NEWS AND VIEWS FOR WOMEN READERS

LIFE'S SOCIAL SIDE

Woman's Page Editor Phone 2612 | tained one hundred and twenty-five Private Phone 857w.

children between the ages of six and twelve. These happy little people Hearts big and little, hearts had been invited to this delightful strung across the hall, winding the party because the ladies of the cirlights and decerating the tables told cle thought that perhaps they had the crowds of visitors that thronged not many parties to go to, and that Canon and Mrs. W. F. FitzGeraid's they would like a combination Tuesday afternoon that Shreve Tuesday and Valentine party good St. Valentine was being right all for themselves. And like it they royally remembered, and that the did; there was no doubt about it. Ladies' Guild of the St. Paul's parish | And why shouldn't they? For everywas giving a tea and sale in his hon- thing was done that kind hearts or. Mrs. FitzGerald received the vi- could devise to make it a success sitors with Mrs. Youlden, and Canon Such cakes and sandwiches, a big FitzGerald had a warm Irish wel- orange at every place, and ice cream come for everyone. The treasurer, to top off with. And then there were Mrs. K. McCullagh, took the en- moving pictures and a concert protrance fee and near her in the hall vided, not by the hostesses but by candy table in charge of the guests, and everyone who knows Miss A. M. Mills and Mrs. G. Wright, how young people who have a song Tomemade cakes and canned fruit to sing or a recitation they can say were at a table gay with Valentine | -almost perfectly, enjoy letting favors and were sold by Mrs. F. Har- others hear it, will understand that per and Mrs. S. Kerrison. In the din- this was one of the delights of this them of the very pleasant evening ingroom was the tea table, centred party. But this was not all. For after with a red cyclamen, and several "God Save the King" had been sung for their homes in the early hours ladies of the committee took turn in with great fervor, the guests were of the morning voting Mr. Sibbit a pouring tea, Mrs. 7. M. Williamson each given, as they passed out, one and Mrs. S. Keys were conveners of of the parcels tied with red ribbon the tea committee, which included that were piled up in a booth decor-Mrs. W. H. Lyons, Mrs. J. Pilgrim, ated with big red hearts, and Miss Mrs. F. McGall, Mrs. F. Black, Mrs. Ida Garbutt and the members of the J. Saunders, Mrs. W. A. Dewey, Mrs. circle must had been rewarded for J. Wylie, Miss E. Ruttan, Mrs. J. their effort to give pleasure to those Macdonald, Mrs. A. Stover and Miss who have few pleasures by the Vera Thompson. During the after- hearty thanks they received. The noon, Miss L. Walker, the St. Paul's pretty gifts were donated by Woolorganist, and Miss Verna Saunders worth Co. played, and Miss Elinor Mundell sang, accompanied by Miss Muriel were arranged in the hall of Syden- nold Park, Rochester, N.Y., when a were Miss J. and Miss Agnes Browne ham street United Church on Shrove number of former Kingston people Miss Katharine Corrigan, Miss 'H. riage took place in Bronxville, Y.Y Tuesday when the Lend-a-Hand cir- met on Saturday, Feb. 13th, and Ardagh, Miss May Bolger, Miss F. last week, has been a frequent visitor cle of The King's Daughters enter- spent an enjoyable evening in danc- Sullivan. Miss Kathleen Lovett, in Kingston homes while in town for

COLOR IT NEW WITH "DIAMOND DYES"

Just Dip to Tint or Boil to Dye

ton. Miss Edith Illagsworth and Mr.

of Syracuse, N.Y.

Rack 15-cent package contains directions so simple any woman can tint soft, delicate shades or dye rich, permanent colors in lingerie, silks, I ribbons, skirts, waists, dresses, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings,

-and tell your druggist whether the silk, or whether it is linen, cotton

When you can't

throw off a cold

-then it is Virol you need. Virol is a perfect food-building strength and vitality, enabling Nature to eliminate from your system the cold that is too often the forerunner of a condition

much more serious. For adults a tea-

Sold at all drug, grocery and department stores.

spoonful after meals.

ity-bodily unfitness-won't come to worry you,

There is no finer Tonic for rebuilding the strength and repairing the ravages of illness, for it enriches the blood and restores that youthful energy that is the hallmark of perfect health.

THE LEPIGE MILITIME

A windingful four times daily rice 35c-3 Bottles for $1.00

Registered under No. 11410, the Proprietary or Patent Medicine Act.

NORMAN S. WRIGHT & CO., LTD.

70 Lombard Street, Toronto.

Sole Representative for the Province of Ontario.

COMING EVENTS Frances Nickawa, the Indian elocu-tionist, will be in Sydenham Street Church on March 19th.

