Lady in Fine Health.
Mrs. James Park, Watson's Corners, celebrated her ninety-first birthday on Wednesday and received hearty congratulations. Mrs. Park is in splendid health and in full possession of all her faculties.

Applicants For Work.
Of a total of 147 listed at the local office of the Government Employment Service 15 applied for work Thursday. Forty-four were given casual work and one man secured a permanent position.

A Change Made.
M. W. Bard, assistant superintendent, Farnham division is made assistant superintendent at Smith's Falls, in place of B. J. Quilty, recently promoted superintendent at Schreiber, Ont.

Finger Tips Crushed.
Maris Reid, an employee of the Belleville Paper Mills, had the fingers of his left hand caught in a roller while at work. Three finger nails were torn out and the finger tips crushed. Mr. Reid is resting nicely.

Good Sleighting Again.
Farmers from the surrounding districts report excellent sleighing. The roads are hard and smooth, due to the mild weather, followed by the extreme cold. As a result of the fine sleighing conditions, many loads of hay and wood are arriving in the city.

Chalmers W. M. S.
The executive committee of Chalmers W. M. S. met at the home of Miss M. Ross, Alfred street, on Thursday afternoon. Arrangements were made for the February and March regular meetings at the end of which time plans for further work will be made on the basis of the union of the three churches, Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational.

Looking For Horses.
Renfrew horse-buyers are looking for horses for the lumber camps, the season for hauling of logs from skids to dumps having arrived. A four-year-old Clyde of Scots' Pride lineage was bought from William J. O'Neill to go to Locksley; price $200. Twelve teams, all of them hired, left Douglas by rail for the McRae lumber camps at Bellwood in the Whitney district.
