DESERONTO

Deseronto, Feb. 15.—The trial which took place in the court house on Friday, in which two Deseronto youths figured, the one having had the other arrested for assault, resulted in $25 fine and costs and a cash bond for $500 to keep the peace for a year, for the defendant.

On Friday night, in their hall, the Royal Templars Lodge held a box social, which was splendidly attended, and the disposal of the boxes by auction was a matter of great interest to the anxious-eyed little maidens who had so carefully prepared them. The evening was a success financially and an occasion of fun for all who were there.

Miss Mavis Footes was hostess, on Friday evening, at a dance given in the Stuart Hotel, of which Mr. Footes is proprietor.

The Catholic Women's League held a successful tea, and sale of homemade cooking in the parish hall on Saturday afternoon. Those Saturday afternoon sales, which are becoming such a feature of the different church organizations, are a boon to the tired housewife.

Mrs. William Kimball and Miss Isobel Cole of Picton were callers in town on Saturday.

Mrs. William Rayn of Mill street was hostess to a number of her friends on Friday evening.

Mrs. Charles Clement left on Saturday for Toronto, where she will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Hoag, for a few weeks.

The High School Literary Society held its meeting in the assembly room on Friday afternoon. The programme, which was excellent in all its features, was in charge of the Plebians and presided over by Miss Ursula Brennan, president. There were piano solos by Miss Brennan and Mr. Gordon Hall, a dumbbell drill by sixteen girls, an original song on the "Plebs," a splendid paper by Mr. Clarence McVicker and a medley of Southern songs by a number of the "Plebs." In the trial scene from "The Merchant of Venice" special mention might be made of the clever interpretation of Portia and Shylock, by Miss Shirley Colclough and Victor Blake. Mrs. Gordon gave an address on the work of the Humane Society, and at the conclusion of the programme dancing was enjoyed by the students and their guests till six o'clock.

Jack Dewar of Belleville spent the week-end with Mr. Bruce Campbell, Mill street.

RAPID GROWTH OF COMPANY.

Told in Address Given by President of Great West Life.

The address delivered at the annual general meeting of the Great West Life Assurance Company on February 2nd, by the retiring president, Mr. A. MacDonald, contains a wealth of information in regard to the rapid growth of the company. The first general meeting of the company was held on June 23rd, 1892, when Mr. MacDonald was elected president. Mr. MacDonald expressed his deep appreciation of the confidence reposed in him by the directors during his long term of office. He expressed satisfaction at the rapid increase in the amount written by the company, which had now reached $420,000,000. The retiring president paid a glowing tribute to the founder of the company, Mr. J. H. Brooks, to whom he referred as "a sincere and loyal friend." The death during the year of Sir Augustus M. Nanton a vice-president of the company, was also regretted by Mr. MacDonald, who was unstinted in his praise of the service and personality of the deceased.

BACK TO THE BIBLE

Is The Call of the Hour, Says Evangelist Chapman.

"Our divine Lord the Saviour of men, being again wounded in the house of his friends, is the saddest spectacle before the world today. Every attack which avowed infidelity has ever made upon the Bible is now being repeated by men who profess to be and call themselves Christians and are paid to stand in the sacred desk to uphold doctrines which they are openly repudiating and denying."

So declared Evangelist Chapman, at the new church on Alfred street Sunday night. "Back to the Bible, the chart and compass of the Christian faith, is the call of the hour. No longer than fifty years ago men would have ridiculed the idea that ministers in most of the leading churches would today be teaching practically the same doctrine that Ingersoll, the open infidel, taught them."

Called To Bedside.

Maple Grove, Feb. 13.—O. A. Bogard, linesman, is able to be out again after a severe attack of grippe. G. H. Todd spent a few days in Lanedowne this week. James Bell was called to the bedside of his mother, Mrs. Bell, Woodburn, whose condition remains serious. Heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson, who were married at Malloytown, on Feb. 10th. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hall spent Friday with Mrs. Hall's sister, Mrs. Frederick Garrett. Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton entertained at the tea hour, on Friday, Miss Hilda Dorman, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Connor and Jack Mrs. Adam Lakey and Miss Florence Curdick, Brockville, are visitors at H. Todd's over the week-end. W. E. Clark has helped engaged in getting up a large pile of wood.

Chinese New Year.

The Chinese colony in Kingston did not observe the Chinese New Year which fell on Saturday last. The Chinese in this city believe that when they are in Rome they should do as the Romans do, and therefore they celebrate on January 1st. In larger cities in Canada, and the United States, where there are established Chinatowns and in China, the year 4889 of the Chinese calendar was celebrated with numerous ceremonies. These include degil dances in which the dancers dressed in grotesque masks and costumes execute many weird steps in the hope that they will frighten away any evils which may be lurking in the vicinity. On their New Year the Chinese also make resolutions.

