HOW TO GET RID OF MUSCLE-LAMENESS

Beach Patrolman Advises this Treatment

After exposure to dampness and cold, and after hard exercise, muscles will stiffen up and get lame.

A beach patrolman at Atlantic City writes that he has found this treatment the quickest and most effective way to take out the stiffness and pain: "Just pat on a little of Sloan's Liniment. Don't rub. It's the liniment—not the rubbing—that helps. You'll get relief right away. I've tried all sorts of other things, but nothing gets results like Sloan's."

Hundreds of letters like this tell of the wonderful relief from muscular pain that Sloan's gives. Sloan's gets results because it doesn't just deaden pain, it gets at the cause. Right to the place that hurts it brings a healing stream of fresh, new blood. Quickly and surely it carries off the "fatigue-poisons," takes out stiffness and drives away the aches and pains.

Get a bottle today and have it on hand. All druggists—35 cents.

A SPLENDID CONCERT IS HELD AT STELLA

By United Church Choir and Young People—Orange Gathering Friday.

Stella, Feb. 17.—A very successful concert was held in the Victoria hall, Stella, on Monday evening, under the auspices of the choir and young people of the United Church. The following programme was admirably rendered: Opening chorus, "A Real Old Fashioned Welcome," by the church choir; pianoforte solo, Miss Ada Pringle; action song, "We've Got the Mumps," by junior girls of the Sabbath school, the Misses Jean Cochrane, Ida Brown, Margaret Robinson, Lulu and Ruth Glenn; sketch, "Rummage," the Misses N. MacDonald, Ida Brown, Mae Tugwell, Mrs. D. Filson, Mrs. R. Saunders, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. E. Filson, Jean Cochrane, M. Robinson, Mr. B. Nightingale, Mr. T. Cochrane, Mr. W. P. Tugwell, Mr. C. Stevens, S. Brown, K. Stevenson, W. Robinson, the baby and the dog; song, encore, Mr. B. Nightingale; costume song and chorus, "The Old Home Folks," Mrs. D. Filson, Mrs. R. McMaster, Mrs. R. Saunders, Mrs. R. G. Foy, Mrs. E. Filson, Miss N. MacDonald, Miss M. Tugwell, Mr. T. Cochrane, Mr. W. P. Tugwell, Mr. R. McMaster, Mr. B. Nightingale, Rev. R. G. Foy, Mr. E. Fleming, Mr. E. Filson, Mr. C. Stevenson. (This song depicted certain types of small town folks and gave large scope for variety in style of costume which was very well done.); violin solo, Humoreske, Mr. B. Nightingale, accompanied by Miss Ada Pringle; vocal solo, "The Admiral's Broom," Rev. R. G. Foy; sketch, "The Doctor's Patients" or "Two Happy Married Couples and an 'Odd Man,'" Miss N. MacDonald, Miss Ruth Finley, Mr. W. Cochrane, Mr. E. Fleming, Mr. Morrison Scott; duet in costume, "Sally and Si at the Circus," Mr. T. Cochrane, Rev. R. G. Foy; closing chorus, "Just Smile and Say Good-bye," by church choir and juniors. Mrs. E. Tugwell, church organist, in her customary generous and efficient manner acted as accompanist to the choruses and other items. Every item on the programme was a successful number.

The costumes were excellent and well chosen, the young people thoroughly acquitted themselves as good actors. A very attentive and appreciative audience fully enjoyed a pleasant evening and altogether about fifty dollars was realized. Some visitors were present from the mainland. After the concert a sumptuous supper was served to all the artists by the Ladies' Aid Society at the home of Mrs. S. K. Tugwell.

W. A. Scott has gone to the Kingston General Hospital to undergo an operation. John Miller, of Stella Point, has purchased Mr. Jack Fleming's house, where Rev. R. G. Foy, minister of the United Church is at present living. The Grand Master of the Orange Society is expected to pay a visit to Burling Lodge at Stella on Friday of this week. It is understood that a special session of the local lodge will be held on that evening.

LATE MRS. BARNEY G. DAY. Harrowsmith Lady Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Slow, Kingston. Harrowsmith, Feb. 17.—In the early morning of the 13th inst, Mrs. Barney G. Day passed away. On the previous Wednesday afternoon, although apparently in the best of health and strength, she was suddenly stricken with paralysis, which in a very few minutes rendered her completely unconscious. Capable physicians were immediately summoned, and hastily rushed to her aid. All that tender and loving care could do was done, but to no avail. On Friday afternoon a second stroke followed, from which she failed to rally.

Mrs. Day was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. John Clow, Stuart street, Kingston. She spent the greater part of her life in and near Harrowsmith, and was beloved by a large circle of friends, who will always remember her bright and cheery ways, her kind and loving deeds, her ever-ready helping hand to those who needed her. Great sympathy is expressed from far and wide for her devoted husband and aged parents.

The funeral service, which was largely attended, was conducted by Rev. Mr. Hollingsworth, of Sydenham, on Tuesday afternoon. The beautiful floral tributes included wreaths from the Ladies' Aid of Grace United Church, Sydenham, of which deceased was a member; from the Women's Institute of Sydenham, and Women's Institute of Harrowsmith; a heart from the ladies of Harrowsmith and a beautiful broken circle from a few of her most intimate friends. The pall-bearers were Fred Gossage, Harry Pixley, Terrence Phillips, Ross Davis, Elgin Babcock and Frank Patterson.

At Adams, N.Y. Mrs. Theoda Goodall Cornwall, aged eighty-six, a native of Cape Vincent, passed away Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eva Fee, after being in ill-health for some time of ulcers of the stomach.

Horace Oliphant, nineteen year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Oliphant, Belleville, suffered a severe concussion of the base of the skull, when he collided with Don Carmichael during a hockey match.