ADVE. HATES, WOMAN'S PAGE: Coming events, not intended to raise money, 2c. a word; minimum 50c. If held to raise money, 4c. a Receptions, engagements, marings, etc. 15c. per line for readers; 10c. per line for display advts. Mini-mum charge $1.00.

were, ladies' first, Mrs. J. McCartgentlemen's first, Mr. Kenton. Delicious refreshments were ceived a pretty souvenir to remine

A pleasant Shrove Tuesday card party and dance was given in the Roman Catholic Assembly Hall last night by the Children of Mary in aid of their Poor Relief Fund. The guests were received by the president, Miss Frances Sullivan, and the vice-president, Miss Sara Swan Forty tables were in play, and after the game refreshments were served. The committee in charge of the A pleasant surprise Valentine tables and the dancing included party was held at the home of Mrs. Miss Kehoe, Miss Anita Walsh and Daniel Clayton, (formerly of King- Miss Aileen Nicholson, and the lad- every side signs of returning life. Long tables decked as for a feast ston, Ont.), now residing at 24 Ar- ies in charge of the refreshments met on Saturday, Feb. 13th, and Ardagh, Miss May Bolger, Miss F. last week, has been a frequent visitor lasses, honey or corn syrup, instead of support was served at 12 o'clock when the Tooms and tables were tin, Miss McNeil and Miss Agnes lege. when the rooms and tables were tin, Miss McNeil and Miss Agnes lege. prettily decorated in Valentine col- Martin, Miss Agnes Walsh, Mr. ors and favors. The guests included and Mrs. R. G. Betts, kind- That a Halifax note says: news that really nothing better to be had at any Claxton, Mr. and Mrs. Denial Clay- won the door prize.

Joseph Murdock and his son William loons were also used to carry out Stanley Knox and Miss Hemsley and ardue Bogardus. the Valentine decorations. The first a duet by Mrs. Knox and Mrs. Wilfred Wiskin, was much enjoyed. Mrs. Gwatkin took the admission fee

> Shaw, Mrs. J. M. Morrison and Mrs. G. B. Otto.

> On Tuesday evening about fifty members of St. George's A.Y.P.A. enjoyed a sleigh drive around the city and came back to St. George's hall where they found hot soup awaiting them. A programme was arranged with the A.Y.P.A. orchestra playing several numbers.

> Mrs. Frank Barth, Albert street entertained at the tea hour Monday in honor of her mother, Mrs. William H. Moore, Toronto, who is spending several weeks with her-Mrs. W. Connolly assisted the on by Queen's Students at the officers were elected: Regent, Mrs. Grand Opera House on Tuesday J. E. Singleaon; 1st vice regent, evening held a dance afterwards in Mrs. J. C. Gwillim; 2nd vice re-Ontario Hall which was 'a very gent, Mrs. G. S. Otto; secretary, bright affair.

Mrs. G. W. Mylks, Kensington avenue, gave a small bridge on Tues- tary, Mrs. Loss McRae; standard day afternoon for Mrs. Lionel bearer, Mrs. D. A. Shaw, Owing to Smith, Montreal.

Mrs. Henry Wilkinson, Bagot street, was the hostess of a small now preparing for a sale and ten to bridge on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Blain Gash, "The Wellington," spent the week-end in

Miss Nora Bermingham, Montreal, will arrive in town on Friday to & We are frequently asked quesspend the week-end with Mr. and 4 tions about matters that are es-

Miss Gladys Amon, Y.W.C.A., is | the help of our readers in anspending the mid-term holiday at & wering, some of them. The lether home near Cardinal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Elliott, King street . Editor of the Woman's Page, were in Toronto for the week-end. | + British Whig, Kingston. While + Miss Bessie Montray, Stella, who we will require the name and has been visiting in town for the past fortnight, returned home on name may also be given over treesday.

Anne de Bellevue, has returned o ture can be published. home after spending the past two -- weeks with her mother, Mrs. E. Mc-Kenna, Lower Bagot street, and her sister, Miss Bea McKenna, Delaware avenue, Toronto, Ont.

Miss Lois Taylor, who has been n Boston with her sister, Mrs. Jas. Odell, is now in Montreal, guest of Miss Elizabeth Porteous and will be one of the bridesmaids at the McCall-Davidson wedding which takes place on Thursday.

Miss Gladys Parry, Belleville, was in Kingston attending the Queen's University Frolic. While in town Miss Parry is the guest of Miss Margaret Reid.

Miss Beatrice and Miss Marietts Orser, Queen's University, spent the week-end the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Keyes, Wolfe Island. Miss Lorraine Shortt, Ottawa, is risiting her cousin, Mrs. W. R. Sills, Mack street.

Mrs. A. Redpath of Vancouver, is visiting her father, Mr. S. Watts, lower Rideau street.

