

THE BRITISH WHIG

SEVENTH YEAR.

Published Daily and Semi-weekly by THE BRITISH WHIG PUBLISHING CO., LIMITED, KINGSTON, ONT.

W. RUFFERT DAVENPORT, President

TELEPHONES: Business Office 243, Editorial Rooms 242, Social 241, Job Department 244

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: One year, in city $7.50, One year, by mail to rural offices $8.50

OUT-OF-TOWN REPRESENTATIVES: TORONTO—F. W. Thompson, 100 King Street West, Toronto

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR: The circulation of the British Whig is authorized by the Audit Bureau of Circulations

SOME CHILDREN GO HUNGRY.

To-day there are children in Kingston going hungry when there is plenty. This week a teacher noticed that a little fellow was late for afternoon class.

Conditions in Kingston are not anything as hard as they were five winters ago, but the relief organizations have much to do.

Dr. Richard C. Cabot the well-known physician says in an article on health in the American Magazine: "To avoid over-eating and alcohol and the cigarette habit are matters of self-control."

INCREASE THE FLOW.

A recent report of an Institute of Animal Economics, declares that an extra half-inch of milk in every cow's milk pail at each milking would add $906,000 to the profits of Jefferson, N.Y., county dairymen during the next twelve months.

WAR PROFITS.

Mr. Charles M. Schwab, the steel manufacturer, says that he would be willing to throw his great plant and all his profit into the sea if he could be assured that it would stop war.

BIBLE THOUGHT

THY WIFE SHALL BE AS A FRUITFUL VINE by the sides of thine house thy children like olive plants round about thy table.—Psalm 128:3.

a cow is Babina, one of the herd. In one year's time she produced 11,559.9 pounds of milk containing 792.1 pounds of butter.

OSHAWA'S INDEBTEDNESS.

The Oshawa Reformer states that the debenture debt of the city of Oshawa totals $3,383,433, or $211 per capita.

A NEGLECTED GOLDEN AGE.

This ought to be a golden age of health and long life. Scientific knowledge of hygiene, medicine, surgery and other means of preventing and curing disease is available to almost everyone.

WELL PUT!

The Picton Times put the matter of the bid of the Conservative party in parliament in this fashion: "The Conservative leader, through Hugh Guthrie, virtually offered to discard the policy of Sir John A. Macdonald and allow the Progressives to dictate a policy for the Conservative party."

GET ENOUGH SLEEP.

Dr. Richard C. Cabot the well-known physician says in an article on health in the American Magazine: "To avoid over-eating and alcohol and the cigarette habit are matters of self-control."

WAR PROFITS.

Mr. Charles M. Schwab, the steel manufacturer, says that he would be willing to throw his great plant and all his profit into the sea if he could be assured that it would stop war.

TAXATION

Oshawa Reformer. "The average Canadian gives the proceeds of one day's work in five to support the cost of government," says Dr. Horace L. Brittain.

Quebec Viewpoint

Le Devoir reminds us that the Senate has still to be reckoned with at Ottawa. "The Senate, we must not forget, will play an important part during the present session in as much as it is not expected that all the measures promised in the Speech from the Throne will pass through all stages of procedure."

whole thing out. He knows that prices will increase but he is at once put to the mercy of the labor market which is so chaotic that no one can determine the final outcome.

News and Views.

Training The Young. Baltimore Sun: If a boy's ears are cuffed at all, they are cuffed three times for punishment and seven times from force of habit.

Has Enough. Detroit Free Press: Holland has denied permission to the former crown prince to visit his father. One Hohenzollern is company, two is superfluous.

The Waste of It. Kitchener Record: A Galt kid got a terrible licking from his irate dad for buying an all-day sucker at five o'clock in the afternoon.

Keeping On Its Course. Chicago News: Measurably the anthracite strike gets nowhere, which was the destination intended in the first place.

A Worthy Example. Sentinel, Toronto: Australia has set a worthy example and is making voting compulsory. One of the sins of the age is indifference on the part of the voters.

At sixteen says the Vancouver Sun, he scorns the world; at forty he is in the midst of an effort to reform it; at sixty-five he forgives it.

Prof. Fitzpatrick of the Frontier College sees the day when "half a dozen railways will go to Hudson Bay." Highly optimistic.

The Winnipeg Free Press in describing a pillar of society claims it is a person who takes up a whole column of the society news!

Col. Mitchell, court martialled over his criticism of the United States air services, has resigned from the army. He will now stage a comeback.

Premier Ferguson is thinking of a new minister and his choice reverts to a Toronto manufacturer. Will the laboring classes put much confidence in him?

Next year is the sixtieth anniversary of Confederation. Let Kingston make ready for a mammoth celebration. It would be of great educational value.

In the United States there are 100,000 of the compensable veterans of the World War or dependents who have not as yet applied for their bonus. They have up to Jan. 1st, 1926, to do so.

The Watertown, N.Y., Times is joyful over the Senate approving the world court. It lifts its voice to the skies and says: "America takes her proper place as a great nation of the world."

Talking of Royal presents, would not some thoughtful person give the Prince of Wales a perfectly well-broken horse, trained to appreciate the brittleness yet Royal bones and the precarious grip of Royal knees?

Say Hon. G. P. Jog along and take a seat in parliament. The whole country is unanimous in his favor and he can choose his constituency. Parliament would lose a lot of its gloom if a dozen of G.P.'s make-up were in it.

