HERE'S NEWS OF THE NEWEST!
SPRING SUITS

In Rome do as the Romans do—in Suits, suit your own fancy. Correctness may be attained through any one of our new models. The English with the wide lapels, no vent in back, single or double breasted and straight hanging trousers is our most recent favor—just one of many styles we present.

A STYLE FOR EVERY HEAD

Bank Clearings.
The following are the figures of the Kingston Bankers Clearing House: For week ending Feb. 25th, $497,376.70; corresponding week, 1925, $488,128.38.

Don't Miss This Great Clearance Sale—It Ends Saturday, March 6th.
It will more than pay you to get a Suit before this great sale ends, as it means a great saving to you.
—The Lion Clothing Co.

Looking For Industry.
Dr. W. W. Sands, Industrial Commissioner, left to-day for Montreal where he will make investigations with reference to securing an industry for Kingston.

Coming to Kingston.
Florence Drake, 16 year old daughter of James Drake, of Kingston, who was reported missing while on her way to Kingston from Ottawa, but who did not leave the Capital, is expected in the city over the week-end.

Euchre and Dance.
A very enjoyable euchre party and dance was held by the Sons of Scotland Thursday night and although the weather was very disagreeable the event was very well attended. Mrs. A. Willard and Mrs. J. Edgar were the winners of the first prizes. and Mrs. A. Fowler and Mr. R. Sinclair the consolation awards.

Truck in Snow Bank.
A large grocery truck was wedged in a snow bank on Division street, Friday morning and the assistance of six men was required before the car was finally pushed out. The rain of Thursday made the snow very slushy and many other car drivers experienced trouble.

Frederick Crooks.
Frederick Crooks, a former resident of Kingston, passed away at Hamilton on Wednesday. Deceased lived in Kingston many years, and was well-known here. He was employed in the book binding department of the British Whig for several years, and was an uncle of Edward Balls, a former resident of Kingston, who was for some time on the composing room staff of the British Whig, now of Ottawa.
The funeral will take place on the arrival of the 6 o'clock train from Hamilton Friday, to Cataract cemetery.

Girl Guides.
The 2nd Company of Girl Guides held their meeting on Wednesday evening with quite a number of girls present. The colors were raised, and following roll call and inspection games were played. The colors were lowered about 8.30. Mr. D. Kingsbury, who had kindly consented to teach the girls signalling, was present. All who took the signalling found it very interesting and hope to have Mr. Kingsbury with them again next week.

Entertained Old Folks.
Miss King's Overseas Class of the Y.M.C.A. entertained the old folks at the Home for the Aged on Thursday night and rendered a delightful programme that was much enjoyed. After the programme, the old people were supplied with candies and other things. The visit of the class was much appreciated.

Trail Ranger Groups.
A meeting of the officers of the Y.M.C.A. was held on Thursday night, and a programme was arranged for the training of the Trail Ranger groups in the city. One night a week will be set aside for the training of the Trail Rangers in badge work. It was also decided to hold a Grand Camp meeting on the last Monday in March.

To Speak at Aylmer, Que.
Hon. J. W. Edwards, M.W. Grand Master of British North America, with Mr. H. C. Hocken, editor of the Sentinel are expected as the special speakers at the banquet at Aylmer on Tuesday evening, March 2, in connection with the meeting of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Quebec of the Orange Association.

Good Judge of Scotch.
The Belleville Ontario of Thursday had the following editorial note:

"We have with us tonight, BRUCE TAYLOR, said the toastmaster—than whom there is no whomer. Bruce Taylor is always assured a warm welcome in Belleville, as a gentleman, a scholar, a yachtsman, and a good judge of humor, Scotch and otherwise."

Funeral of Mrs. Evans.
The funeral of the late Mrs. Florence Maud Evans took place on Thursday afternoon from her late residence to Cataract cemetery. Rev. Mr. Couper officiating. The funeral was very largely attended and was in charge of the James Reid firm. The pall bearers were James Stafford, Benjamin Aylsworth, Lewis Smith, Henry Gurney, Edward Emmons and Calvin Emmons.

Some Job to Move.
The Smith's Falls Record-News this week says:
"We owe our readers an apology for not publishing the Record-News the last two Tuesdays. We have been moving from our old quarters in the Clark block to our new quarters in the Record-News building on Russell street. We expected to be able to publish as usual, but as it is over thirty years since we last moved we had forgotten all about it; and found it much more difficult than we imagined."

After Milk Supply.
The Gananoque Journal says:
"Mr. J. W. Crawford, of Mexico, N.Y., representing the Don Milk Co., of New York City, has been in Gananoque all this week, and in company with Mr. W. J. Gibson has been canvassing the district for ten miles each way in regard to a supply of milk for the factory here. This plant has been idle for over a year and there is a good prospect of the New York Co. taking it over and resuming operations. This company has its head offices in New York, but has fine dairy plants in various parts of the state. Mr. Crawford is very favorably impressed not only with the possible supply, but found the herds in fine condition and the stables and sanitary conditions excellent. It is hoped that his report to the company will result in the reopening of the industry here."

Get a Pair of Trousers Before This Sale Ends.
This great Clearance Sale ends next Saturday, March 6th, which is positively the last day. So be sure and match up that old coat or you will be sorry.—The Lion Clothing Co.
