What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

DOUBLE BILL AT CAPITOL.
Gloria Swanson lived twenty years during the filming of her latest picture. It sounds unreasonable to state it just that way, but here is how she did it:
The story, "The Coast of Folly," which opens at the Capitol to-day, starts with the desertion of her millionaire husband by Gathaway. Gloria first portrays Nadine Gathaway. Twenty years later, Nadine's daughter, Joyce, is shown as the heroine of the picture. She is the pet of the younger set at Palm Beach. Miss Swanson is Joyce. And Miss Nadine comes back into the story as the Countess de Tauro, the wife of a French nobleman, whom she wed some years after deserting her first husband. And, of course, Miss Swanson with the aid of a makeup box and gorgeous clothes, is the Countess.

The great thing about seeing a Gloria comedy, is that you "never know what is coming next. He is the most original comedian that we have."

REFEREE RODDEN WAS ARRESTED
When Preparing to Leave Hotel for Game at Montreal Forum.

Montreal, Feb. 15.—Referee Mike Rodden was arrested Saturday night and taken to Detective Headquarters on a warrant charging him with hitting Hercule Merizzi during a game on Jan. 19th in the Mount Royal Arena.

The warrant was signed by Judge Amedee Monet. Notary Merizzi swore out the warrant.

A bombshell was thrown into the crowd here by the news that Mike Rodden had come to an understanding agreeable to both of them and that the hatchet was buried, mainly through the efforts of President Calder and The Standard. Rodden had been arrested just before the time that he should have left for the match an unexpected incident was that some over-enthusiastic Canadian supporter had sworn out the warrant, not knowing that the whole thing had been arranged.

The warrant it appears, was sworn out before Judge Monet by a man named Globensky, and President James Strachan of the Maroons, was notified by telephone from the central police station.

Mr. Strachan, and W. Northey, Managing Director of the Forum, put their heads together, and were joined by President Calder, who had been hurriedly sent for, and means were at once started to get Rodden out of duration vile.

To do this it appeared that his friends had to go to Judge Monet's residence, and there make application.

As the process of getting Rodden out of the clutches of the law would take some time, however, it was decided to ask Billy Bell to take Rodden's place with Bobby Hewitson, in refereeing the game.

A little after eight o'clock, President Frank Calder left in a taxi for Judge Monet's house, accompanied by Lawyer Laverty, to offer bail for Rodden's release. The majority of the crowd at the Forum knew nothing about all these strange developments, and heartily cheered the two teams as they came out on the ice.

On an order of Judge Enright, Rodden was later released on bail but he was too late for the game. His case was to have come up this morning although Rodden returned to Toronto, being represented in the court by counsel.

GEORGE STEWART OUP GOES TO DARK HORSES
Captured Juvenile Title in Defeating Maple Leafs by 3-2 Score.

The Dark Horses defeated the Maple Leafs by a score of 3-2 at the Arena Saturday morning, winning the George Stewart Cup. The game was very fast and clean hockey was prevalent throughout the fixture. Patterson, Gibson and Mathewson scored for the winners while Amey and Tatt notched one each for the Maple Leafs. The teams were:
Dark Horses—Goal, Cunningham; defence, Elliott, Patterson; centre, Amey; wings, Mathewson, Gibson; spares, Bell, Blomley.
Maple Leafs—Goal, Guy; defence, A. Amey, McKee; centre, Disney; wings, Woods, Hunt; spare, Tatt.

WON ANOTHER.
The Dark Horses defeated the West End by a score of 8-1 in a junior juvenile fixture at the K.C.I. rink Saturday morning. The winners had complete control of the play and were never in danger. The teams were:
Dark Horses—Goal, Cunningham; defence, Elliott, Cathcart; centre, S. Amey; wings, Bews, Blake; spares, Blomley, Roberts.
West End—Goal, N. Aldridge; defence, Nicholson, McCue; centre, Bolands; wings, Doyle, Thurbury; spares, S. Aldridge, Parks.

MIKE RODDEN'S CASE.
Local hockey fans were quite incensed over the action of a Montreal fan in swearing out a warrant for the arrest of Mike Rodden in Montreal on Saturday night when he visited that city to referee a pro hockey game. Although it was all a mistake, it shows to what extent Montreal is carrying on in the pro hockey season. Montreal is getting a pretty hard name in sporting circles as a result of some of the actions that have taken place there this winter.

THE PRO. LEAGUE.
All indications are that the proposed second professional hockey league will pan out to be more or less a frost. The team in Western Ontario who were slated to join up, have passed up the idea and fail to see where any good could come from it. Certainly prospects for the proposed league are none too bright.

Belleville Wine O.B.A. Game.
Belleville, Y. M. C. A., defeated Queen's intermediates by a score of 25-24 in an intermediate O.B.A. game at Belleville Friday night. The game was very close all through and Belleville scored their winning basket as time was called. The teams were:
Queen's—Right forward, Sexton;

Referee—Ralph Morden.

QUEEN'S DEFEAT U. OF T. IN BASKETBALL GAME
Tricolor Team Took the Lead in Senior Intercollegiate Basketball Series.

