Kingston Bank Clearings. The following are the figures of the Kingston Bankers Clearing House: For week ending March 18th, 1918, $577,866; corresponding week, 1925, $547,518.

Visiting at Moira. Mrs. Richardson, Kingston, is visiting her daughter, who has been assisting Miss Hazard with evangelistic services in connection with the Standard church, Moira.

Choral Society. The Choral Society will continue this week the sectional rehearsals for "St. Paul" and the sopranos and altos will meet on Saturday evening at the home of Dr. J. F. McFadyen, 18 Alice street.

Sea Cadets' Party. The junior club of the local Sea Cadet Corps held a very enjoyable party in the club rooms Thursday evening, the boys and their friends enjoying dancing and games throughout the evening. Refreshments were served. Sergt. Campbell of the R.C.H.A. presided at the piano.

Preparing the Budget. The civic finance committee had the budget and the tax rate under discussion on Thursday night. Copies of the budget will first go to the members of the Council, and official announcement of the rate will be made on Monday. The budget will go before the council on Monday night.

A Beauty Spot. Mr. George Stockbridge, of the C.P.R. station, one of the best-known gardeners in Kingston, promises that the flower garden at the station will be even more colorful this spring than in former years.

Harry McNeill Better. The many friends of Mr. Harry McNeill, son of W. J. McNeill, Rideau street, at present studying law at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, will learn with pleasure that he is recovering from a rather serious illness recently.

Y.M.C.A. Campaign. Arrangements are nearing completion for the big Y.M.C.A. Financial Campaign, which will get under way on Monday morning and last until Thursday night, when it is expected that more than 1,200 people in the city will be canvassed. The objective is for $7,000, all of which will be required for the current expenses of the ensuing year.

For Receiving Stolen Goods. At Alexandria Bay, N.Y., Samuel Wallins, a junk dealer of Watertown, will be arraigned on the charge of criminally receiving stolen property. His arrest was made recently in connection with the theft of lead from the roof of the Hart Island castle and was the fifth arrest to be made in the case.

Lived Long in Brockville. At the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Comstock, Brockville, Mrs. Rosie Gates on Thursday received the congratulations of her friends upon the attainment, in a state of mental and bodily vigor which would do credit to one years her junior, of the eighty-fifth anniversary of her birth. Mrs. Gates was born in Brockville on March 18, 1841, the daughter of Thomas Smart, merchant tailor, and his wife, Sarah Chaffey, and has been practically a lifelong resident of the town.

To Enter Appeal. The Toronto Star has the following:

"Notices of desire to appeal his sentence of fifteen years to Portmouth penitentiary has been filed with Crown Attorney Eric Armour, K.C., by Roy Davey, through his counsel, Basil Esery. The sentence is claimed to be too severe. J. Earle Lawson has filed similar notice in connection with the case of Harry Manheim, convicted of having revenue dies on the ground that the verdict was against the weight of evidence and that the trial judge misdirected the jury."

Death of Elgin Lady. Mrs. Fricella Smith, aged eighty-two years, widow of the late John Smith, passed away on Tuesday at her late residence, Elgin, after an illness of some time. The deceased was born near Elgin and had lived in that vicinity for the greater part of her life, being highly regarded and very well known. She is survived by two sons, John A. of Edmonton and Harry at home and five daughters, Mrs. H. Henderson, Portland, Ont.; Mrs. M. E. Halliday, San Francisco, Cal.; Mrs. J. Horner, and Mrs. W. J. Horner, Los Angeles, and Mrs. M. Dowsett, Vancouver, B.C. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon and was very largely attended.

Wedded Fifty Years.

The 12th day of March marked the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Peters, of Switzerville. Neighbors paid a visit to their home, showering them with congratulations and good wishes for the future. About thirty guests sat down to the dinner, and about 130 arrived for the entertainment in the evening, when special musical numbers and recitations were enjoyed by the merry throng.

Mr. Delmar Sezsmith, of Bicknell's Corners, presented both Mr. and Mrs. Peters with a comfortable pair of slippers, on behalf of the people at the Corners, and Mr. Vernon Paul, on behalf of the people of Switzerville, presented Mr. Peters with a set of military brushes and Mrs. Peters with a pocket book.

The couple have resided in Switzerville for the past seventeen years, moving to that place from Selby. Mr. Peters during his residence in Switzerville has served the community as school trustee.
