Gives Verdict Against C.P.R.

Jury Awards Damages Totaling $9,325 in the Reynolds-Craig Action.

A verdict for the plaintiff awarding a total of $9,325 damages was brought in by the jury in the Reynolds-Craig vs. C.P.R. case, at 8.15 o'clock Thursday night after it had been out for seven and a quarter hours. The case may be appealed. The total damages asked were $20,000; $20,000 on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Reynolds and $10,000 for Mrs. Craig and Miss Janette Craig.

An accident near Verona in which T. L. Reynolds lost an eye and suffered such other injuries as to make him 50 per cent. disabled and in which Mrs. Mary Craig claimed to have suffered internal injuries, was the cause of the case.

The questions submitted to the jury and the answers returned by them were:

1. Was the defendant railway company guilty of negligence causing the accident? Yes.
2. If so what was that negligence? The whistle was not blown at the whistling post and the railway company maintained an embankment on their property that obscured the view of a train approaching from the south.

3. Could the plaintiff T. L. Reynolds by exercising reasonable care have avoided the accident? Yes.

4. If so in what respects did he fail to exercise such reasonable care? He was particularly to blame in neglecting to ascertain the time the train was due at the crossing.

5. Could the plaintiffs other than T. L. Reynolds by exercising reasonable care have avoided the accident? No.

6. The answer to the above question made this one of no value.

7. What damages do you award to each plaintiff? To T. L. Reynolds, $10,000; to Mrs. Reynolds, nothing; to Mrs. Mary Craig, $1,100; to Janette Craig, $50.

8. If you find that the plaintiffs or any of them failed to exercise reasonable care contributing to the accident what do you find were the degrees of fault? T. L. Reynolds, 25 per cent; other plaintiffs, nothing; C.P.R., 75 per cent.

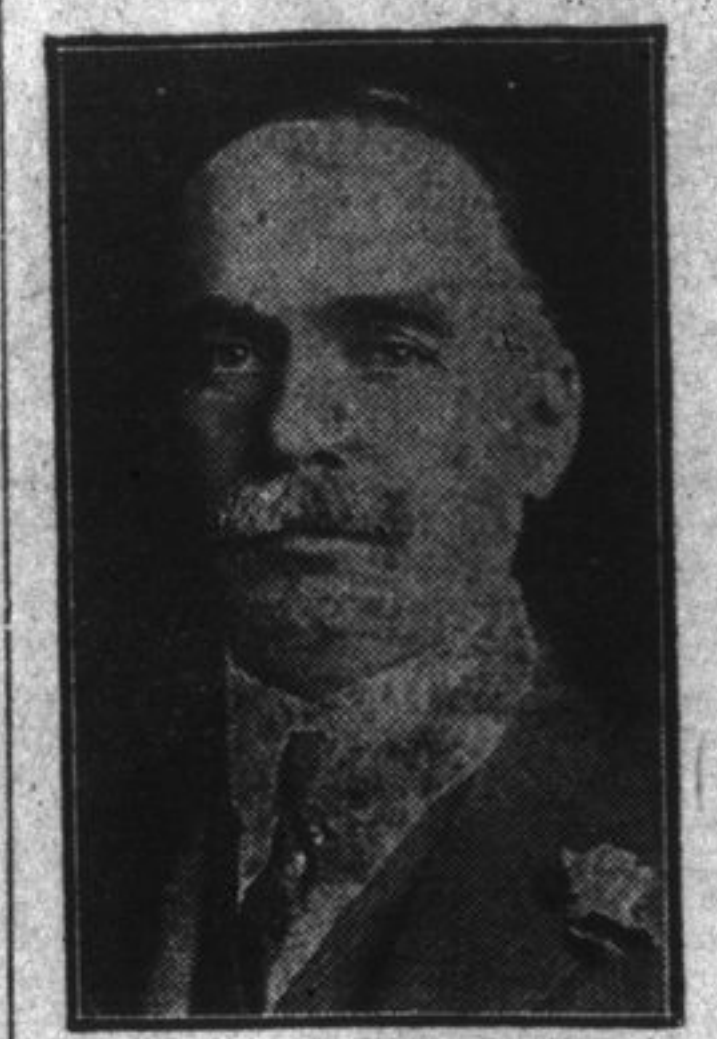

Mr. McMurchy, counsel for the C.P.R., asked that the jury be polled. The result was that J. B. Bunt did not agree with the answer to question No. 2 that the railway was maintaining an embankment on their property which obscured the view of an approaching train from the south. Rupert Aylesworth did not agree that T. L. Reynolds could have avoided the accident. Henry Breathwit did not agree that the railway company maintained a bank on their property which obscured a view of approaching trains. The other members of the jury were agreed on the answers to all the questions.

Mr. McMurchy protested that the railway was saddled with 75 per cent. of the onus of the guilt when in answer to question No. 3 the jury had said that T. L. Reynolds could have avoided the accident.

Mr. Justice Grant pointed out that while some of the jurors were not agreed on some of the questions, they were all agreed that the railway was 75 per cent. liable.

