What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

"THREE LITTLE MAIDS."
Due to the fact that there is a game called golf which lends itself beautifully to comedy and that human beings, once they fall in love, often present comic aspects, "Three Little Maids," the musical comedy which comes to the Grand Theatre on Friday and Saturday, is one of the funniest plays of this type ever staged. Much of the credit must also go to G. P. Huntley, that most celebrated of English comedians, who has a peculiar facility for extracting side-splitting situations out of all varieties of ordinary life. Seat sale opens Wednesday.

CO-EDS OF QUEEN'S DEFEAT 'VARSITY
In Debate at Toronto—Three-Cornered Tie in the Union.

While their fellow co-eds were defeated by McGill in Kingston, the Queen's women's debating team evened the score by defeating the Varsity team in West Hall, University College, Toronto, on Saturday evening. Queen's supported the negative of the subject, "Resolved, that the trend of modern English and American literature is anti-social," while here they argued for the affirmative. Miss Dora Sanders and Miss Helen O'Reilly debated for Toronto on the affirmative; the co-eds were Miss Jean Simmons and Miss Kathleen Whittion.

SPORT
OURLING

The results of the curling at the local rink on Friday were as follows:

Ladies' Series.

AGAIN DEFEATED MCGILL.
University of Toronto Seniors Won Saturday's Game 3-1.
Montreal, Feb. 8.—University of Toronto's senior hockey team continued on its triumphant march through the intercollegiate series by defeating McGill, 3 to 1, Saturday night. The local team put up a splendid battle, but was no match for the speed and combination unworked by the blue and white machine.

CITIZENS FINED FOR NOT CLEARING SNOW
A Number Allowed to Go With Warning by the Police Magistrate.

Watch your step! The crusade against citizens who neglect to shovel the snow off their sidewalk continues. In Police Court on Blue Monday morning a number of citizens appeared charged with this offence. Several were fined $1 and costs, while a number of cases were enlarged.
