"THE ROAD TO YESTERDAY"
Cecil B. DeMille's Great Spectacle Opens at Capitol Tomorrow.
Once again the great Cecil B. DeMille has struck out of the beaten path of motion picture production, and traveled over "The Road of Yesterday." And he has not traveled alone. He has gathered his public unto him, and taken them along—in droves and swarms.
In his latest Producers Distributing Corporation release, personally directed and independently produced by him, which opens at the Capitol Theatre for a three day run tomorrow, and he has given us a picture production to ponder over.
First of all he has taken a theme of timely moment; a scientific problem that has baffled humanity since the beginning of time—reincarnation. He has woven a romance around it; he has injected a thrilling element of mystery; he has instilled it with an undercurrent of pathos and human interest as only such a director is capable of.

GAVE FINE LECTURE.
Rev. Father Knox Addressed the Catholic Women's League.
Rev. Father Knox, who, with Rev. Father McMahon, has been conducting the mission recently at St. Mary's Cathedral, addressed a very large gathering of the Catholic Women's League in the Catholic Assembly hall on Tuesday night. There were over three hundred in attendance and the lecture was enjoyed by all who heard it.
Father Knox dealt particularly on the possibilities of the League in the future, and what had been accomplished in the past. He made passing reference to modern dress and decried the extremes to which some people carried it.

25 Days' Tour to Alaska.
Once Alaska was identified with the gold seeker. Today it is as closely linked with tourist traffic, for men have found that there is more sheer gold in one Alaskan sunset than ever came out of the rockbound mines. It is a land of strange contradictions and never-ending surprises. It is the desire of every tourist to visit this enchanted country, the land of the midnight sun.
The Kerr-Bryson tour via the Canadian National Railways offers you the desired opportunity under most advantageous auspices and at a minimum cost. The tour embraces Jasper National Park the famous Triangle Tour, the Pacific Coast, Alaska, and the Great Lakes Trip on the return journey.
Write for full information and descriptive booklet to Mr. A. E. Bryson, 44 Silvertown avenue, Toronto, 9, Ont., or Mr. Martin Kerr, 4 Beulah avenue, Hamilton, Ont.

About six months ago I began taking

"THE ROAD TO YESTERDAY"
Jetta Goudal in "The Road to Yesterday" at the Capitol Thursday, Friday and Saturday.
The story starts in a modern setting. He has taken his characters from among us. We immediately are on a par with them, sharing their loves and hates. Then suddenly, yet so imperceptibly that it is almost dreamlike, he carries the story back to medieval England in the early seventeenth century.
Here we find the same characters, living and loving, fighting and hating. They are the same, yet they are so vastly different. The young bride of the present day appears as a wantonly captivating Gipsy girl of medieval times; the gifted millionaire youth, whom we left submerged in the smoke of a train crash, appears again as a poor, brow-beaten taven tap-boy.
In "The Road to Yesterday" DeMille has given to the public a picture worthy of his mighty directorial genius.
To-night will be your last opportunity of witnessing the great epic of heroism, "Ypres," which closes its run at the Capitol theatre to-night.

"ROSE MARIE" AT GRAND.
There is color, charm, clever dancing and delightful melody with a background of real plot in Arthur Hammerstein's presentation of "Rose Marie," which with the full strength of the Boston organization, will play at the Grand Theatre, Easter Monday and Tuesday nights.
The piece is fortunate in having such completely qualified cast of singers, dancers and comedians, and they in turn are equally fortunate in having so clever a vehicle, which yields maximum returns to their efforts. The music by Rudolph Friml and Herbert Stothart is little less than enchanting, presenting such gems as "Rose-Marie," "Indian Love Call," "Totem Tom Tom," "Why Shouldn't We?" and "Door of My Dreams." The plot revolves about the love of a former member of the Canadian Northwest Mounted Police for a dainty French-Canadian girl. And how the chorus can sing and dance. "Totem Tom Tom" danced by a host of girls in Totem Pole costume is one of the most unusual pieces of stagecraft ever seen in musical comedy. Good seats are still available.
