DOUBLE-HEADER ON LAST NIGHT

Kingston Juniors Won Game 14-2 and Round by 27-6—R.M.C. Beat Queen's 4-1.

Kingston fans got their poor hockey all in a bunch in the double-header that was pulled off at the Arena last night, the first in the intermediate fixture between R.M.C. and Queen's in the Intercollegiate series which R.M.C. won by the score of 4-1, winning the round by 8-4. The second was the return game of the junior O.H.A. series between Trenton and Kingston Juniors which was won by the Kingston team by the one-sided score of 14-2. This gave the locals the round by 27-6, a margin of 21 goals.

Intermediate Game.

The intermediate game was carded first, starting at 7.30. Either the ice was too fast for the Tricolor representatives or their skates had not been sharpened in several weeks. They slid and fell all over the ice and except for odd spasms, failed to show hockey of any class. R.M.C. were not such an awful lot better and the result was that a very uninteresting game was served up.

In the first period R.M.C. took the lead when they rang up a tally and held Queen's out of the scoring column and in the second frame they repeated the performance. Queen's landed a counter in the last period while the Cadets came through with two goals, nullifying the verdict. While the game, taken generally, was not up to much, there were some good flashes of individual hockey in which Walker, Tremaine, Davis and Smith starred for R.M.C., while on the opposition side, Johnston showed much improvement over his previous appearances this season. He worked hard and at times was effective. "Red" Legon was not the same boy at all who played in previous games with Kingston intermediates. He was adorned with a new pair of skates and much of his playing consisted of sweeping checks while he was down. Grimes showed speed but was loose around the net. Baldwin played good hockey in the last period. The goal-tenders played the best hockey of anybody and Rogers had horse-shoes hung all over him. He made saves that looked impossible while Orford at the other end had some difficult shots to handle.

The teams were:
R.M.C.—Goal, Rogers; defence, Davis, Walker, centre, MacDougall; wings, Tremaine, Clarke; subs, Smith, Nichol.
Queen's—Goal, Orford; defence, Knapp, Ellis; centre, Legon; wings, Grimes, Johnston; subs, Baldwin, Heintzman.
Referee—Joe Smith.

The Junior Game.

Kingston Juniors had things pretty soft last night with the Trenton Juniors and ran up a score of 14-2, necessitating the score-board being started on its second round, the first time this has happened this season. The one-sidedness of the score needs no more to tell what kind of a game it was. Trenton were hopelessly out-classed by the local Juniors and even at that the Kingston crew did not get under way the first period at all. In the second frame they were a little better and in the last period they ran pretty true to form and exhibited some nice passing. They were robbed of goals dozens of times in the last period by the good work of Heaney in the Trenton nets and this boy deserves credit for his share of the work even if he did have fourteen put by him. He saved three times as many more.

Kingston had things too easy to make the game exciting or interesting. In the first period they rested on their heels, that is with the exception of Patterson who scored the first four goals. The crowd called for the Kingston team to play hockey but they contented themselves with

SENIOR CONTEST CARDED TO-NIGHT

McGill Hockey Team, With St. Germain, Meets Queen's at Arena.

Fully determined to do their best to pull their first win in the senior Intercollegiate hockey of the season, Queen's will take the ice at the Arena tonight against McGill in its second home game of the season. The Tricolor was defeated in Montreal by McGill by only a small margin and is confident that it can return the defeat tonight on its own "pond."

In nearly all its games Queen's has lost out after real stiff battles and its supporters are sure that the Tricolor can get out of the cellar position and make a good start by defeating the Shagmen tonight. McGill has a mighty fast team this season and although defeated by Varsity twice, gave the champions the hardest run they experienced this season. The championship now being salted away, the Red and White is out with hammer and tongs to cop second honors and Coach Shaughnessy has been working the squad hard in preparation for the game with Queen's tonight. St. Germain has been the star of the McGill squad and has a reputation for being one of the neatest stick-handlers and shooters displayed in the Intercollegiate in some time. He is a goal-getter and much of McGill's hopes will be centred in him tonight. The other forwards are about equal in fast as St. Germain and complete a formidable trio of attackers. Murphy, who has handled the rubber for McGill here before, will be in the nets and as local fans who have seen him in action know, he is a valuable man to have parked in front of the net.

Queen's will be a stronger team than the one which put up such a hard struggle for two periods against Varsity in the game here, with Rooney and Legon on Queen's showed great style in the game with the Blue and White and gave assurance that it is not a weak team by any means. Bowyer and Lindsay can step with the best couple of forwards in the senior Intercollegiate and should shape up well with the famous St. Germain. Rooney and Pelton will likely look after the defensive part of the game and Morris will be in the nets.

Classy hockey for the full sixty minutes should be displayed in the attraction tonight and it is likely that there will be a large crowd on hand to see the Tricolor make a bid for its first taste of victory of the season.

HAS OWN FIELD.
"Red" Grange Will Have His Own Football Business.
New York, Feb. 11.—Harold "Red" Grange, Galloping Ghost of Illinois, has decided to settle down for the next five years. Instead of wandering over these United States, exhibiting his skill with the straight arm and his ability to break through the line, he has done these last few months, "Red" will be at home at the Yankee Stadium with his own football field. The halfback flash completed arrangements yesterday for the use of the ball park and is now trying to obtain a franchise in the National Football League.

Edward G. Burrow, business manager of the New York American League Baseball Club, returned from Washington, Feb. 11.—The use of resin by American League pitchers will not be permitted this year, the club owners of the league ruled in unanimously opposing the rule recently adopted at a meeting of the Joint Rules Committee of the major leagues in New York.