Miss Janet Henderson, Y.W.C.A., left to-day to spend the mid-term holidays at her home in Morton. Miss Marjorie Low, Ottawa, visiting her sister, Mrs. W. P. Wil gar, Mack street. Miss Doreen Montgomery, Queen's University, is spending the midterm holiday in Smith's Falls.

The Editor Hears

That this is Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent. The word Lent means "spring," and while we do not seem very near the joyful season at present cough, is a remedy which is easily pre-we know that before the forty days of pared at home in just a few moments. Lent are over we will be listening to it's cheap, but for prompt results it Lent are over we will be listening to the robin's whistle and will see on the following Kingston people: Mr. ly contributed the music for and Mrs. Bernard Turcotte, Mr. and dancing. The euchre prizes were won tune, residing in the United States, are gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly about to begin a concerted movement heals the inflamed membranes that line MacCunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Rich- the five hundred prizes by Mrs. H. to obtain the inheritance which they ard Seaton, Mr. and Mrs. Alger Fowler and Mr. A. Fowler; the claim is justly theirs, has caused a stir ard Seaton, Mr. and Mrs. Alger Fowler and Mr. A. Fowler; the claim is justly theirs, has caused a stir phlegm, and soon your cough stops en-Frasso, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Pear- bridge prizes by Miss B. Jean Davy of interest to sweep through the desson, Mr. Clarence Turcotte, Mr. Jas. and Mr. R. G. Betts. Mrs. Gailivan cendants of Anneke Webber Jans residing in Halifax and also at differentpoints in the province. Should settle-Mrs. Delroy Wood, Smith street, ment of the long disputed legacy fingave her home on Tuesday afternoon ally take place, it is hoped that a confor a tea in aid of the funds of the siderable portion will come to this sec-On Monday evening the members W.M.S. of Princess street United tion of the country. The romance of of St. Mark's church choir and their Church, when a great many visitors Anneke Webber, which resulted in the friends were entertained at the enjoyed her hospitality. The tea controversy and legal battle of the prehome of the organist, Mr. Ross was arranged by Mrs. Wood, Mrs. sent, occurred when her love for Roel-Sibbit. Mr. Robert Sibbit very kind- Nelson Watts and Mrs. de L. Camp- offsen Jans, agriculturist and private ly drove the party from the village bell, and the house and tea table citizen of Holland, proved greater than on a large flat sleigh and the were beautifully decorated with daf- her desire to obey the commands of weather being fine, the merry party fodils and hyacinths. Tea was pour- her royal father of Holland, who was enjoyed it immensely. The spacious ed by Mrs. J. K. Curtis and Mrs. adverse to the match. Anneke secretly rooms were prettily decorated with J. A. Brebner, assisted by members wedded Jans and fled with him to anything else that contains too much red hearts and cupids and red cand- of the society and a programme of New York, where he died in 1637 and free alkali, for this is very injurious. les burned merrily, while red bal- music, with piano numbers by Mrs. his widow later married the Rev. Ever-

That Miss Nan Lewis, whose mar-

> That the Misses Lovick, University avenue, make an excellent use of their and a good sum was taken for mis- Christmas tree every year. They tie it Cocoan u to the verandah and turn it into a feed- Oil Shampoo, for ing place for the birds who stay with it is pure and enus during the winter. The pieces of tirely greaseless the Curling rink on Tuesday and suet they tie to the branches lure It is inexpensive several games were played by the many feathered guests to their unique and beats anylady curiers who came in for a cup table. Downy and hairy woodpeckers, thing else all to LEATRICE JOY of tea in the pretty clubroom. A chick-a-dees, and the stocky little grey- pieces. You can How She Keeps Her Hair rose cyclamen centred the tea blue bird with a black streak at his eye get Mulsified at table which was in charge of Mrs. and a long bill that we know as the any drug store, and a tew ounces J. C. Gwillim and Miss Georgina nuthatch, come constantly for the sup-Ettinger, assisted by Mrs. D. A. ply spread forth for them by their friends. The nuthatch is especially friendly and comes up on the verandah ly moisten the hair with water and for crumbs. If more people would rub it in. It makes an abundance of follow the example of these fadies we rich, creamy lather, which cleanses would have more birds with us. Every- thoroughly and rinses out easily. The one hasn't a Christmas tree but many hair dries quickly and evenly, and is people have trees in their yards and soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, can tie a bit of suet to the branches wavy, and easy to manage. Besides, and put a few sunflower seeds where it loosens and takes out every parthe snow will not cover them. The ticle of dust, dirt and dandruff, Be birds love these seeds for the oil in Mulsified. Beware of imitations. them which the frost cannot destroy. Look for the name Watkins on the But don't spread bread soaked in water | package. before your tiny guests, for the water freeze ini their crops and kills them.

