CITY AND DISTRICT

Another Chimney Fire.
A chimney fire on Sydenham street gave the firemen a run to-day at noon. There was no damage done.

Calling For Sand.
Owing to the very icy and dangerous condition of the walks the citizens are crying out for the use of sand. It is very greatly needed.

Rush at Hotels.
Local hotels were almost filled to capacity on Tuesday, when an exceptionally large number of commercial travellers arrived in the city.

Official Board Met.
A meeting of the official board of Sydenham Street United Church was held on Monday night, there being a good attendance. Only routine business was transacted.

At Gospel Tabernacle.
Your last chance to hear Mr. Alfred Mace, at the Gospel Tabernacle tonight at eight. The subject will be "Forgiveness of Sins; (a) Governmental; (b) Instrumental."

Hear Evangelist Chapman.
At the New Church on Alfred street, corner Princess, to-night at 7.45, as he speaks on "God's Sky-writing of the End of the World." Don't miss this lecture. All invited.

Left for Ottawa.
Ex-Mayor J. M. Hughes, whose appointment to the position of general manager of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind has been announced, was in the city during Monday, and left in the evening for Ottawa.

"Religion and Art."
"Religion and Art," was the subject of a lecture delivered in Convocation Hall on Monday afternoon, by Prof. W. G. Jordan. This is the second lecture in an extension series on Beauty and Art, which the University has arranged for this winter.

At Rotary Club.
The speaker at the Rotary Club luncheon, on Thursday, will be A. H. Carr, director of the extension work of Queen's University. He will speak on "Home training and its value to the business men of the city."

Bellevalle Library Board.
The board of management of the Corby Public Library, Bellevalle, has organized for the ensuing year with the following officers: Chairman, F. D. Diamond; secretary-treasurer, H. J. Clarke; chairman of finance, C. N. Sulman; librarians, Mrs. L. Walker and Miss C. E. Yeomans.

Lively Runaway.
A team of horses drawing one of the garbage collection sleighs became frightened on Princess street, below King, and dashed up Princess street for several blocks before they were stopped. The driver of the sleigh about ten o'clock this morning was collecting garbage when the horses took flight.

Tendered Gifts.
There was a large gathering, recently of friends, co-workers and neighbors, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Vick, Bloomfield, leaving to take up residence in Nanapanee, where Mr. Vick has been appointed manager of the canning factory. They were tendered parting gifts.

Married in England.
On Jan. 25th, 1926, at the United Methodist Church, St. Ives, Cornwall, England, the marriage took place of Captain W. Miles Miller, M.C. (Royal Signals), eldest son of the late F. F. Miller and Mrs. Miller, Nanapanee, and Marion, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald M. Huestis, "Birchpoll," Toronto.

Speakers For Battersess.
The speakers this week at the Agricultural Short Course which is being held at Battersess, will be T. H. Shields of Peterboro, authority on bees; and Eric McGreer and L.

W. Pearsall both of the Livestock Department at Ottawa.

Market Gardeners Do Better.
Toronto Star: Prof. Reed, of Queen's, says it takes the products of nearly three acres of land to support one individual. As a rule, however, we would say that market gardeners do better than that.

For Reduction Rates.
It is likely that members of the Public Utilities Commission will go to Toronto next week, to interview the Hydro-Electric Commission regarding a reduction in the rates for electricity in Kingston. In view of the anticipated surplus in this department, the members feel that the rates should be dropped and that the consumers should be given the benefit of the surplus.

Pembroke Club.
Untiring effort, rewarded by gratifying results were recorded in reports presented at the annual meeting of the Pembroke Alexandra Club. Officers returned by acclamation were: President, Mrs. A. E. Cockburn; 1st vice-president, Mrs. J. G. Forgie; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. W. C. Irving; secretary, Miss Elizabeth Bell; treasurer, Mrs. J. L. Morris.

Debate in Toronto To-night.
To-night the Imperial team will debate with the University of Toronto on the subject, "Resolved, that western civilization is becoming a degenerating influence on mankind," and on Wednesday night they will debate at Hart House. Leaving Toronto on Thursday they will tour Western Canada and later on New Zealand and Australia, arriving home in England about the middle of next July.

Children of Mary Dance.
On Monday evening the Children of Mary held a very enjoyable informal dance at the Catholic Assembly hall. Mrs. Thompson, assisted by Misses Maddigan and Kehoe, received the many guests. The music was rendered by Shea's Orchestra. Dainty refreshments were served at intermission by Mrs. T. Milne and Mrs. T. James. The conveners were Misses V. James, M. Cross, G. Milne and V. Martin.
