J. C. Birmingham was appointed trustee of the Campbellford High School for two years, by the Northumberland county council, succeeding Charles Benor who wished to retire. Mr. Birmingham was formerly an elected member of the Campbellford Board of Education and took an active part in the building of the new High School.

Euchre Was Cancelled.
The stag euchre which was to have been held on Tuesday night at the Knights of Columbus rooms by Frontenac Council, Knights of Columbus, was cancelled on account of the death of Bro. W. C. McDonald. The regular meeting was held and Robert Webb, an old member, who has been ill for some time, was welcomed back.

No Appeal in Regis Case.
W. M. Nickle, counsel for Earl Regis, whose fight against extradition, created considerable interest, conferred with Crown Attorney T. J. Rigney on the case last night, and this morning in a conversation with the Whig, stated that there would be no appeal made against the decision handed down by Judge Lavell on the case a few days ago.

Blaze in a House.
The firemen were called at 11:23 o'clock Wednesday morning to a lively blaze that started in an upstairs room in the home of J. H. Jarvis, 619 Princess street. The firemen soon had the blaze under control, but considerable damage was done to the room and the contents. The fire was caused by a chair which was placed too close to a stove and caught fire. The loss is covered by insurance.

Radio Inspectors Expected.
Frank Dunn, radio inspector, has been accosted on the street by people enquiring about inspectors being in the city. He wishes to state that while there is no definite word that they are here, yet they are working in the Eastern Ontario division, in company with the Mounted Police, and may be here any day. While in Ottawa twenty citizens were fined $50.00 and costs for operating receiving sets without a license.

Home and School Club.
The monthly meeting of the Home and School Club of the Robert Meak School was held in the Assembly hall of the school on Tuesday evening. The decision of the club to add a set of "The Book of Knowledge" to the school's library, was much appreciated by the teaching staff of the school. An illustrated talk on France by Major Harriss was thoroughly enjoyed. Refreshments and the singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.

The Dog Question.
A disgusted citizen remarked today: "Those were fine instructions that Hon. Dr. Forbes Godfrey, Minister of Health, issued concerning the dogs found on the streets of Kemptville, 'To be shot, at sight.' Sorry the same order does not include Kingston, which is cursed with useless curs, frequently snarling and snapping at pedestrians. If people are determined to keep dogs, they should confine them to their back yards, and if that is not convenient to their comfort, invite them into their dining or living-rooms."

L.T.B. Euchre and Dance.
The L.T.B. euchre and dance, held on Tuesday evening, in the Orange Hall, proved to be one of the most enjoyable of the series. All present thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Twelve tables were in play for euchre. Mrs. A. Walker won the first prize offered for the ladies, while Mr. Martin captured the prize for the gentlemen. Mrs. McIlroy and Mr. Carpenter were the winners in the consolation. Quite a number came in later in the evening for the dancing, for which Salsbury's orchestra provided a most delightful programme of music. Delightful refreshments were served during the evening.

Death of Almerin E. Blanchard.
A well known retired farmer, Almerin E. Blanchard, passed away at his home in Addison last Thursday, following a brief illness, in his eightieth year.