The magnates, without a single exception, opposed the rule on the ground that such modification would influence the return of freak deliveries, which were abolished from baseball in 1920.

Earl Johnson, president of the league, in explaining the action, said the league could nullify the action of the Joint Rules Committee if it was unanimously approved.

Asked how the action would affect world's series competition, since the National League had voted for the use of resin, President Johnson said special rules would have to be adopted for the series.

McTIGUE ANXIOUS.
Has Accepted Challenge by Jack Delaney.
New York, Feb. 11.—William Muldoon, 21-year-old authority on boxing and wrestling, declined the Chairmanship of the New York State Athletic Commission, and James A. Farley, of Stony Point, N.Y., was re-elected for another term of one year.

Mike McTigue, former light-heavyweight champion, appeared before the board to accept a challenge by Jack Delaney of Bridgeport, Conn., to box in Madison Square Garden on March 15th for the privilege of opposing Paul Berlenbach in a championship match. McTigue made his acceptance conditional upon the willingness of Berlenbach to face the winner within thirty days.

SPORTING NOTES AND COMMENT

And now the lofty Plumbers' Hockey Club wants to play the Printers. The Plumbers put it all over the Printers in baseball, but the latter have some hockey team and it might be just as well for the pipe-handlers to "lay off" Joe Smith and his hockey band.

There is little doubt in the minds of many fans that the local Juniors will not stop this side of the O.H.A.-junior championship. There is one good point about the team, however. They don't figure on any championship at all. They figure from game to game, which is a sure sign that they are not afflicted with the malady that some fans were inclined to believe they had. The boys are working their hardest to bring hockey honors to the city, and if they do it will be a big boost for the city and for themselves.

The McGill team will take the ice to-night as follows: Goal, Murphy (5); defence, McMahon (2), McGerrigle (3); centre, Mickles (4); wings, St. Germain (6), Abbott (1); spares, Bell (8), Lynch (9), Smith (11), Heney (10).

Some very high scores have been made at the Kingston Curling Club this season, J. B. Cooke and A. A. Turcotte being the most consistent skips. The weather has been very suitable for the roarin' game up to date and the games are well advanced in all the series.

The Calgary Herald says: "Imagine what this fellow, Bill Cook, would have meant on the Calgary Tigers. The club lost him for a matter of $200. He wanted that much more, but a messenger to Cook's home didn't have the authority to go any higher, and by the time he got back with the necessary sanction, Cook had signed with Saskatoon."

Chicago confirmed the reports from Detroit that Grange and his manager, C. C. Pyle, had obtained the Yankee Stadium for professional football for the next five years.

"The agreement," said Mr. Barrow, "gives Grange and his manager full control of the Stadium on all Sundays and holidays from October 15th to December 31st in each year for five years. The Yankee reserve all Saturdays for college games."

If Grange is unable to obtain a league franchise, which would put another team in the New York field, he will play independently of the league. In addition to obtaining the use of the Yankee Stadium for five years, Grange also has the privilege of renewing the lease for an additional five-year period.

College gridiron stars will be barred from playing professional football until after their classes have been graduated, under a rule adopted by representatives of the twenty clubs of the National Football League in semi-annual session at Detroit.

Are Made Senior.
Winnipeg, Feb. 11.—Four teams comprising the intermediate league of Winnipeg have been elevated to senior status by a decision of the Manitoba Hockey Association.

By the ruling of the Provincial body, the teams become eligible to competition for the Allan Cup. The high standard of play in the league was responsible for the promotion. The league is composed of Tammany Tigers, University of Manitoba, Argos and St. John's.

COUNTY LEAGUE HOCKEY.
On Saturday afternoon at the Palace rink the Battersea and Cataract Juniors met in the second clash of the season between these two teams. The Battersea team defeated Cataract in the opening game of the season but the latter team has been considerably strengthened since that time and expects to give the visitors a harder run this time. Both teams are anxious for a victory as it will mean much to whichever one wins it.

It should be a sizzling game from start to finish.
Sunbury seniors go to Verona on Saturday where the third game in the senior series will be played. According to fate, the game should end up 3-3. The first game was 1-1 and the second game 2-3. Fate may be fooled this time, however. Verona Juniors play at Sunbury.

Monday hockey matches: Carleton Place 5, Smith's Falls 3; Almonte 6, Perth 1; Pembroke 5, Renfrew 1.
To-day is improvement day, not tomorrow.

Representatives Taking Part In Intercollegiate Assault

All arrangements for the big Intercollegiate assault-at-arms to be held here at Grant Hall on Friday and Saturday nights have been completed, and indications are that the events this year will be more attractive than they have been in the past few years.

On Friday morning the officials will gather the contestants together and the boxers will be weighed in and the draws made for the byes. The men drawing the byes on Friday morning, will meet the winners of Friday night's bouts in the same classes on Saturday night. This does not mean that the final bouts on Saturday night will be the only ones to see. The semi-finals on Friday night promise to be just as fast as the finals and that there will be big crowds in attendance on both nights goes without saying. The prices have been fixed very reasonably and those fans who have been clamoring about boxing and wrestling will have their fill of this sport in the two nights that the Intercollegiate battlers are here.

The representatives of the three universities, McGill, Queen's and Varsity, in the Intercollegiate assault-at-arms being held at Grant Hall on Friday and Saturday of this week, are as follows:
