DISTRICT GOVERNOR AT THE ROTARY CLUB

J. S. Royer Reviews International Programme at Dinner Thursday Night.

District-Governor J. S. Royer, of Quebec City, came to Kingston on Thursday, and addressed the local Rotary Club, at a dinner held at the British-American Hotel on Thursday evening. In the afternoon, the district-governor met with the board of directors, and the chairmen of committees, and went over the work of the club for the year.

CHESTER H. WOOD
Elected Grand Treasurer of the Orange Lodge of Eastern Ontario.

In his address on Thursday evening, Rotarian Royer briefly reviewed the Rotary International programme, which was adopted at Cleveland last year, and pointed out to the local club the places where it had not just been as active as was desirable.

Rotary, he said, was not just a luncheon club, but rather an organization with objectives and ideals. It was an organization whose ideals were somewhat opposed to the natural inclination of mankind, because everyone was born with a certain narrowness of mind, and selfishness, and these natural inclinations made Rotary education very necessary.

The speaker, in touching on business ethics, urged all Rotarians to join their craft or professional organization, and in these organizations to practise and preach Rotary principles. He likewise suggested that they all join their Board of Trade and take an active interest in the widening of business life in the community. One of the ideals of Rotary was to develop leaders, he said.

Governor Royer spoke of the importance of boys' work, and made several suggestions as to plans that are being carried out in other cities and which might be adopted to meet the situation here.

In concluding, he said that Rotary had a great opportunity in Canada, to assist in bringing all parts closer together and in creating a spirit of friendship and good fellowship.

SECOND CHANCE DOCTRINE

Is Without Foundation According to Evangelist Chapman.

"The false hope of a second probation lulls men to sleep in carnal security at the very time when the eternal destinies are at stake," stated Evangelist Chapman last night, at the new church on Alfred street. He said in part—

"Satan and his hosts of evil angels will be detained upon the earth a thousand years after the coming of Christ. During this thousand years, the sun will not shine upon the earth neither will there be vegetation, birds or human beings. This is all plainly taught in Jer. 4:23. During this same period the righteous will be in Heaven occupying the mansions which Jesus went to prepare for them in His Father's house."

Continuing, he said that the doctrine of a second chance is without foundation in the Bible. We are told of a millennium, or thousand years in Revelations xx, bounded by two resurrections, the one at the beginning, the righteous and the other at the close—that of the wicked.

"The parable of the wheat and the tares teaches clearly that it is impossible for any repentance after the harvest. This same thing is found in the parable of the rich man and Lazarus—no changing after death. In Revelations xx: 11, 12 we are taught that cases of all are settled forever before Jesus comes.

PUBLISHES A BOOK

Dr. John Sampson's Work, "Gypsy," Is Highly Praised.

Gananque, March 19.—The Clarendon and Oxford University Press announce the publication of a work by John Sampson. The name of the book is "Gypsy," the dialect of the gypsies of Wales, being the oldest form of British Roman preserved in the speech of the Clan of Abram Wood. The comments of the Oxford Press read as follows:

"A very remarkable achievement. Dr. Sampson has trodden in the footsteps of George Borrow, with a similar taste for the romance of low life, but with an incomparably superior philological equipment. His knowledge of Roman was derived from old men whose confidence he won, and in whose company he lived on familiar terms. His rare combination of learning with adventure, sympathy, and the picturesque eye has enabled him to produce a pioneer book, very unlike a common grammar and dictionary. The introduction throws a flood of new light on the vexed question of the origin of Roman—it was welcomed with enthusiasm by that great philologist the late Henry Bradley. The proof sheets of the vocabulary have already delighted many readers wholly innocent of gypsy or of philological knowledge; for it is not only a vocabulary of the Gypsy language, but also an epitome of Gypsy life."

Dr. John Sampson alluded to above is an LL.D., of Oxford University and a brother of Mr. James H. Sampson and Mr. W. T. Sampson of this town.

FAIR DIRECTORS CONSIDERING PLANS

R. J. Bushell Has Several New Features In View For 1926.

The directors of the Kingston Industrial Exhibition held a meeting on Thursday afternoon, to give careful consideration to the situation which now confronts them. In view of the fact that they had a $4,000 deficit last year, it was determined to effect certain economies in order to regain these losses.

Various phases of the exhibition were taken up, and R. J. Bushell, the manager, in the course of his address, outlined several new features which he had in view for 1926, all of which will serve to make the fair more attractive. The president, directors and manager are all convinced that given good weather they will be able to put on an exhibition this fall which will surpass any between Toronto and Ottawa.

One advantage the boss has is when he is too lazy to work he can think he is thinking.
