow Was Accompanied by Gale-Liners Are Buffetted.

has been seen rarely in these regions rages over the North Pacific Ocean and the Pacific Coast yesterday, bringing thick snow, rains and winds from a point far beyond the Canadian line to the Santa Clara Valley in California.

Small shipping is tled up, while the big passenger and freight liners outh-east storm warnings were Tatoosh Island, and there were no signs of a let-up. Rain and snow general over Nevada, Idaho, Easters Oregon and Washington.

NOTORIOUS SMUGGLER.

Arrested in New York-Diamo Seized in His Luggage St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 29 .- Lieb Ritterman of New York, reputed one of the most notorious of internaentry into this country. Friday afternoon.

War Cardinal Entombed

Malines, Belgium, Jan. 29 .-- The body of Belgium's heroic war cardinal, Desire Mercier, was entombed to-day in Malines, the seat of his archbishopric, and the scene of his long years of struggle and triumph. From the archepiscopal palace, to which it had been returned after yes- 116 terday's elaborate state funeral in Brussels, the casket was borne in solemn procession, preceded by the great Silver Cross to the calhedral of St. Rombaut and there entombed in the crypt. The entire route from the palace to the cathedral was lined with soldiers.

Will Never Be Adopted In Anglo-Saxon Lands

Toronto, Jan. 29 - Dr., Adam Shortt, famous Canadian economist. Ottawa, Jan. 29 .- The Govern- addressing the Empire Club at lun-

Prince of Wales Doing Well-Has Been on a Strict Diet.

London, Jan. 29 .- The Prince left collar bone in a fall while riding to the hounds yesterday, passed a good night and was making satisfactory progress this morning. "After a few days' rest, I have little doubt that the Prince will be out and the farmers took from them a profit about again," said his secretary, Cap- of over 38 per cent. He pointed out Philip Snowden, M.P., Chanceller of tain Lascelles. The Prince's physi- that the tariff on sixteen implements the Exchequer in the late Labor cal fitness will undoubtedly help him was higher in 1911 under the Laurto a quick recovery.

since his return from South Ameri- ment. ca, His Royal Highness has been in beef with vegetables, but no sweets. Grain Growers. He only smokes about four cigarettes daily.

Muskegon, Mich., Jan. 29 .-The Goodrich steamer Alabama, in an attempt to reach the fishing tug Helen M., imprisoned in the ice in Lake Michigan, has crashed its way to within 150 feet of the craft. Lieut, George F. Schouden, in a rescue plane made this announcement on his return from a trip over the lake this morning.

DAOUST AND RUTHERFORD

Member-Appointments Expected Soon.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 29 .- A members who will form the advisory come into Canada in a few weeks Canadian young men. tariff board to be appointed by the over the treaty duty of one cent a Government have already been pound, and the Australian Govern- which we took in the war," he re- would be for the Crown to request and manufacturer of Montreal. A the interests of the consumers fell not a great deal of fault to find. third member of the board will selected from Ontario.

this number was tentatively select sumer. ed last fall. Further consideration of the project, however, has resulted in a reduction in number. As soon as the board is appointed it is expected that the Maritime problem will re eive first attention, it being idered urgert. Then will come an nguiry into one or two industries which at present enjoy protection and which it is believed can do with a little less.

A. Lennox, 260 King street, retional smugglers, was in jail here to- burns to his face when a torch, the Liberal regime. He thought shington, eigned by the officials, Persian capital, says the eight-year—while enroute from Montreal. At the removed to the Hotel Dieu where in public affairs.

as head of the concessions committed fore the address is disposed of the president. Old son of the newly-elected Shas, same time immigration agents prehe was attended by Dr. Gibson and Mr. Marcil referred to the flow of the concessions committed fore the address is disposed of the concessions committed. At the removed to the Hotel Dieu where in public affairs.

as head of the concessions committed fore the address is disposed of the concessions committed. At the removed to the Hotel Dieu where in public affairs.

At a second of the concessions committed fore the address is disposed of the concessions committed for the newly-elected Shas, same time immigration agents prehe to the flow of the concessions committed for the concessions committed for the address is disposed of the concessions committed for the concessions committ and Liberals.

tenac on the Mildness of Ottawa, Jan. 29 .- Hon. J. W. Ed- Nova Scotia. He himself had spent wards, of Frontenac-Addington, oc- his youth in that province and it the community through the tariff, and west. Dr. Edwards produced some figures | D. M. Kennedy, Progressive memfrom evidence taken before a par- ber for Peace River, complained of liamentary committee as to the man- the plurality of the immigration ner in which the United Grain Grow- policies in Canada. Apparently the ers Company, whose president, Hon. Government had one and each of the T. A. Crerar, was formerly leader of railway companies another. the Progressive party, treated the thought that all immigration should farmers. This company, so come directly under the Governthe evidence showed, had made as ment. Mr. Kennedy will continue much as 40 to 42 per cent. profit his speech to-day.

off the farmers. It had made profits in one year of $800,000 and for three years its profits totalled $2,- Ch three years its profits totalled $2,- SNOWDEN'S with a capital of $100,000 had made $500,000 profit in one year. A tariff of 12 1/2 per cent: on binders and mowers was denounced by the Progressives on the ground that Must it took money from the farmers, but Dr. Edwards showed that the United Grain Growers Company ier Government than it was in 1921 The Evening News reports that under the Conservative Govern- what he described as "that perennial

The Progressives were now de- Labor and Liberalism. the hands of a Scottish homeopath, manding co-operation, and Dr. Edwho has seen to it that he has ad- wards suggested to them that the hered to strict diet. His luncheon most unscrupulous and cold-blooded

> Hard-Hitting Style. When Dr. Edwards turned his at- be something of a Liberal revival in ing four years. tention to the Liberals he character- the next election. If, however, this ized the speeches of Hon. George exodus of Liberals to the Tory party To an Imprisoned Tug Bolvin in Montreal as a double

> > It was a threat to the Progres- the Labor party rather than the sives that if they did not do what the Government wanted it would dissolve Parliament and a threat to the Governor-General that unless he FICTITIOUS PROSPERITY also did what the Government thought should be done it would raise the cry of autonomy.

The member for Frontenac paid his respects to Major C. G. Power, of Quebec South. Mr. Power, he declared, had attributeed to him a desire to take Liberal scalps back to his lodge rooms. He desired to assure the member for Quebec South TO BE ON TARIFF BOARD that he "wouldn't decorate the walls of an outbuilding with a scalp of Ontario Man Will Be Third such narrow dimensions as that covering the member's mind."

Dr. Edwards denounced the Australian Treaty, the effect of which was already being felt, notably in Ottawa, Jan. 29 .- It is under- the matter of butter. Four million three pounds of Australian butter had selected. They are: Dean Ruther- ment was giving the producers a lated, "Canadians have a great deal in the Supreme Court that the inford, of the faculty of agriculture, bounty of six cents a pound on all of hardship to contend with and dictment be dropped. University of Saskatchewan, and they exported. The Government's there is not as much money flowloseph Daoust, prominent merchant contention that the treaty was in ing as we might wish. But we have be down before the fact that Canada We can face our responsibilties and had a surplus of twenty-five million overcome our difficulties." Originally the tariff board was pounds for export—a sufficient anned to include five members, and guarantee of fair prices for the con- ed States wages are higher and

Hon. Charles Marcil.

In his speech last evening. Hon Charles Marcil, Liberal, Bonnavenure, congratulated Dr. Edwards on the mildness of the speech delivered by him. He expressed the opinion that strong opposition made for goo covernment. Although members of earliament of 1924, said Mr. Marcil had no mandate from their constituents to approve the declaration of war on Germany by the Allies, he had, with his confreres, voted Canada's participation in the

Canada's trade, he said, was in reasing by leaps and bounds under States. This condition, he said, was economic development.

Ottawa, Jan. 29- According to a report received. by the Citizen from Pembroke, the provincial police + last night arrested John Parks, of, Whitney, Ont., who is wanted in connection with the deaths of Sgt, John Billings, game warden, and his guide, Joseph Stringer. Parks stoutly denied having anything to do with the deaths of the game warden and his guide.

chronic. It would always exist

S. G. Tobin, Liberal, Wetaskiwin,

BRITISH LIBERALS

Get Rid of Their

Blackburn, Lancashire, Jan. 28 .-

"While I do not believe there continues, then what is ultimately left will doubtless prefer to support

Will Be Doomed to Disappointment.

United States will look back in fifteen years and realize that he has made the greatest mistake of his

"On the other hand in the Unit-

there is a prosperity due to the enormous wealth accumulated during the war but I believe that prosperity is fictitious. Prices are being paid for construction and invest-nents are being made which the ossible returns do not warrant.

For possibly ten years the prosjer ity of the United States may go on.

for their wealth will enable them to pay twice what things are worth

for that long, but from that time

on it will be the survival of the fit-

"There is not a boom on the horizon for Canada," the speaker de-cleared, "but there is every promise

Trotzky Resigns One Post.

of steady progress."

their convention yesterday.

Tory government.

said that as a new member the most

Completing Term.

Leaves the Penitentiary After difficult thing in the House of Commons for him to understand was the Conservative representation from It was announced officially on Friday morning that John Doughty, former secretary to the late Ambrose J. Small, Toronto theatrical maghate, who is doing a six-year sentence in the Portsmouth penitentiary. would be released from the prison on Wednesday afternoon, February 8rd, at 1.15 o'clock. He will be taken by a prison official to the Canadian board the fast train for Toronto. Although every attempt possible has been made to get Doughty to talk up until the present time he has refused to say a word about Ambrose J. Small, and it is fully expected that he will follow the same policy on Wednesday when he is given his freedom. During the time Doughty has been in penitentiary, officers of the Toronto and provincial police have waited upon him for the purpose of seeing if he would say anything about the mysterious disappearance of Mr. Small. Doughty refused to talk, and at times felt it very keenly about the pressure which was brought to bear on him for the purpose of making him "squeal." Doughty has been an ideal prisoner, with the result that he has been allowed the full time off for good behaviour. He was sentenced in Toronto to six years in penitentiary and arrived at Portsmouth on May 15th, 1921, which means that he has done four years and nine government, in a speech here last night, made important references to He was found guilty on the charge of theft of $105,000 Victory bonds, question namely the relationship of the property of the late Ambrose J. Small. When he arrived at the penitentiary he was placed on the cleanany future for Liberalism as a doming gang, but was later transferred inating force," Mr. Snowden declarto the office of the accountant where often consists of thin slices of roast co-operation was that of the United ed, "yet if it can compose its dif- he has been employed ever since and ferences and shed that section which has been a very efficient servant. is not Liberal in any true sense, shed Upon his release, his duties will be its Monds and leave the radical carried on by W. W. Dunlop, formrump, then it is possible there may er inspector of prisons, who is do-

> Drop Kidnapping Charge. The Toronto Telegram of Thursday contains the following:

When John Doughty, former secretary to A. J. Small, leaves penitentiary next week, on completing nearly five years of a six-year sentence for theft of bonds, he will be a ACROSS THE BORDER free man. Though an indictment still stands against Doughty for kid-Canadians Going to the U.S. napping Small, this will be dropped, as no intimation has been given by the Attorney-General to proceed with the indictment. 2 Police authorities have not been Toronto. Jan. 29 -- "The young instructed to bring Doughty to face the kidnapping indictment, nor has the Crown Attorney's Department been asked to take proceedings against Doughty. "There is not sufficient evidence life," said W. S. Cameron addressing the buliding and contruction to proceed with such a charge," a industries at the final meeting of legal authority told The Telegram. "To proceed with such a charge, it Cameron dealt with the relative opwould be necessary to have the perportunities of the two countries for son alleged to have been kidnapped."

While the indictment still stands "As the result of the large part it is explained that the formality

IS POSSIBLE MONDAY

According to Hon. J. A. Robb --- More Speakers to Be

Ottawa, Jan. 29 .- The vote on the Meighen amendment to the address, will be taken on Monday, if present plans are not altered. Hon. J. A Robb, leading the House at the adjournment last night, in the absence of Hon. Ernest Lapointe, stated that it was the intention of the Government to have a division Monday. The decision had resulted from a conference of party whips Outside the house, however it i being stated that the vote will not come until Tuesday. A number o the United States doubled last year.