The counsel for the railway company intimated that an appeal would be made when he said that he had known of new trials under such circumstances and he had no doubt that he would appear in another court.

Mr. Cunningham said he would ask for a judgment of $10,000 for T. L. Reynolds; $1,100 for Mrs. Mary Craig; and $50 for Janette Craig. Mr. Justice Grant did not give a judgment on Thursday night.

GANANOQUE

Gananoque, Feb. 5.—Clifford Sine was taken to the General Hospital, Kingston, yesterday afternoon, suffering from an attack of appendicitis, and his many friends are hopeful that it will in no way prove serious and his recovery be speedy and complete.

Miss Pearl Seale was sort of a double-header entertainer on Wednesday evening as pianist in the first instance with the Grace Church Orchestra which furnished the music at St. Andrew's tea meeting, and later was heard over the Radio from C.F.R.C. Queen's University, where she delighted those listening in with two solos. Friends in Gananoque and surrounding country communicated with Miss Seale's parents here and stated that her numbers came in remarkably clear and well.

Miss Georgia MacKenzie, who for the past few months has been visiting friends in the North West, Hamilton and Buffalo, N.Y., arrived home Tuesday, and is with her sister, Mrs. David Bain.

Pat Shine has returned from Montreal after a week's visit there with his mother, Mrs. Benoit. St. Andrew's tea meeting was "Bigger, Better, Grander than Ever" this year and has added another star to the successful undertakings of the Ladies' Aid of this church.

About 500 were there for tea, and with few exceptions all stayed for the entertainment, which was particularly good as the following programme will indicate. Selection by the Grace Church Orchestra, of which Dr. Carleton Mabee is the leader; vocal solo, Miss Marie Squire; reading, Miss Ethel Pringle; vocal solo, Roy Bell; vocal solo, Mrs. Garfield Hood; piano duet, Mrs. F. B. Cowan, Miss Fairbrother; reading, Miss Pringle; vocal solo, Clarence Skinner; violin solo, Mrs. Russell Gray; vocal solo, Miss Rhea Haynes. Professor John Matheson, Dean of Queen's University was chairman. Professor Matheson was at one time on the staff of our high school, on King street, and when Mr. W. K. T. Smellie was principal. This was recalled by Prof. Matheson in his address, and several of the ex-pupils of the high school in the audience responded to his invitation to shake hands with him at the close of the concert.

The annual meeting of the Leeds County Loyal Orange Lodge was held in Lansdowne a few days ago when the following officers were elected for the year: Court Master, T. E. Searle, Gananoque; Court Deputy, Robert Wallace, New Dublin; Chaplain, Rev. Alfred Bishop, Esq.; Rec. Sec., Geo. R. Gardner, Gananoque; Exp. Sec., S. C. Dixon, Lansdowne; Treas., Robert Jack, Lansdowne; Marshal, Jos. Fox, Brockville; 1st Lecturer, Levi Jackson, Brockville; 2nd Lecturer, Arthur Horton, Lansdowne. The action of Gananoque Lodge which is preparing to celebrate the 12th here next July was endorsed by the County Lodge.

After the meeting the Lansdowne Lodge entertained those present at an excellent supper. Daniel Fairman's many friends in Gananoque and vicinity will be sorry to know that he is quite seriously ill at his home on Pine street.

Assistant Scout Master Gordon Foster has been selected as the delegate to the Boy Scout convention to be held in Windsor on the 12th February.

Mrs. J. W. Thompson received word from Kingston yesterday that her little grandson had been taken to the isolation hospital suffering from scarlet fever.

We were in error in stating that John Plunkett had bought Mr. Carpenter's house on Tanager street. Frank Goodfriend bought this residence, while Mr. Plunkett purchased the lot at the corner of Tanner and King west.

There is a lot of activity in real estate these days, and those who aren't buying cars or thinking about it, are buying houses or lots. G. L. Johnston will shortly begin remodeling his house on King west, now occupied by Mr. Bert Child, and will take possession of it himself.

William Thomson Story, Toronto, passed away on Monday. Deceased was the fourth eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Story, South Elmsley township.

NAPANEE

Napanee, Feb. 5.—A large tea was held in Trinity Church on Thursday afternoon in aid of the local branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses. A splendid programme was rendered by the following artists: Miss Georgie Robinson, Miss Mary Daly and Miss Mary McGrath, who sang delightfully, and Mrs. Cameron Wilson, who charmed the audience with her violin solos. The popular male quartette, Messrs. Caldwell, Waite, Shannon and Vandervoort, gave a couple of selections and were heartily applauded. Mr. Taiton gave a short address and Miss Robertson, the Victorian nurse, also gave a short talk on the splendid work which is being accomplished in the town. A large sum was realized to aid in carrying on the work in Napanee.

Mr. Harry Babcock, who was injured in an automobile accident a week ago, returned yesterday from Belleville hospital.

Leonard was first to find the remedy and called his prescription HEM-ROID.