Toronto, Feb. 15.—Queen's University took the leadership in the senior intercollegiate basketball series here on Saturday night, when they defeated Toronto, the present champions, by 19 to 18, scoring their second victory on successive nights. The victory gives Queen's three wins in four games, while Toronto has as many victories in five games. In the previous game between the two quintets Toronto won by one point in Kingston.

The winners got away to a flying start and led at half time by 13 to 4, but the locals staged a strong rally at the start of the second half and gradually cut down the margin until the two teams were tied at 17 all. In the closing minutes Queen's netted a field basket and the losers made one foul throw. The game was witnessed by the largest crowd of the season, and the strong and close finish had the spectators on their feet in the closing minutes.

The winners displayed an excellent short passing game, and checked hard all the way. Thomas and Durham were exceptionally strong defensively, and while a considerable number of personal fouls were called against them in the last half they were not costly, as the losers missed a number of shots, any two of which would have given them a victory. Hutchinson, Bell—and Currie were the best for the locals. The teams:
Queen's—Sutton and Jones, forwards; Clarke, centre; Thomas and Durham, guards; Haslam, Clary and Lamonte, substitutes.
Toronto—W. A. Potter and Smith, forwards; Hutchinson, centre; Bell and Burgess, guards; C. W. Potter, Maguire and Currie, substitutes.
Referee—Percy Miller, Toronto.

Rugby Prospects Bright.
Toronto, Feb. 15.—Prospects for a record year were expressed at the annual meeting of the Ontario Rugby Football Union Saturday afternoon when it was the general opinion that two senior groups would be in operation next season, while an increase is also expected in the entries in the intermediate and junior ranks. London, Sarnia and Montreal are considering entering the senior series, while there was also talk of other teams advancing. Hamilton Tigers were granted the Hamilton Rowing Club's senior franchise on the same condition as the Toronto Varsity. The officers were elected as follows: President, John DeGruchy; First Vice-President, Hugh B. Jennings; Second Vice-President, W. A. Childs, Hamilton; Secretary, Harry McKee; Executive Committee, Jack Newton, Sarnia, and Dr. Donald Warren, Hamilton.

RESUMES MANAGEMENT.
Mr. P. J. Moran, former manager of the Frontenac Bowling Academy, who has been away for some time, has returned to the city and has taken over the general superintendency of the Frontenac Bowling and Recreation Academy. With Mr. Moran on the job again, patrons of this sport are assured of the same courteous treatment extended to them as given during Mr. Moran's tenure of office.

A Sacred Recital.
A sacred recital was given in the First Baptist church on Sunday evening by Mr. C. Kelso, tenor, of Stratford, assisted by Mrs. T. E. Turner and choir. The programme was well balanced and very pleasing throughout.

DEATH OF A SISTER AT THE HOTEL DIEU
Late Sara Ann Farrell Known as Sister Mary of the Angels.

On the 13th inst., after a short illness with pneumonia, death claimed as its victim one of the oldest and most revered members of the Hotel Dieu Sisterhood, in the person of Sara Ann Farrell (known in religion as Sister Mary of the Angels). She was a daughter of the late John Farrell and Catherine Doyle, born sixty-eight years ago near Elgin, Ont. At a very early age she felt she was called to the religious life and entered the Hotel Dieu Convent, where she most unselfishly devoted herself day and night to God's suffering members. When St. Bernard's Hospital, Chicago, was founded, Sister Mary of the Angels very generously gave her services for seventeen years. During this period this zealous Sister accomplished a great deal for fallen and suffering humanity. Her amiable, charitable and motherly manner enabled her to assist the most repulsive and hardened to a better mode of life and to comfort with a mother's feeling the afflicted and sorrow stricken. When her friends and associates think of her untiring devotion, they do not wonder that she endeared herself to all classes and creeds.

The immediate relatives who came to attend her funeral are: Mr. Martin Farrell, Marquette, Mich.; Mrs. J. J. Paxton, Mrs. T. Scott, of Rochester, N.Y.; Mrs. James O'Brien, Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. H. Fleming, Elgin. On Monday morning the funeral mass was celebrated by His Grace Most Rev. Archbishop Spratt, assisted by Rev. J. J. Powell, Kingston, as deacon; Rev. J. S. Ryan, Kingston, sub-deacon; Rev. F. Hyland, rector of St. Mary's Cathedral, as high priest, and Rev. E. M. Lacey, chancellor of the Archdiocese, master of ceremonies. Priests present were Rev. Dr. W. Kingsley, Portsmouth; Rev. E. Walsh St. Mary's College, Brockville; Rev. Dr. A. Casey, Kingston Mills; Rev. L. O'Gorman, Kingston.

After the libera the remains were conducted to St. Mary's vault to await interment in the Sisters' cemetery. The pall bearers were Mr. John Doyle, Mr. James Sowards, Mr. Peter Milne, Mr. B. Milne, Mr. H. Fleming and Mr. J. Naylon.

Africa has an estimated water power of 165,000,000 horse power.
