Musical Comedy, "Silly Isles."
By choir, Cooke's S.S. Hall, Thursday, March 25th, Friday, March 26th, 8 o'clock. Adults 50c., children 25c.

To Give Address.

Mr. G. F. Thompson, of the Silica Sand Company, will address the Mathematics and Physics Club, of Queen's University, on "The Theory of Parallels."

Reeve Kennedy Ill.

The many friends of Reeve Michael J. Kennedy of Portsmouth will regret to learn that he is confined to the Hotel Dieu Hospital suffering from an attack of la grippe.

Had Clean Sheet.

The local police had a very quiet time over the week-end. No arrests were made, and as a result there was no session of the Police Court on Monday morning.

Funeral of Mrs. Hinchcliffe.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Alice Hinchcliffe took place on Monday afternoon at Cataragui cemetery. Rev. J. K. Curtis officiated at the service which was held at the parlors of the James Reid firm.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Thompson, Ottawa, announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Annie Morris, to Dr. John Allen Johnston, Carleton Place, son of the late Mr. James Johnston and Mrs. Johnston, North Gower. The marriage will take place early in April.

His Shoulder Crushed.

Elmer Demille, aged eighteen, son of Charles Demille, Chatterton, Sidney township, while riding upon a sleigh laden with wood, fell off, one runner passing over his shoulder which was broken and badly crushed. In addition his right hip was severely bruised.

To Dedicate Memorial.

At the service at Christ Church, Belleville, in the evening of March 28th, a memorial to the late Canon Forneri, former rector of Christ Church, will be dedicated by his Lordship the Bishop of Ontario. The marble memorial is the gift to the church by the Rev. A. L. Geen.

Steamship Hinchley Seized.

An order of attachment has been served on the owners of the Hinchley, a steamer at Alexandria Bay. The order was issued by Federal Judge Frank Cooper following a $393 claim presented against the owners of the Hinchley by Michael Ross, boiler repairer, Oswego.

Dies After Long Illness.

Peter Wiley, aged eighty, for years a widely known farmer of the town of Cape Vincent, living near Rosiere, died last week after a long illness. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Francis Butland, Watertown, and Ella Wiley, Rosiere; two sons, Edward and Albert, Rosiere; one brother, Frank, Rosiere.

Want a Bathing Beach.

Purchase of Barney Castle at the foot of James street, Alexandria Bay, N.Y., by the village for use as a bathing beach is being seriously considered by the Chamber of Commerce and a committee has been appointed to carry on the negotiations which were started some time ago with Oliver Rafferty estate.

Asked for Eighth Year.

The official board of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Alexandria Bay, N.Y., has given a unanimous invitation to the pastor, Rev. Oliver E. Raymond, to return to the charge for another year. He has already served seven consecutive years and another year would make it eight years in the parish.

Was Almost Smothered.

A gasoline tank crossing the Ottawa river from Pembroke to Waltham, upset and Joseph Biggs, on the sleigh, was thrown into a big snow drift, the tank partly settling on the snow and hemming him in. Biggs, in a partly smothered condition, was removed to the hospital. His condition was said to be precarious.

Evangelist Chapman's Message.
"We do not earn salvation by our obedience; for salvation is the free gift of God to be received by faith," stated Evangelist Chapman, in his sermon last night at the New Church on Alfred street. "The condition of eternal life is now just what it always has been, just what it was in Paradise before the fall of our parents, perfect obedience to the law of God perfect righteousness."

What Advertising Does.

The fur advertised in The Whig as lost on Thursday was returned to the owner on Friday through the medium of this paper. A gold watch was lost on the street and on Friday The Whig advertised the misadventure. As reliable as a clock The Whig was able to turn over the valuable keepsake to the owner. The Whig's advertising columns are read by a great multitude of people.

Transferred to Kingston.
Residents of Brockville and vicinity regret the transfer to Kingston of Harold L. Christie, accountant at the local branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia for the past seven years. During his residence in Brockville Mr. Christie became popular among all classes of citizens and it is a matter of regret that the town is to lose him as a resident. He has been prominently connected with fraternal and social organizations, says the Recorder and Times, and in general has been a valued citizen. His many friends are pleased that he has received a deserved promotion in the bank's service.

