CITY AND DISTRICT

Goes to Peterboro.
Rev. Dr. W. T. G. Brown, pastor of Sydenham street United church, will preach anniversary sermons in St. James' United church at Peterboro on Sunday.

Spent Holidays at Raitton.
Miss M. C. O'Brien, principal of the Stella C.S., spent the Easter holidays at her home in Raitton, and not at Stratford as stated in the Stella news.

Cars Ran All Night.
The street railway company operated a twenty-minute service all night on Wednesday night so as to keep the ice from forming on the rails and wire and tying up the service.

Elected as Councillor.
At the meeting of the Ontario Library Association in session at Toronto this week, Mrs. A. Kennedy, librarian of the Kingston Public Library, was elected as a councillor.

To Attend Funeral.
Magistrate J. W. Bradshaw left Thursday morning for Parham, where he will attend the funeral of his sister-in-law, Mrs. W. D. Burrows. The late Mrs. Burrows was before her marriage Elizabeth Stinson.

Made Trip April 7.
The steamer Wauvic of the Rockport Navigation Company made her first trip of the season in 1925 one year ago Wednesday. The harbor was clear of ice and the steamer had no trouble in making the trip to Cape Vincent. The harbor had been open since March 18.

Funeral of Mrs. Hopkinson.
The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Hopkinson took place from the residence of her son, James Hopkinson, 109 1-2 York street, on Tuesday morning to St. Mary's cathedral where a solemn requiem mass was sung by Rev. Father Leacy. The pallbearers were James Hopkinson, William Hopkinson, Earl Eves, John Gallivan and Captain W. A. Tullock.

Funeral of John Asseltine.
The funeral of the late John Asseltine took place on Thursday afternoon from his late residence, 254 Alfred street to Cataract cemetery, where the remains were placed in the vault to await burial. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. W. T. G. Brown of Sydenham street

United Church. The pallbearers were Fred Briggs, W. M. Campbell, W. H. Dalby, W. H. Hughes, William Pillar and A. E. Sedgewick.

Death of Old Time Resident.
The death occurred on Wednesday, at Pasadena, Calif., of Mrs. Richard Mackay, aged ninety years. She was a former resident of Pembroke, Mrs. Mackay and her husband, who predeceased her by many years, conducted the Mackay House there for a long period and were highly esteemed residents. She is survived by three daughters and three sons.

Offered to Provide Site.
M. J. O'Brien wired from San Diego, California to the Rentrow council offering a free site on Raglan street, almost in the heart of the town, for the erection of a hospital to replace the one destroyed by fire on January 14th last. The property offered consists of four vacant lots, two fronting on Raglan street and two fronting on Anne street, and located between what is known as "the triplet houses" and the Vice block. The council wired back thanks.

To Revisit Pembroke.
H. R. Rankin, Pembroke, some forty-two years ago left for the United States and never communicated with the twelve members of his family. Recently he wrote the postmaster at Pembroke enquiring about his relatives. He is now eighty-four years of age. The postmaster found that W. D. Morrison, harness maker, was a nephew and he wrote his uncle who hopes to visit Pembroke soon. He had sold his business and was settling matters in anticipation of his visit to his former home.

Holstein Breeders' Sale.
Mr. David Goodfellow and Mr. Wagar of Parham bought three head of pure-bred Holstein cattle between them at the Belleville and district Holstein Breeders' sale on Wednesday. Among the others from this district who attended the sale were Mr. James Henderson, Sr., Mr. James Henderson, Jr., Mr. D. C. Rogers, Mr. J. J. Wilmot, Mr. Ray Baker, Mr. David Baker and Mr. A. W. Sirett, agricultural representative for this county. Baker Bros. of Portsmouth offered some of their cattle at this sale and disposed of a number of head.

THE BOYS' SUPPER GIVEN AT Y.M.C.A.

By the Mothers' Council— Sing-song and Addresses Were Enjoyed.

About seventy-five boys were present at the Y.M.C.A. Wednesday evening for the annual supper provided by the Mothers' Council of the "Y." Mr. M. W. Harlowe presiding. The boys were arranged in four groups: the intermediates, junior school, juniors for employed, and the comers, at tables daintily laid out by the ladies. A sing song was held, led by Mr. Harry Underwood, and vocal solos were rendered by Messrs. Harry Underwood and Ross Burke and very much enjoyed.

Mr. P. H. Brockell, physical instructor of the "Y," gave a short outline of what is planned for the entertainment of the boys this coming summer, and Mr. M. W. Harlowe spoke on the boys' camp, which will be held at Eagle Lake, near Parham. Mr. Harlowe mentioned the success of the camp last season, and the very enjoyable time spent by the boys there. It is expected that a larger number will take advantage of the splendid opportunity for camping and attend this coming summer. Mr. Reginald Hannah rendered a very fine kazoo solo.

A vote of thanks to the Mothers' Council for their interest and entertainment was moved by Freeman Waugh and seconded by George Pyke.

WINNERS OF SHIELD WERE BANQUETED

"C" Company Entertained by the P.W.O.R. Wednesday Night.

The members of "C" Company, P.W.O.R., which won the shield presented by the Canadian Infantry Association for Military District No. 3 for tactical manoeuvres under service conditions, were banqueted at the Belmont Cafe on Wednesday night by the Regiment in honor of having won the coveted shield. It will be recalled that "C" Company won the honors some time ago and the shield was presented last night to the Company. Company "C," which won the shield, brought great honor to their regiment and distinguished themselves by coming through the tests with great success. In 1922, 1924 and 1925 "C" Company won the Regiment shields as well.

At the dinner last night, short addresses were given by Colonel Sparks, Major Goodwin, Major Bawden, Major D'Esterre and C. S. M. Murchie. It was a jolly gathering and congratulations were showered on the company for having won the shield and brought honor to themselves and their regiment.

DAILY MEMORANDUM.
