News at Addison.

Addison, Feb. 26. Miss Alma Watts has returned home after two weeks' visit with friends at Westport and Newboro. The W.A. of Trinity Church will hold their monthly meeting at Mrs. C. Moulton's on February 24th. Mrs. Erma Watts and son have returned to her home in Meriville after spending a month at Herbert Watts'. Miss Euliah Brown is visiting at Athens this week, the guest of Miss Beatrice Bress. Mrs. A. W. Dier has returned to her home in Westport after visiting her cousin, Mrs. H. Watts. Several from here went to Athens, on Wednesday, to see the hockey game between Athens and Westport. The farmers are busy getting-out their wood these days.

Notes From Bethel.

Bethel, Feb. 23.—An error appeared in last week's correspondence. The sale was at the home of Earl Warner, Yarker, and not at Earl Lee's. Mr. Lochead, Centreville, assessor, passed through here last week. Mr. Elgin McWilliams visited his sister, Mrs. C. Connolly, Yarker. Mr. and Mrs. G. Smedley, Camden East, had tea one evening recently, at Mr. James Hamilton's. Mrs. H. Robinson visited her mother, Mrs. Fred Walker, Camden East. We are pleased to hear that Mrs. J. Gilligan is able to be around again.

BUDGET OF NEWS GATHERED AT ODESSA

Domestic Science Classes Are Creating a Good Deal of Interest in the Village.

Odessa, Feb. 24.—The funeral of the late Mr. Henry Shellington, who passed away last Wednesday morning, was held from his late residence, Friday afternoon, to the Free Methodist church. Rev. Zubrick, Toronto, officiated. To mourn his loss besides the widow, are eight children, Mrs. John Lawlor, Odessa, and Miss Alice at home, and Miss Bertha and Miss Hilda, Dayton, Ohio, and two sons, Robert and Herbert, on the homestead, and two sons in Oklahoma, who visited him before his demise. Mr. Shellington moved to the village about two years ago, and will be greatly missed by a large number of friends. The funeral was largely attended, and the remains were placed in Cataract vault, to await interment later.

Mrs. Ashley and Mr. Frank Walker, Harrowsmith, were married on Feb. 10th. The bride has been a resident of the village for eleven years, and is a sister of Mr. Anson Hughes. Many friends are offering congratulations.

The Colored minstrels put on a very fine entertainment in the town hall last Saturday night. The hall was filled to capacity and the concert was very amusing.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry O'Neil and little daughter, Flower Station, are guests of the former's father, John O'Neil, Almond Fraser, Calgary, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. George Lucas, for a couple of weeks. Nelson Kilgannon, Watertown, N.Y., has been spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Kilgannon. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Montgomery, who have been spending some time with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Montgomery, have returned to Toronto.

Miss Grace Gilbert, who has been home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gilbert, for some time returned to her position in Rochester last Saturday. Harry Atkinson recently installed a radio in his home. Quite a number from here attended the funeral of the late Mr. Daniel Wright, which was held at his home last Wednesday afternoon at Violet. The only remaining member of the family is Mrs. George Dettor, who has resided in the village for a great many years.

The domestic science class held in connection with the Ontario Agricultural Society over W. R. Lake's store became so interesting that it was decided to continue two weeks longer. The many ladies interested became very enthusiastic over the numerous ideas and the instructions were claimed to be very beneficial.
