CITY AND DISTRICT

Had an Off Day.
There were no cases on the Police Court blotter on Friday morning, and, as a result, Magistrate Farrell had an off day.

Suspended Sentence.
At Prescott Charles Vall, Augusta was found guilty of the theft of a stove from his employer. He made restitution and was allowed to go on suspended sentence.

Talked Over Budget.
The Civic Finance Committee held a meeting on Thursday night and considered estimates for the year. The budget will not be brought before the Council for two weeks.

Piano Recital.
The piano pupils of Mr. Harold S. Packer, A.T.C.M., will give a piano recital in Sydenham Street S. S. hall Saturday, March 6th, at 8 p.m. Silver collection. The public is cordially invited.

This Gigantic Clearance Sale Ends To-morrow, March 6th.
Get that Suit of Clothes you are thinking about before this sale ends, as it means a big saving to you.
—The Lion Clothing Co.

Bank Clearings.
The following are the figures of the Kingston Bankers' Clearing House: For week ending March 4th, $713,630; corresponding week, 1925, $594,880.

Play Here To-night.
A strong Cape Vincent basketball team will meet the Y.M.C.A. 5-9 team at the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium to-night. The preliminary game will be between a K.C.I. girls' team and a Y.M.C.A. girls' team.

Sent to a Committee.
In the Ontario Legislature a bill was introduced by Major A. Gray (Conservative, Leeds), provided that each child should be furnished with a birth certificate upon reaching twenty-one years of age. It was allowed to go to committee.

To Preach in New York.
The Bishop of Ontario leaves for New York tonight. He will be the special preacher at the noonday daily Lenten service held in Trinity church, Wall street, next week, and at Old St. Paul's chapel, the following week, besides fulfilling several other preaching engagements.

Passed Away at Colborne.
At Colborne, March 3rd, the funeral took place of Stephen H. Edwards, one of the oldest residents. Mr. Edwards had long been engaged as a cooper and manufacturer of barrels, and was well known by the fruit men of this district, his industry being a long-established one. He was eighty-one years of age.

Mrs. Eliza Wright Passes.
Mrs. Eliza Wright, one of the best known of Pembroke's former residents, died in Colden, Sunday, in her eighty-fifth year. Mrs. Wright, with her late husband, James Wright, lived in Pembroke thirty years. Mr. Wright was jailer of the county jail and Mrs. Wright acted in the capacity of matron of the jail.

Spoke on Summer School.
At a recent session of the Teachers' Institute, according to the Ottawa Journal, an eloquent address on the Queen's University summer school was made by Miss Eva Doak, of Lansdowne, a former pupil of the Brockville Collegiate Institute, who gave the teachers much valuable information regarding the courses and conditions at which she termed a most enjoyable holiday, cheap in cost but rich in returns.

Farm House Burned.
Ignited apparently from a coal oil stove left in the house to keep frost from apples stored there, the farm house owned by Mrs. Agnes Alcorn, near Wicklow was destroyed by fire on Tuesday night. The house, which has been unoccupied for some time, had been used to store fruit and vegetables. The loss incurred is heavy, as all the fruit within the building was burned.

Now Playing Hockey.
The many Kingston friends of Lieut.-Col. J. C. Stewart, son of post master James Stewart, will be glad to know that he has taken up hockey in earnest. Mr. Stewart recently received a clipping from a Halifax paper giving an account of a game between the Gunners and the Lilywhites and among the stars mentioned are Col. Stewart and Capt. Panet of Kingston.

V.O.N. Committee Meeting.
Owing to the continued illness of the president, Mrs. W. H. Gimblett, the vice-president, Mrs. R. Leishman, presided at the monthly meeting of the Victorian Order Committee held on Thursday. Miss Leader, the V. O. nurse, reported that she had paid 232 visits of which 39 were free visits, during the month. She also said that 113 babies had been brought to the Well Baby Clinic at the Welfare Station.

May Form Union.
There is a prospect that an electricians' union will be formed in Kingston. On Thursday night, Mr. Noble, organizer for this union, addressed the regular meeting of the Trades and Labor Council on the matter and to-night there is to be a meeting of electricians.
The organizer said the conditions in the building trades throughout the country were better at the present time than they had been in the past fifteen years. Much information as to what unions were doing in other centres was conveyed to the audience by the speaker.

The Late Mrs. A. D. Sills.
At the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Frost, North Fredericksburg, on Feb. 25th, Rachel Ann Cole, relict of the late A. D. Sills, died at the ripe age of ninety-one years, four months and twenty-six days. Mrs. Sills was born in South Fredericksburg, Oct. 30th, 1834, but lived practically her whole life in the Gretna district, where for many years she was a most active supporter and member of the Methodist church. She is survived by a son and daughter, Mr. Edward Sills and Mrs. Robert Frost, both of North Fredericksburg, also two grandsons and two great-grandsons.

The fabrics of the coat mode are Imported Tweeds, Poiret Twill, Needle Point, Imported Velours.

Navy Blue remains, also Opal Greys, unusual Greens, Light Fawns, delicate Browns, Tweeds, Greys, make their debut.

$15.00 to $50.00

The Spring Suit

Is the Outstanding Success Among Spring Tailleurs

"Tailored Suits for Spring" says fashion, and fashion is wise and quick to realize that a cleverly cut tailleur asserts, with unfailing good choice, the charm of the woman who wears it.

Style is the word that leads in the chic appearance of the short-cut Coat and Skirt. It may be single or double breasted, fastened with a link button, the notched lapel, snug-fitting sleeve, and man tailored pockets. The skirts wrap snugly about the hips and are decidedly unusual with pleatings.

They are developed of Imported Tweeds, Tricotines and Poiret Twill.