To Be an Instructor.

Mrs. E. I. England has left for Brantford where she is to be an instructor on the subject, "The Use of the Story in Religious Education," in one of the community schools conducted by the Council of Religious Education for Ontario. About 200 are in attendance.

"Y" Boys Take Part.

The members of the Y.M.C.A. are putting on the feature of the year early in April, when the best circus ever staged at the local "Y" will arrive under the auspices of "Dingling and Bugaling Bros. All the animal and acrobatic acts are being taken by the boys and the big street parade promises to be a successful new departure.

Campaign Supper.

A campaign supper will be held in the Y.M.C.A. this evening, in connection with the financial drive. Eight teams comprised of about fifty men, will sit down and the officials in charge of the arrangements will explain to them the methods which will be employed by the canvassers. Mr. Lou-uckley of the National Council, will give a short talk and will remain for a week and assist in the campaign.

Met the Oddfellows.

Dr. A. E. Ross, Grand Master of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, attended the annual meeting of District No. 56, held on Thursday evening in the Pembroke Lodge, I.O.O.F., with upwards of two hundred in attendance. District Deputy Grand Master John Russell, Renfrew, and delegates and members of the Pembroke, Renfrew, Arnprior and Pakenham lodges attended. The meeting was an unqualified success.

Cutting Ice on Roads.

A Wahn grader was engaged in cutting up the ice and snow on the Wellington street road on Saturday. The machine is of the traction type with the engine at the rear and a row of sharp prongs protruding from the front. It is used to tear up the ice on the roads so that the sun can melt it away, clearing the roads quicker. A photographer was engaged in taking pictures of the machine while in operation.

Tyendinaga Farmer Dies.

James Cross, eighth concession of Tyendinaga, died on Thursday at his home in Tyendinaga after an illness of some months. He was a son of William Cross and was in his sixty-eighth year. Mourning his death are three sons Wilbur, Belleville, and John and Elmer, Tyendinaga. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and of Carter's L.O.L. No. 295. He was a well-known and prosperous farmer.

Must Pay for Hound.

At Smith's Falls, the division court case of Dowsett and Dewey versus Jarvis was interesting. Jarvis was alleged to have shot a hound belonging to Dowsett on Dec. 1st, 1924. Dowsett had lent the dog to Dewey and the latter was hunting when the shooting took place in Montague. Jarvis claimed to be fourteen years of age. The judge found him guilty and ordered him to pay $50 to the plaintiffs.

Some Weighty Chickens.

While many poultry fanciers are planning to start their incubators in the very near future there are some local men who have had chickens out for some weeks. James B. Holland, Clergy street, has chickens which were hatched in 1926 and weighed two pounds, eleven ounces, when placed on the scales last week. The birds are Langshans and will be shown at some of the poultry fairs this year.

Now can any person beat this?

To Work in This Conference.
Relinquishment of forces directing religious education in Ontario and Quebec confederates of the United Church has been made possible by decision of the executive of the Board of Religious Education. The Board of Quinte conference, enlarged to include Lanark and Renfrew Presbytery, and extending from Whitby to Kingston and Pembroke, is the area of Rev. Manson Doyle, B.A., associate secretary of the Methodist Board.

Horses Were Killed.

Clashing head on into a train west bound on the Canadian Pacific, a runaway team owned by W. S. Fraser, Pembroke, were instantly killed on the C.P.R. tracks at the east end of the town. The horses became frightened and raced down McKay street. Passing their own yard they ran into the C.P.R. freight yards where they took to the tracks. Racing furiously east on the tracks they crashed head on into the west-bound passenger train.

Elders Are Elected.

It was announced at St. Andrew's Church on Sunday, that the result of the recent balloting to fill vacancies in the eldership was as follows: Dr. D. Allan Black, Alexander Macphail, William Anderson, James McCullis, R. J. Black, D. G. Hay, John Greenlees, Edwin E. Horsey, and D. McArthur.
The above mentioned men were elected by a popular vote of the congregation and they will be duly inducted into the eldership on Sunday next.
