CROWS FEET and EYESTRAIN

Where do those crows' feet come from?
When your eye muscles become overworked they call on your facial muscles for aid.
The results are obvious—crows' feet.

Unconsciously you use these muscles many times a day in trying to overcome defective eyesight.

An eye examination is the only sure way of telling the condition of your eyes. Let us

STUDENTS ASSURED OF $100,000 GRANT

From the Queen's Endowment Towards the Union—Address by Dr. McNeill.

"Even if only $500,000 is raised in the Queen's Endowment campaign, the students can rest assured that $100,000 will be given by the board of trustees towards the proposed Students' Union," said Dr. W.
E. McNeill, while addressing a mass meeting of Queen's students in Grant Hall on Thursday afternoon.
The chair was occupied by Eric "Bud" Thomas, president of the Alma Mater Society. The first speaker, Mr. G. Alex. Edmison, vice-president of the Alma Mater Society, addressed the gathering, pointing out the importance of the matter. He said that the aim of Queen's students for years was about to be realized, and urged the students to give their hearty co-operation. Mr.
Edmison then on behalf of the student body presented five questions to Dr. McNeill, secretary of the Board of Trustees, in regard to the proposed Union. They are as follows:

(1) Can the student body be definitely sure that the $100,000 will be forthcoming from the Endowment committee?

(2) Will this $100,000 be forthcoming within a reasonable time?

(3) What steps are being taken to secure a site for the proposed Students' Union? Will suggestions received from the student body receive consideration?

(4) Can the student body be assured that work on the Union will commence within the comparatively near future?

(5) On the completion of the Students' Union, what form of control will be inaugurated? Will the student body have a voice in the management?

The students were entirely satisfied with the announcement made by Dr. McNeill in regard to the finances of the new project.

In answer to question No. 2, Dr.
McNeill stated that the required sum would be obtainable as soon as it was required. He felt that considerably over $100,000 would be raised in the Endowment campaign before it would be possible to proceed with building.

"The site rests entirely with the site committee," stated Dr. McNeill.
"This committee will confer with the officers of the Alma Mater Society in the matter." He explained to the students that it took some time to make arrangements for the erection of any building and asked them to patiently wait.

Dealing with question No. 4, regarding the commencing of work on the new Union, Dr. McNeill stated that it would be impossible to turn the first sod before the 1st of September. He assured the students that every thing within the power of the Board of Trustees would be done to push the building operations as fast as possible.

Regarding the control and management of the Students' Union, he announced that it would be controlled by a board, much the same as at the Athletic Board of Control, of which the president of the Alma Mater Society would be the chairman.

Speaking regarding the finances of the university, Dr. McNeill declared that was not the intention of the board to increase the students' fees, but to raise as much from the general public by the Endowment campaign. He was sure that the campaign depended on the support of the present student body.

James Holden, chairman of a committee representing the undergraduate body in the Queen's Endowment campaign, spoke briefly to the students outlining a plan whereby a considerable sum could be raised by assessing every student for the sum of $50, payable two years after graduation. He stated that so far the response of the students had been spontaneous.

ONTARIO WARDENS DANCE.
And Praise Their Respective Counties at Toronto Event.

Crystal chandeliers might have been oil lanterns, the white and gold balcony might have been the hayloft, and the mirror-like expanse of the ballroom floor might have been the rough-hewn planks on which a regular "hoe-down" barn dance was held, when the 600 delegates to the Ontario Good Roads Association were tendered a dance as guests of A. E. Wilson & Company following the annual banquet of the association in the Crystal Ballroom of the King Edward Hotel, last week, says the Toronto Globe. Violins which had soared in the staccato music of the fox-trot fiddles which lifted to the melody of "Turkey in the Straw." Sobbing saxophones took on the swirling note of the accordion, while banjos and piano throbbed with the chords of the quadrilles.

"All-a-man left, do-see-do, salute your partners, there she go" found the warden, superintendents and engineers from Ontario's counties "tamarackin' 'er down" with great gusto. Toronto's fairest and most charming fox-trot devotees joined with enthusiasm in this revival of square dancing and proved able pupils.

History was made at this dance, when thirty-seven wardens of the counties of Ontario tendered half-minute consecutive speeches on the superior merits of their respective counties. Enthusiastic appreciation was voiced by the audience.

