What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions.

AT THE CAPITOL.

Ronald Colman and Irene Rich in "Lady Windermere's Fan," the Ernst Lubitsch production for Warner Bros., opened to-day at the Capitol Theatre with one of the most brilliant casts of the season, and proof that Lubitsch can make the famous epigrams of Oscar Wilde sparkle in terms of screen action.

Irene Rich, a beautiful, new, sophisticated, Spanish Irene Rich, plays Mrs. Erylne, and her remarkably striking performance is a credit to both Miss Rich and the masterly direction of Lubitsch. May McAvoy is proudly lovely as Lady Windermere, Bert Lytell is a decidedly likeable hero as Lord Windermere, while Donald Colman (loaned to the Warners by Samuel Goldwyn) makes a most ardently irresistible Lord Darlington, Lord Augustus, gay susceptible Lord Augustus, is in the capable hands of Edward Martindel, and there are three delightful duchesses played by Helen Dunbar, Carrie Daumery and Billie Bennett.

A PIANO RECITAL

Given by the Pupils of Harold S. Packer.

The pupils of Harold S. Packer, A.T.C.M., of the Kingston Music Studio, gave a recital of piano music in Sydenham street hall on Saturday evening, when a number of their parents and friends were present to hear what progress the boys and girls had made during the year. Mr. Packer has a method of teaching that appears to be very successful, for in many ways a marked progress was noticed. The older pupils played with a good deal of confidence, and even little Phyllis Saunders, the smallest girl, showed a freedom and ease that was satisfactory. Miss Gwyneth Sherman played several numbers that were much admired, among them "Little Yellow Butterflies" (Schaefer), Miss Ethel Amey and Miss Mary Bird, in one of Mendelssohn's "Songs Without Words," and a Russian dance by Fritzi, were heard with pleasure. Reginald Savary plays carefully and with intelligence, and his numbers, "Valse Caprice in A Flat" (Tollner), and "Snowdrops" (Tchelnikovsky), were among the best on the programme. The other boys who played were Eldon Code, Reid McLeod and Harold Anglin and Edward Rankin, who are all promising pupils. Miss Lois Billings played two numbers. She has improved in her wrist action and will gain confidence in time.

WEDDINGS.

Robinson-Smith.

On Saturday March 6th at noon a quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. W. F. Burgess, York Road, when Margaret Alice Smith of Kingston and Daniel Milton Robinson of Madoc, were united in marriage. Miss Carrie Doyle, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march. The bride, becomingly dressed in rosewood satin crepe trimmed with loops of velvet of the same shade, entered the room on the arm of Dr. A. P. Chown. Rev. W. F. G. Brown, B.A., D.D., of Sydenham street United Church officiated. After the ceremony refreshments were served. The groom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls and to the pianist a dainty bar gin. Among the guests were Miss Victoria Robinson and Mr. Arthur Robinson of Madoc, sister and brother of the groom. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for a short honeymoon. They will make their home at Madoc.

SPORT

KINGSTON GIRLS BEAT BELLEVILLE

Fast Game of Hockey Played at Jock Hartly Arena on Saturday Afternoon.

K.C.I. girls defeated the Belleville High School by a score 2-0 in the return game of the girls' exhibition hockey played at the Arena Saturday afternoon. There was a fairly large crowd on hand and they were very much surprised at the speed and stick work displayed by the local girls. The visitors were outclassed in every department and but for the wonderful work of Miss Adams, in the nets for Belleville, the Blue and White would have run up a very high score.

K.C.I. defeated the Belleville girls by a 2-0 score in the first game played in Belleville but despite their hardest efforts could not make the count any better on their own ice. All the locals played star hockey and the work of Miss Maybee was particularly outstanding. Time after time she rushed through the opposition only to be turned back by Miss Adams. The same thing prevailed when the K.C.I. forward line, Misses Simmons, Bird and Bruce swept down the ice on combination attacks. Many chances to score were lost by the K.C.I. girls through their inability to lift the puck off the ice and they were forced to draw Miss Adams out of the nets to ring up counters.

All of the Belleville girls worked very hard but could not cope with the fast rushes of the K.C.I. maidens. The forward line did not show as good combination as the locals and it was very seldom that they were able to squeeze through the K.C.I. defence on individual efforts. When they did, they were always met by Miss Lytle who handled all the shots that came her way in a very capable manner.

There was no scoring in the opening period although many chances were lost by the K.C.I. girls but in the second session Misses Bird and Bruce broke away in a duet attempt that resulted in Miss Bird slipping the disc by Miss Adams for the first score of the game. In the final stanza, Miss Bruce scored the second and final goal after about ten minutes of play but before the gong sounded the K.C.I. girls had tested Miss Adams on many more occasions. The teams were:

K.C.I.—Goal, Marjorie Lytle; defence, Irene Gordon, Helen Maybee; centre, Gladys Simmons; wings, Mary Bird, Doris Bruce; spares, May Powell, Helen Pappas, Betty Adsit.

Belleville—Goal, Jennie Adams; defence, Dorothy Pierce, Jean Ramsay; centre, Ida Folwell; wings, Elsie Doolittle, Bessie Doolittle; spares, Margaret Fairbairn, Audrey Keilher, Elizabeth Edison.

