Our annual Red Letter shoe sale is now in full swing. Twenty per cent. discount off all shoes in stock. Some wonderful values in broken lines and odd sizes. All sales for cash. See our advertisement on page nine of this issue. J. H. Sutherland & Bro.

Attendance Officers.
At the meeting of the Board of Education held on Thursday night, Mrs. Eason, the attendance officer, reported as follows: Names reported by teachers and others, 116; visits to homes and schools, 219; notices to parents, 6; requests for exemptions, 8; granted, 4; case for magistrate, 1. This was remanded.

Must Shovel Snow.
"I had a man engaged to do the work, but evidently he did not do it," said a citizen, arraigned before Magistrate Farrell, on Friday morning, charged with neglecting to have the snow removed from his sidewalk. He was fined $1. Three other citizens who neglected this walk were also fined a similar amount.

Eachre and Dance.
The Sons of Scotland eachre and dance was held on Thursday night, in the Orange Hall, about eighteen tables being in play. The ladies' first prize was won by Mrs. Fowler, and the gentlemen's first prize by Mr. W. R. Bush. The ladies' consolation prize was won by Mrs. C. A. Wells and the gentlemen's consolation prize by Mr. MacSweeney. The floor was in charge of Mr. Dishart and excellent music was provided by Salisbury's orchestra.

Fair Grounds Question.
On Thursday evening, an informal meeting of the civic property committee was held, with members of various sports organizations, when the question of what is to be done with the fair grounds was under discussion, but no definite action was taken. Ald. Anderson presided at the meeting. The question was discussed from various angles, and it is hoped in due time to arrive at some conclusion so that the matter can be brought before the City Council for final decision.

Sons of England Juveniles.
Prince Alfred Lodge No. 24, Sons of England Juveniles, held a delightful sleigh drive Thursday evening. Two sleighs picked up the members and their guests at the lodge rooms, and, after a most enjoyable tour of the city, deposited them again at the lodge rooms, where refreshments were ready to be served. Games were then the order of the evening, after which Bro. J. A. Edward gave a recitation, followed by songs from Bro. G. H. Ashby and Bro. D. Cockburn. Everybody spent a happy evening.

Late Frank Greenwood.
The funeral of the late Frank Greenwood took place on Friday morning from his late residence, Wolfe Island, to the Sacred Heart Church, where a solemn requiem mass was sung for the happy repose of his soul by Rev. Father McKinnon. The funeral was very largely attended, as the deceased was very well known and highly regarded on Wolfe Island. The pall bearers were six nephews of the deceased, Vincent Greenwood, James Greenwood, Oliver Greenwood, John Greenwood, Mack Greenwood and George Greenwood. The funeral arrangements were in charge of the James Reid firm.

Community Training School.
The opening session of the Community Training School, which is being held in Kingston, under the auspices of the Religious Education Council was held on Thursday evening in Queen street church. Sessions will be held each Thursday evening for a period of five weeks. The aim of the course is to train teachers for the Sunday schools of the city and up to date 107 have registered. The opening session was well attended. The following are the leaders of the study groups and their subjects: First group: "Training the Devotional Life," by Rev. G. A. Brown; second group: "A Study of the New Testament," by W. T. MacClement; third group: "Young People's Workers," by Rev. Frank Sanderson; fourth group: "Workers with Children," Mrs. B. I. England. The work is based on "The Use of the Story in Religious Education," by Margaret Eggleston, an expert in this work. The dean of the school and leader of the worship period is Mr. J. Lyttle. The next session of the school will be held in Sydenham church.

Central Home and School Club.
A most enjoyable concert was held at the Central school, on Tuesday night, under the auspices of the Home and School Club. There was a good attendance, and the programme was a most delightful one and greatly enjoyed by all present. The programme included the following numbers: Piano solo, Miss Kate Ryan; song, Miss Elsie McEachron; song, Kenneth Crawford; instrumental duets, Misses Lillian Gilbert and Helen McEwen; reading, Miss Charlotte Ferris; song, Miss C. Self; song, Mrs. R. Crawford; recitation, Helen Hart; cornet solo, Master Christmas; recitation, Miss C. Self; song, Ross Burke; violin solo, Miss Helen McEwen; Canadian National Songs, by the pupils.

Following the concert, all who took part were tendered a hearty vote of thanks, on motion of Mr. Root. Refreshments were served, and the proceedings were brought to a close with the singing of the National Anthem. A number of ladies had the arrangements in charge.
