Boys' Suits

FOR EASTER

There's a certain snap, dash, style about the Boys' Suits at this store that is hard to describe. Yes, the very latest in Boys' Clothes, and why not?

Boys like a Suit that wears, but they also want style and here is the most happy combination of both. Good qualities.

CITY AND DISTRICT

Canton Euchre and Dance.
Our next one will be held on Friday, April 9th, instead of April 2nd.

Pictures and Questions.
At the new church, Alfred street, tonight and Thursday night, also service Friday evening. All welcome.

The Channel is Open.
The channel in the river is open from Cherry Island to Thousand Island Park. At Alexandria Bay the ice is badly broken up.

Located at Rouyn.
The Bank of Commerce is opening a branch at Rouyn. The Box boys of Calabogie are also there, conducting a general store and a drug store.

Purchased a Residence.
Mr. Thomas Friend, Wolfe Island, who has sold out his general store there and purposes removing to Kingston, has purchased one of the new residences on Barrie street, erected by Mr. Robert Orvell.

Passed Away at St. Thomas.
The death occurred in St. Thomas, on Sunday, of Mrs. Susan Hepburn Duffon, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hepburn. She was fifty-nine years of age and a sister of Mrs. J. C. Ponsford, the Warden's Residence, Portsmouth. The funeral was held on Tuesday.

Contralto Solist III.
Owing to the illness of Miss Myrtle Stagg, the contralto recitative and arioso, "But the Lord is Mindful of His Own" will be sung by Miss Pearl Nesbitt, organist and choir leader of Queen street church, at the Kingston Choral Society's rendering of Mendelssohn's "St. Paul" at Great Hall tonight.

To Banquet Mr. McMillan.
Tonight in Belleville, J. D. McMillan, superintendent of the Central Division, C.N.R., is to be banqueted on the occasion of completing fifty years of service. Sir Henry Thornton and other high officials of the railway will be present and make addresses. The event promises to be a notable one with over one hundred in attendance.

Snowy End to March.
The month of March failed to live up to its reputation this year and as a result the populace suffered both coming and going. It has long been a tradition that if March comes in mildly it will adopt a stormy guise for its exit and vice versa. This year, however, the weatherman double-crossed long-suffering humanity, and the winds blew and snow swirled round both on the first and last day of the month. It would seem that he could not wait until April 1st to have his joke.

A Native of Kingston.
C. W. Yarker, manager of the Bank of Montreal at Woodstock, has resigned after forty-one years of service. He is a native of Kingston. For twenty-five years he was in the head office of the Molson's Bank at Montreal, and was manager at Brockville for eight years before going to Woodstock.

No Mail Delivery Friday.
There will be no mail delivery on Good Friday but there will be two mail collections. The registry and general delivery departments will be open from eight till ten o'clock in the morning, and the lobby will be open all day for box holders. Mail will be delivered twice on Saturday and once on Easter Monday.

Held Final Meeting.
The class of Arts '27 of Queen's University, held their final meeting for this term this afternoon. A feature of the meeting was "A Peep into the Future," by Miss K. Whitton, the prophetess of the year. The prophecies were illustrated with blackboard sketches. Miss Betty Murray gave a short talk on "Our Year as Foyessa," and Mr. Charles McCutcheon delivered the oration.

The Late Gilbert McClymont.
Ottawa Journal: Gilbert McClymont, secretary of the Ottawa Board of Health, who has been removed suddenly by death was a most conscientious and hard-working civic servant. In his newspaper days he was known not as a brilliant writer but as an indefatigable chaser of "stories." He flung his net wide and harvested many "scoops."

P.W.O.R. Training Begins.
The training season of the P.W.O.R. will commence Monday night next, and the first night will be taken up principally with the issuing of uniform. All the N.C.O.'s and recruits will report to the company commanders to receive their instructions the first night, and on Friday, April 9, the training will begin and continue on the regular drill nights.

The Easter Holidays.
No Easter holiday will be observed at the University, with the exception of Good Friday. The R.M.C. will close at noon on Thursday, and the cadets will report again at 7 p.m. on Tuesday. St. Mary's Separate school, Notre Dame convent and Regopolis College close at 4 p.m. on Wednesday, and will remain closed during Easter week. The public schools of the city and the Collegiate Institute close at 4 p.m. on Thursday and remain closed until April 12th.

Mission at St. George's.
St. George's cathedral was filled on Tuesday evening when Rev. C. Ensor Sharp, Toronto, continued the mission services of Holy Week. "Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends," quoted the missionary, still dwelling on the friends of the Christ who come into the great story of this week and who have their counterpart in the men and women of today. Christ called even Judas, who betrayed him "Friend" as he greeted him in the garden when he came to betray Him. It is only our friends who can hurt us by their disloyalty and those friends for whom Christ died caused and still cause Him agony. They too can give Him joy by their loyalty as did the dying thief who turned to Him in faith and received the assurance from the Lord, dying for the friends who had forsaken him. "Today thou shalt be with Me in Paradise."

Good Friday afternoon at 3.30, recital St. Andrew's Church. Announcement is made of the resignation of C. W. Yarker, manager of the Bank of Montreal at Woodstock, after forty-one years of service in the Molsons and, after amalgamation, in the Woodstock bank. Pineapples at Carnovsky's.

EASTER FASHIONS AT LAIDLAW'S

The most entrancing collection of Easter wear we have shown

A Great Showing of SPRING COATS

Newest Coats in Cape style (some with Cape detachable) and straight line models; chic with pleats and embroideries. Others undeniably English, in their trim, mannish lines — their swagger Tweeds of Heath. Covert and moorland colors in individual models that have come across the waters to us for our Easter showing. In Women's and Misses' sizes from 14 to 44.

$15 to $50

PIQUANT FROCKS

Simple but just the type of Frocks that every one can wear. One piece Dresses in many chic styles, with the pleatings that is the newest thing that Fashion knows.

They have originality, and charm — they have those deft, little touches that add quaintness. The pipings, or effective touches of embroidery, and best of all the materials are worthy of the styles.

$15 to $45

The Easter Scarf

Must be bright and flowerlike in appearance, of the softest and sheepest of material, reflecting the spirit of Easter. The new modernistic designs in Crepe de Chene or Georgette are so chic.