Referee—Percy Cole, Belleville.

BISHOP'S COLLEGE DEFEATED BY R.M.C.

Red and White Won at Montreal on Saturday by 2-1 Score.

R.M.C. qualified to meet Western University in the intermediate inter-collegiate finals by defeating Bishop's College of Lennoxville by a score of 2-1 at Montreal Saturday. The cadets although heavier than their opponents were given stiff opposition and were held scoreless for the opening stanza. In the second period, after four minutes of play Walker tore away and slipped a pass to Tremaine who rung up the first counter. In the final period Scott scored for Bishop's being the count but a few minutes later MacDougall put the cadets in the lead again on an effective solo effort.

The teams were:

R.M.C.—Goal, Rogers; defence, Davis, Walker; centre, MacDougall; wings, Tremaine, Clarke; spares, Nichol, Smith, Mather.

Bishop's College—Goal, Klein; defence, Dinan, McKinnon; centre, Scott; wings, Ryder, Smith; spares, Stevenson, Robertson, Beatty.

Referee—W. Bell.

Patterson Cannot Play.

Kingston juniors will be without the services of "Paddy" Patterson, star right winger of the locals, in the game at Toronto with North Bay tonight. The boys are confident that they could pull a win tonight and are hoping that Patterson will be in a fit shape to join the team on Wednesday.

OBITUARY

Thomas Clough.

The death occurred on Sunday of Thomas Clough, aged eighty-two years. The late Mr. Clough was a Methodist in religion and had resided in the city for a number of years. The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning from his daughter's residence to Cataract cemetery. Rev. E. H. Burgess will officiate.

Peter Dooling.

The death occurred in the city on Sunday of Mr. Peter Dooling, aged sixty-two years. Deceased was a Catholic in religion and had been ailing for some time. The body was forwarded to his home at Douglas, Ont., on Monday morning.

Mrs. Anthony Rankin.

On Sunday there passed to rest at her home at Collin's Bay, Jean, the wife of Anthony Rankin, M.P.P., and daughter of Alexander Innes, Campbellford. A lovable and lovely woman has gone, a woman always ready to help those who needed her, a pattern wife and mother, a true friend has passed to the great beyond, and her place will know her no more. She will be sincerely mourned by her friends in Kingston, Toronto, Collin's Bay and in her girlhood home, Campbellford. Her children are David Rankin, B.A., present at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, and Marion, who is at home.

Mrs. Rankin was an interested worker in the Women's Institute, and an honorary vice-president of the Kingston Local Council of Women. She was an untiring worker for the Collin's Bay United Church and its former pastor, Rev. G. A. Sisco, Rev. W. J. Coyle, will conduct the funeral service, which takes place from the old Rankin home at Collin's Bay on Tuesday at 1.30 p.m. He will be assisted by the present pastor, Rev. Dr. Couper. Hon. W. F. Nickle, Toronto, and Hon. J. R. Cooke, Hastings, will be the honorary pall-bearers. The pall-bearers will all be members of the Legislature and will include Messrs. Hambley, Grey, Thompson, Stedman and Black.

NAME LAKE AND MOUNTAIN

After Dr. E. L. Bruce and Late Dr. R. S. Minnes.

According to the Geographic Board decisions which have just been published, a lake northwest of Lac Seul, Patricia district, has been named after Prof. E. L. Bruce of Queen's University who made geological surveys in that district in 1922.

Another decision of the board is to call a mountain on the Kakwa river, in the Cariboo district, B.C., after the late Dr. R. S. Minnes of Ottawa. The mountain is 7,945 feet high.

Queen's O. T. C. Inspected.

Major-General E. H. Emsley of the Headquarters Staff made the annual inspection of the Queen's University Officers Training Corps on Saturday. The corps turned out at full strength and executed the movements and manoeuvres very smartly.

HONORED AT MABERLY.

Splendid Farewell to Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Wood and Family.

On February 26th, a community gathering was held in Maberly town hall to spend a social evening with Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Wood and family before their departure for their new home in Verona. There was a pleasing programme of songs, instrumental music and speeches. H. J. Buchanan, Thomas Briggs, Mr. McDonald, J. A. Perkins, Mrs. Robert Munro, John Laidley, Mrs. Walsh, all spoke of the splendid services of Mr. and Mrs. Wood in church, Sunday school and community life. Mr. Wood had been township treasurer, school trustee, telephone administrator and agricultural society director, filling the posts with marked efficiency. All the speakers united in wishing them health, happiness and prosperity in their new field of labor.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood were called to the platform. On behalf of the community, H. J. Buchanan read an address, while Mrs. Thomas Briggs and Harris Conboy presented a rattle living-room suite.

Earl and Donnie Wood were also called to the platform and on behalf of the pupils of Maberly public school were each of them presented with a fountain pen.

The ladies then served a dainty and appetizing lunch and the evening was brought to a close with the singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" and the National Anthem.

Mrs. Wood is a daughter of Mr. J. Brown, Johnson street, this city.