KINGSTON JUNIORS WON CHAMPIONSHIP

dazzling. Patterson never worked harder in a game in his life than he did last night and stick work was exceptionally clever while Hartley and Reid completed a forward line that stood the test. Molson and Macpherson played star hockey also and were "great help to the team. Taugher's brilliant display needs no further comment.

McDougall was the same speedy boy and treated the stands to a brilliant display of hockey. Lauder and Callaghan were also bright stars for the Greys while Smith in the nets put up a marvellous game. The Greys deserve great credit for the stand they made and though beaten on the round must be heartily congratulated upon their spirit, their pluck, their clean play and good sportsmanship. They were worthy foes and took their defeat like real sportsmen being the first ones into the Kingston room to congratulate the players, before they even thought of taking off their own skates, tired and worn out as they were.

First in Fifteen Years.
By winning the championship of the junior O.H.A. this season, it marks the first time that a Kingston team has done that since 1911. In that year Orilla was defeated by Kingston 21-11 on the round. Local fans will recall the second game of that series here in Kingston. In 1910 Kingston had also won the title after having defeated Preston 8-7 on the round. The first championship was brought to Kingston in 1923, the . . .

1893, the first year of the junior O.
H.A. competition when the Kingston Limestones handed Galt a 12-1 tactic.

No matter what the old time teams were like, all honor and credit is given to the present day Kingston juniors for having come through this season the way they have. Step by step, from Brockville on, they have come, they have seen and they have conquered and to them is extended the heartiest congratulations of a proud and joyful Kingston following, at home and in other places.

The scoring in last night's game was as follows:

First Period.
McKelvey—Kingston . . . . . 3.00
Lauder—Owen Sound . . . . . 6.00 Patterson—Kingston . . . . . 7.00 Callaghan—Owen Sound . . . . . 14.00 McDougall—Owen Sound . . . . . 16.00

Second Period.
No score.

Third Period.
McKelvey—Kingston . . . . . 3.00
Markle—Owen Sound . . . . . 13.00

The teams:
KINGSTON. Goal, Smith (1) Defence, Callaghan (2)
Voss (7) Callaghan (2)
McKelvey (2) Randie (3)
Centre, McDougall (10)
Reid (4) Greg (4)
Wings, Greg (4) Bagtendorf (8)
Hartley (5) Subst. Bagtendorf (8)

OWEN SOUND. Goal, Smith (1)

McKelvey (2) Randie (3)

Hartley (5) Subst. Bagtendorf (8)

Notes of the Game.
The Owen Sound players showed their sportsmanship by getting into the Kingston dressing room right after the game and wishing the boys every success in the series with the Northern winners.

There wasn't a great deal of money around the Toronto Arena last night on the Greys for the round although there was plenty on the game itself.

Toronto support was unreservedly with Owen Sound last night.
Whether it was because Owen Sound was four goals down or not but certainly Toronto joined in lustily in the cheering every time the Greys tallied.

Well, the championship is here again after fifteen years absence.
It's worth celebrating.

Professor Manley Baker, who has followed the fortunes of the team all through was one of the most delighted men in the Toronto Arena last night when the game was over.
Mayor Angrove was also on hand to cheer the boys along and he was overjoyed with the result.

The Kingston team made a few more friends last night.

Congratulations are being extended to the players to-day and they are certainly deserving of them.

From Taugher out the boys deserve every bit of credit and praise heaped on them for their wonderful sweep this season. They aimed at the championship and they got it.

It was no mean task to trim teams like Owen Sound and Parkdale.
They certainly put away two strong teams when they side-tracked Park-dale and the Greys.

And now for the Northern series.

GANANOQUE

Gananoque, March 5.—Charles Bryant passed away yesterday afternoon, after five days' illness, of pneumonia. While Mr. Bryant's condition has been serious from the beginning, hopes were entertained of his recovery. Miss Olive Bryant, daughter, who is a nurse, arrived here from Brooklyn last week-end and every thing possible had been done in an effort to save him. Surviving are his wife and one daughter, Olive, and four sisters, Miss Phoebe Bryant, Mrs. William Allen, Mrs. James McKellar and Mrs.
Joseph Moore. Mr. Bryant was at work last Saturday morning at the D. F. Jones Company.