There are no shade trees and hammocks scattered along the road to success.

Given Fine Treat.

The members of the Women Teacher's Association of Kingston, remembered the inmates at the Home for the Aged on St. Valentine's Day in a most fitting manner, when they had delivered at the institution in time for breakfast, Sunday morning, a box containing candy, fruit and other sweets for the inmates. There was also money and tobacco. The kindness of the teachers is greatly appreciated by the inmates.

Aged Priest Ill.

Right Rev. Monsignor Edward H. Murray, P.A., Cobourg, is seriously ill, having been confined to his bed for several weeks. Monsignor Murray has been parish priest of Cobourg for the past forty-seven years, and was ordained a priest in St. Mary's Cathedral, Kingston, in December 1866, by the late Bishop Horan, his uncle. He will celebrate his eighty-third birthday on March 27th.

Funeral of Charles Chambers.

The funeral of the late Charles Chambers took place on Saturday afternoon from M. P. Keyes' funeral home to St. Mary's Cathedral where a solemn Libera was chanted by Rev. Father Hyland. The pallbearers were Edward Charles, R. Campbell, H. Campbell and C. Wilson.

DEATHS AT VERONA.

The Late W. F. Watson and Miss Henrietta Deyo.
Verona, Feb. 9.—On Monday evening W. F. Watson passed away. Mr. Watson had been in poor health for sometime but had been feeling much better. He was stricken suddenly and lived only a few minutes. The funeral service was conducted at the house on Wednesday by Rev. M. Leach of Sydenham. Deceased's two sons, Benjamin, of Toronto and William, of Kingston, have returned to their homes.

On Tuesday morning, Henrietta, second daughter of Amos Deyo, passed away at the age of fourteen years, after only a few days illness. Her sunny disposition had won her many friends during her short life, and much sympathy is extended to the sorrowing relatives. The funeral service was held in the Free Methodist church on Thursday, by Rev. F. Loft.

Mrs. Joseph Jeffrey, who has been very ill, is much improved. H. M. Wilkins is able to be out again.

Messrs. Walker and Geag have taken over the store owned by T. H. Craig. A number from here attended the "At Home" at Sydenham on Friday night. Mrs. Graham Bauder was called suddenly to the bedside of her son, Ralph, who is in a hospital at Watertown, N.Y. Mrs. W. N. Reid, Ormond, spent last week-end with her mother, Mrs. J. E. Campbell.

The marriage was solemnized at St. Francis de Sales Presbytery, Smith's Falls on Feb. 10th, of Ida Elvina, youngest daughter of Mrs. Louis Courier, Smith's Falls, to Mr. Alfred Walter Whiting, also of Smith's Falls.

Rev. A. B. Chambers, D.D., Toronto, has just reached his eighty-fifth birthday in good health. He was pastor of Trinity church, Napoleon, in early days.

OLD TIME DANCES.

Were Enjoyed at a Recent Event in Toledo.

Toledo, Feb. 13.—Miss Beatrice Cole spent the week-end at her home in Brockville. We are glad to welcome Harold Bellamy back to our midst again after four years sojourn at the Agricultural College farm, Kemptville. H. Castle was a Delta visitor on Sunday. Adam McCrum has moved into the village, previously he resided in a house belonging to Duncan McClure but a fire, on 4th inst., from an overheated stove-pipe although checked just in time by the kindly aid of neighbors and with the fire extinguisher, rendered the home unfit for habitation.

Mrs. Ella Kennedy is not enjoying her usual fairly good health. George Wilkins, who has been seriously ill, is improving. Samuel Rummings is still quite ill. Mr. and Mrs. George Riley were Sunday visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Phillips'.

The members of St. Philip's Club gave an old time dance in Toledo last night, a special feature being the elimination of all modern dances. A most enjoyable time was spent for several hours by the large crowd present. Dancing all the old time dances was enjoyed to the strains of excellent music.

Portland Items.

Portland, Feb. 13.—A meeting of the council was held here on the 6th. The Portland hockey boys held a dance and supper on the 10th, which was well patronized. R. Morris, who has been on the sick list for some time, is improving.

Walter Heath, who has been in Ottawa for the last week, has returned home. The farmers are very busy these days hauling logs to the saw mill and supplying the village with wood.

Mrs. Charles J. Polk received the sad news of her father's death. Both Mr. and Mrs. Polk went to Stirling for the funeral. Mrs. Froeland has gone to see her mother who is quite ill at present.

Rev. Dr. A. V. Brown, of Humber Collegiate, Toronto, has a call to Alexander Presbyterian church, Brantford. He was formerly a minister in Picton.
