WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

WESTBROOK.

In Westbrook hall on Tuesday evening, March 30th, the Women's Institute held an interesting meeting. A short business session was held at eight o'clock by the members. By a unanimous vote it was decided to take ten dollars from our funds to pay the premium on the insurance policy. After much discussion it concluded to wait and see whether we shall increase our proposed gift of $4.65 towards sun-room furnishing of Kingston General Hos-

Through Mrs. A. W. Sirett we received at this gathering the seeds sent out by the District Institute. Arrangements were made for distributing these seeds amongst members with a view to competing at the Kingston Industrial Exhibition next September. Prize lists setting forth possibilities of success were distributed and we hope for enthusiany drug store, and a rew ounces astic work in this new field of enfor deavor. For this W.I. meeting the husbands of members had prepared the programme. A spelling match was the first number and proved very interesting to those who took part as well as to those who declined to do so. Two men held out remark-Mrs. George A. Brown, Johnson hair dries quickly and evenly, and is ably well but were finally beaten by soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, Miss M. Traverner and the president.

Appetizing refreshments had been provided by members and were served by the men. Such a treat it was to have this task assumed by our lords and masters. After refreshments a few games of cards were played by those who did not need to go home early. Altogether this men's meeting of the W.I. was considered a success and a great relief to the hard-working all-the-year-round membership.

W. A. Diocesau Board.

The diocesan president of the Woman's Auxiliary, Mrs. Havelock Price, was warmly welcomed back after her illness at the April meeting of the diocesan board held in St. George's Hall on Monday afternoon. The representatives present represented fifty-four out-of-town branches. It was announced that Bishop. Lucas, formerly of the diocese of Mackenzie River, and Rev. R. M. Millman, Japan, would be the speakers at the annual meeting to be held in St. Peter's parish, Brockville, on April 27th, 28th and 29th. Votes of sympathy were sent to Mrs. H. Youlden, on the death of her sister, Mrs. Abernethy, Rev. A. H. Creeggan, on the death of Mrs. Creeggan and Mrs. W. H. Dalby on the death of her mother, Mrs. Briggs. Miss Elizabeth Sutherland, treasurer of St. George's branch, was warmly welcomed as a life member.

A new branch has been formed in Cardinal, Grenville deanery, of which Mrs. Kingston is president. The Dorcas secretary reported twenty and a half bales valued at $411 sent to the mission field. The convener of the thank offering committee sent out 112 boxes and 130 wrappers.

that is making arrangements for the meeting of the Dominion executive to be held in Kingston next week are Mrs. W. E. Kidd and Mrs. H. P. Lowe. Mrs. Kidd will entertain the delegates at her house at luncheon on Wednesday. April 14th. The branches heard from were Lyndhurst, Adolphustown, Delta, herst Island, Newburgh, Came

East and Bath. Mrs. H. F. Geary, who will spen some time in England is resigning her office of secretary to the great regret of the board. Letters were read from the hospital committee thanking them for flowers and visits.

The Editor Hears

That St. George's Mission Sunday school children, of whom there are over 150, were brought up to the cathedral on Easter Day for the children's service at 3 o'clock when the scholars of the George's Sunday school marched into the church to see it in its festive dress for the festival of the Risen Christ. Great white lilies clustered around the brass altar cross, the same cross that came through the fire of New Year's Day, 1900. Lilies were with the pink tulips in the brass vases of the reredos, more lilies in pots were lifting their snowy heads from the banks of ferns, roses and primulae on the chancel steps. Daffodils banked the pulpit, given some years ago by the children of St. George's Sunday school many of whom were in the huge congregations that fillel the cathedral at the services on Easter Day and the fost, where most of them were baptized, was decked with flowers.

street cars on the near side of the crossing is suitable on most of the streets, but on Barrie street where the car turns onto Union street, the passengers find themselves let off where there is no walk and have to cross the street to reach one.

That the old saying "Early Easter, early spring" was contradicted this year. Easter is only fairly early, but the signs of spring are few. Except for the arrival of some courageous and optimistic birds and the pretty hats and frocks in the shop windows, we might be in the middle of February. On Easter Monday, the Wolfe Island farmers were drawing loads of hay across the

Strained Nerves are Starved Nerves

SOMETIMES we feel utterly incapable of further mental or physical effort; sometimes we feel irritable or depressed. In either case our nerves are strained and starved. This condition is due to an insufficient supply of those food elements which renew and restore the nerve tissues.

"Ovaltine" is used the world over to restore starved nerves. It provides a healthful, natural way of restoration. This delicious food beverage is an unique concentration of the vitalizing and-energizing elements of ripe barley malt, creamy milk, fresh eggs and cocoa. It is assimilated without digestive effort and immediately imparts vitality and energy to the nervous system.
