CHALMERS CHURCH ANNIVERSARY DAY

Prof. John Dow of Knox Says College, Toronto, the Speolal Preacher.

The eightieth anniversary of the special music by the choir, and sincere desire on the part of the members of the congregation to give thanks for the long-continued success and prosperity which their church has enjoyed, combined to attract very large crowds to both of the services.

The preacher of the day was Rev. John Dow, M.A., professor of New Testament in Knox College, and he delivered two able and inspiring sermons. The pastor, Rev. George Brown, assisted in conducting the service while the music was under the direction of Dr. Granville Frost. At the morning service Rev. Mr. Dow took his text from St. Matthew's Gospel, 13:54, "And when He was come unto His own country, He taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, whence bath This Man His wisdom, and these mighty works? Is not this the Carpenter's

In his the most vital to you." opening remarks, the speaker said it meant to have Jesus Christ in his mendous changes in university edlife. He had a larger place in civi- ucation since this hall we are in. fization than anyone could possibly was built. This was the whole uni-Napoleon had once said, the speak- tion was confined to a few subjects, er remarked, that Alexander, Cassar, Charlemagne and himself had all ough manner. Now, the education is founded great empires, but they were based on force. Jesus Christ had founded a far greater kingdom

People living at the same time as Jesus had thought of him only as carpenter's son and they found it hard, almost impossible, to conceive Him as a man of wisdom, much less the Son of God, said the preacher. The difficulty experienced by people to-day was the exact opposite. They almost forgot His human aspect. One half of the efficiency of Jesus atonement and the whole of the efficiency of His example depended ou His having been human to the full. He was at one and the same time the revealer of God and of man, declared Rev. Mr. Dow. "The young man in the vision evidently thought that the first thing to do in the rebuilding of Jerusalen was to define the boundary line and raise the walls," said Rev. Mr. Dow sheaking at the evening service, but he declared the spiritual knew no such limitations and could not be measured. God acknowledged no constructing walls. Yet to the great spiritual concerns of human life men were ever ready to apply the measuring line of their prejudices and preconceptions. Rev. Mr. took his text from Zechariah III:2 "Then said I. Whither goest thou! And he said unto me. To measure Jerusalem to see what is breadth thereof and what length thereof." Continuing the preacher "Education is a spiritual process and yet it is plagued with examinaself up as a judge of the educational system. Education goes on without the bounds of any curriculum. We never can tell when see, Prince Edward county, on leavthe mind is being vitalized and in- ing for another place, were honored "Religion likewise," he said, "has bert family have for fifty years been subjected to this evil. Creeds have emphasized our differences and placed us off from one another. But to get solid foundation for the United Church of Canada we have dug down deeper and chosen a religious basis in the eternal verities of faith, the things that cannot be shaken, the religious certainties like the love of God and the Saviour hood of Christ. Such a church must have a great future because it leaves room for the holy spirit," declared Mr. Dow.

The music showed careful training and deep appreciation of the spiritual value of the anthems. At the morning service Mrs. Granville Frost sang very beautifully "The Palms" (Fame) and the choir gave Gounod's "Gentle, Holy Saviour" with pleasing effect. In the evening the choir sang three anthems, "Hail. True Body" (Wilan), "Jesu, Word of God Incarnate" (Gounod) and repoated by request "Gentle, Holy Saviour."

Princess Street Church, W.M.S. The annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of Princess Street Church was held on Sunday morning, there being a very large attendance. Mrs. (Dr.) H. Murphy presided. Miss Jack gave a very interesting and highly instructive address on church work in Africa. The officers for the year are: President, Mrs. H. Murphy; vice-president, Miss Simpson; treasurer, Miss Cross; secretaries, Miss E. Wilder, Miss L. Campbell, Mrs. England, Mrs. Brebner, Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Watts and Mrs. Lemmon.

"NO NOT FORGET THE MAIN THINGS"

Principal Taylor, in Preaching Baccalaureate Sermon at Queen's.

"I wonder how you carry on founding of Chalmers' congregation when I think of all the activities in this city was fittingly marked on you are engaged in," said Principal Sunday when a notable preacher, Taylor, addressing the graduating class in his baccalureate sermon, at Convocation Hall, on Sunday afternoon, "But I would say to you on leaving the college, and going out to take up your life work, do not forget the main things? I hope that the men and women who go out from this university will be pioneers in their profession."

Principal Taylor chose as his text, Judges 5th chapter, 6th verse: "In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the highways were unoccupied, and the walked through bytravellers

The speaker declared that the great things in life moved upon a beaten track, and that it was only stress of other influences that would get one off these beaten paths.

In going out from the university, was an easy matter for one to take the easy course and allow things to slide, and the speaker appealed to his hearers to ever keep before them the main things.

"Whatever happens to you after you leave the university, the four the wonderful personality of Jesus or five years you put in here will be

Principal Taylor remarked that that on that anniversary day it was the character of the university had well for each one to consider what changed. "There have been treconceive, declared Rev. Mr. Dow. versity. In those days the educaand they were dealt with in a thornot the property of the few, but the many. A person comes out of the university knowing many things."

During the service, which was well attended, Rev. Dr. Jordan offered prayer. Miss Jean Douglas favored with a violin solo and Mr. Alexander with a vocal

Choral Society. Miss Dorothy Belle Jones, who will sing the soprano solos in Saint Paul on the evening of Wednesday, March 31st, has appeared successfully before audiences in Birmingham and Wolverhampton, England, in New York and Brooklyn, and in many of the large cities in Canada. She has a voice of rare, sympathetic quality, clear, bright and strong, of wide range and flexibility, her high of her husband. Mr. Gartland died notes being particularly full and taken with the utmost case. Her rendition of Mendelssohn's beautiful aria "Jerusalem, Thou That Killest the Prophets" is anticipated with

The exquisite recitative and arioso "But the Lord is Mindful of His Own" will be sung by Miss Myrtle Stagg, who needs no introduction to a Kingston audience. She is con tralto soloist in Queen street church and has been a member of the Kingston Choral Society since its formation. In the various cantatas and oratorios since presented by the soclety her rich, deep contralto voice fion tests and each man sets him has been of most valuable assistance.