La Salle Chapter, LO.D.E. The annual meeting of La Salle Chapter, I.O.D.E. was held on Tues-Th cast of the College Frolic put day afternoon when the following Mrs. W. M. Moore; treasurer, Mrs. Charles Jackson; educational secretary, Mrs. H. E. Day; Echoes secre the absence of the regent, Mrs. T M. Asselstine, there were few activities to report, but the chapter i be held early in March.

QUESTIONS FOR READERS OF THE WOMAN'S PAGE

Mrs. William Bermingham, "Otter- + pecially within a women's + realm. We are going to ask for ters, both question and answer, Miss Amy Wilkinson, Brockville, o will appear from time to time will be in town for the hockey match on the Woman's Page. They - which the letter may appear. -Miss Mac McKenna, R.N., Ste. | No letters of a controversial na-

TAXI

SERVICE 960 25c ANYWHERE

DAY OR NIGHT ALL 7 PASSENGER SEDANS

Home-made Remedy Stops Cough Quickly

Finest cough medicine you ever used.

Family supply easily made.

Saves about $2.

beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, toochildren like it—and it is pure and good bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified mo-ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is the throat and air passages, stops the annoving throat tickle, loosens the pound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "21% ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pines

Cocoanut Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

Do not use prepared shampoos, or as it dries the f scalp and maker

the hair brittle.

will last the whole family for

Eight Women in Ten

have discarded old hygienic methods for this new way-true protection-discards like tissue

X7HEN the world started ex-VV pecting more of women, the old-time "sanitary pad" had to go. Doctors urge a new way. Millions imploy it. You wear sheerest frocks rithout a second thought, any time, anywhere. You meet every day un-

It is called "KOTEX" . . . five imes as absorbent as the ordinary Thoroughly deodorises . . . thus nding ALL fear of offending Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No em-imply by saying "KOTEX," at any drug or department store. Costs only a tew cents. Proves old ways on Thursday, Friday and Sat.

20% OFF

This discount is on any article in the store, except Rubbers and Overshoes. It includes our stock of Baggage too.

This is YOUR opportunity to save money. Buy now.

LOCKETT'S

SHOES FOR THE FAMILY

SPECIAL VALUES

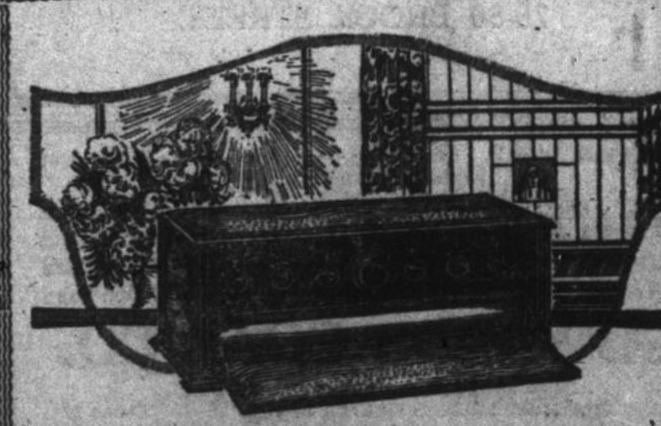

Best quality Canadian Bleached Sheeting, -free from dressing-will give satisfactory wear. Special prices

Fancy Striped and Checked All Pure Wool Flannel—32 inches wide all new patterns for $1.00 yd.

Women's White Cotton Night Gowns-also Colored Nainsook-ex-

W. N. Linton & Co.

'Phone 191.

DURING OUR STOCKTAKING

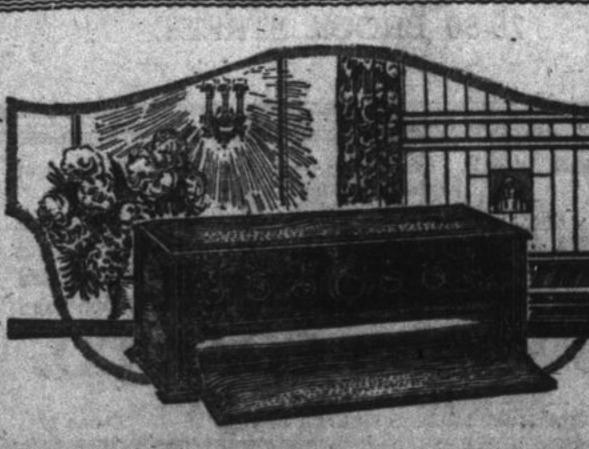

THERMIODYNE RADIO RECEIVING SET

Complete with Tubes, Batteries, Loud Speaker, Headset and all equipment at the very low terms of SMALL CASH PAYMENT AND TEN DOLLARS PER MONTH

1303 Marie Marie Contraction

> 121 PRINCESS ST. KINGSTON

The Waldron Store

SALE