The Young People's Society of Grace Church will hold a meeting this evening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Millicent, Scott, vice-president of the President of the Christian Fellowship Department, will be the leader, her topic being "Stewardship of Personal Influence."

The death occurred yesterday of Mr. W. Kenny, who has been ill for some time and whose death was not unlooked for. Surviving are his wife, two sons, Alfred Kenny, superintendent of the Central Spring Company, Oshawa, and Charles Kenny, Toronto, and one daughter, Mrs. Frank Johnston, Gananoque.

Several friends of Mrs. Ella Mc-Master tendered this popular lady a surprise birthday party at the home of Mrs. W. D. Cotton on Wednesday evening. The affair was a complete surprise to Mrs. McMaster, which made it all the more enjoyable. The winners of the bridge prizes were Miss Eva Glover and Rose Funnell, while in the form of a "hidden" prize Mrs. McMaster was the recipient of a beautiful pair of gloves.

Prof. Thomas has resigned his position as organist of Grace Church, to take effect March 14th, when he will play the organ in this church for the last time. Prof. Thomas has accepted a position as organist in North Bay. Since coming to Gananoque the professor has made many friends who will be sorry to hear he is going to leave. He is not only a musician of a high order, but has a very pleasing personality which made friends very easily, and whose best wishes will follow him.

Miss Marnie Davis left Wednesday for Montreal, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Roddick Byers.

The death occurred yesterday at the home of Mrs. A. McLean, of Mrs.
Arthur Bradley, who lived in Gananoque for some years and then moved to Brockville on the death of her husband some twenty years ago.
Mrs. Bradley has, however, been staying here for some time past with Mr. A. McLean and his daughter, Mrs. Ethel Carson, Kingston, is a niece and J. T. Lewis, Brampton, formerly of Maple Grove, is a brother-in-law. The funeral will take place this afternoon.

NAPANEE

Napanee, March 5.—The second meeting of the Literary Society of the Napanee Collegiate Institute was held in the Auditorium on Thursday afternoon. The programme was presented by the Athenian Society and showed much careful preparation.

The meeting opened by a selection from the school orchestra, which was followed by a piano solo by Miss Lenore Black, Miss Marjorie Ham, president of the Athenian Society, gave a short synopsis of the book, "The Mill on the Floss," and introduced the different characters in the play selected from the Mill of the Floss. During the changing of scenes Miss Mary Kimmitt favored the audience with a vocal solo and Miss Dorothy Scott a violin solo.
Miss Edith Macmorine recited "When the Minister Comes to Tea," and Miss Elma Whyte gave a piano solo and the orchestra again gave another selection. The play was well prepared and the characters very suitably chosen, and the old-fashioned costumes added much to the appearance of the play. The characters were as follows: Mrs. Tulliver, Kathryn Woodruff; Aunt Pullet, Kathryn Gleeson; Aunt Glegg, Muriel Garrison; Aunt Deane, Jessie Vanastine; Lucy Deane, Helen Milling; Maggie Tulliver, Marjorie Daly; Mr. Tulliver, John Cook; Tom Tulliver, Leslie Merritt; Luke, Malcolm Corkill. After the play the visitors retired to the gymnasium, where a fast game of volley ball was played between Form III, and Form IV, which resulted in a win for Form IV.

Mrs. G. A. Wallace, who has been spending the past three weeks in Napanee, the guest of Mrs. Victor Cowling, left yesterday for Toronto.

Mathew Taylor of the Robinson Company staff, was called to Brampton Wednesday, owing to the death of his mother.

Mrs. Harry VanLoven entertained a number of her friends on Thursday evening to five hundred. Mrs. Ray VanLoven of Kingston received with Mrs. VanLoven. The souvenirs of the game were won by Mrs. George Switzer and Mrs. G. W. Gibbard.

DESERONTO

Deseronto, March 4.—Something novel in the way of entertaining was carried out by the Ladies' Aid of the United Church on Thursday evening, when they gave a conjum drum supper in their school room.
The menu consisted of fifteen numbers, conundrums all, and much merriment ensued. Following was a delightful short programme by well known local artists; vocal numbers by Miss Wright, Mr. Tunnecliffe with piano and violin accompaniment, piano solos by Miss Hannan, Miss