His Majesty the King gave Queen Mary a gilt clock for her birthday table, as a Christmas present. A Kingston lady suggests that it was a gentle reminder that she should not take too much time with her dressing and keep His Majesty waiting for her to come down.

The New York World concludes that the victory for the world court in the United States is not a victory for any single man, but for an almost unexampled array of societies, institutions, groups, economical and professional bodies, and other organs of enlightened opinion.

Francis King, K.C., at Detroit, threw a bomb into the Chicago water seal convention when he told the delegates that Canada would make no move to further the St. Lawrence waterway until the Chicago leak was stopped. This statement is finding its way into all the middle west and western states and has caused alarm.

It is a healthy sign in business when one merchant can include a generous expression of goodwill for another in the daily task of serving the public. In Ottawa Devlin wished well in an advertisement to R. Masson and Son, Ltd., who moved across the street. On another occasion last year, merchants on Sparks street sent greetings, including a floral decoration, to welcome the opening up of a new store, with similar cordiality.

Col. McCullough, Hamilton, is convinced that the true mother and home-maker of to-day "is not less gallant than her pioneer grand-mother: she is a living link with their glorious past, attempting to solve life's problems under the light of modern achievement, battling and struggling daily with life's various problems, sometimes missing the mark, sometimes near it, but nevertheless striving. In all sincerity may I ask that strength and moral courage may be given her to achieve it." Very wise conclusions.

News and Views.

Training The Young. Baltimore Sun: If a boy's ears are cuffed at all, they are cuffed three times for punishment and seven times from force of habit.

Has Enough. Detroit Free Press: Holland has denied permission to the former crown prince to visit his father. One Hohenzollern is company, two is superfluous.

The Waste of It. Kitchener Record: A Galt kid got a terrible licking from his irate dad for buying an all-day sucker at five o'clock in the afternoon.

Keeping On Its Course. Chicago News: Measurably the anthracite strike gets nowhere, which was the destination intended in the first place.

A Worthy Example. Sentinel, Toronto: Australia has set a worthy example and is making voting compulsory. One of the sins of the age is indifference on the part of the voters.

At sixteen says the Vancouver Sun, he scorns the world; at forty he is in the midst of an effort to reform it; at sixty-five he forgives it.

Prof. Fitzpatrick of the Frontier College sees the day when "half a dozen railways will go to Hudson Bay." Highly optimistic.

The Winnipeg Free Press in describing a pillar of society claims it is a person who takes up a whole column of the society news!

Col. Mitchell, court martialled over his criticism of the United States air services, has resigned from the army. He will now stage a comeback.

Premier Ferguson is thinking of a new minister and his choice reverts to a Toronto manufacturer. Will the laboring classes put much confidence in him?

In the United States there are 100,000 of the compensable veterans of the World War or dependents who have not as yet applied for their bonus. They have up to Jan. 1st, 1926, to do so.

The Watertown, N.Y., Times is joyful over the Senate approving the world court. It lifts its voice to the skies and says: "America takes her proper place as a great nation of the world."

Talking of Royal presents, would not some thoughtful person give the Prince of Wales a perfectly well-broken horse, trained to appreciate the brittleness yet Royal bones and the precarious grip of Royal knees?

Say Hon. G. P. Jog along and take a seat in parliament. The whole country is unanimous in his favor and he can choose his constituency. Parliament would lose a lot of its gloom if a dozen of G.P.'s make-up were in it.

His Majesty the King gave Queen Mary a gilt clock for her birthday table, as a Christmas present. A Kingston lady suggests that it was a gentle reminder that she should not take too much time with her dressing and keep His Majesty waiting for her to come down.

The New York World concludes that the victory for the world court in the United States is not a victory for any single man, but for an almost unexampled array of societies, institutions, groups, economical and professional bodies, and other organs of enlightened opinion.

Francis King, K.C., at Detroit, threw a bomb into the Chicago water seal convention when he told the delegates that Canada would make no move to further the St. Lawrence waterway until the Chicago leak was stopped. This statement is finding its way into all the middle west and western states and has caused alarm.

It is a healthy sign in business when one merchant can include a generous expression of goodwill for another in the daily task of serving the public. In Ottawa Devlin wished well in an advertisement to R. Masson and Son, Ltd., who moved across the street. On another occasion last year, merchants on Sparks street sent greetings, including a floral decoration, to welcome the opening up of a new store, with similar cordiality.

Col. McCullough, Hamilton, is convinced that the true mother and home-maker of to-day "is not less gallant than her pioneer grand-mother: she is a living link with their glorious past, attempting to solve life's problems under the light of modern achievement, battling and struggling daily BIBBY'S DRESS WELL AND SUCCEED GOOD BLUE SUITS Our good clothes are great boosters in any walk of life! Many a man has temporarily failed of success because he underestimated the importance of good clothes!

THERMOMETERS For inside the house and outside. Clear reading and accurate with mercury or spirit column. Bath Thermometers in wooden protectors—something that ought to be in every house where there is a baby.

Just Received One (1) Car Stove Coke Worth trying Crawford PHONE 5, FOOT OF QUEEN STREET

APEX Canned Fruits Canned Vegetables In tins and glass. As the name denotes, this brand stands at the very top in point of quality, while the price is reasonable. Jas. REDDEN & CO. SELECTED DEALER PHONES 26 and 950.