ADMITTED SELLING LIQUOR IN KINGSTON

William Woodruff Fined $400 and Costs in Police Court Saturday.

On a charge of selling liquor without a license, on or about January 16th, William Woodruff was on Saturday morning, fined $400 and costs or three months, and, in addition to this, was sentenced to three months in jail. On a charge of disobeying a summons, he was given an additional month, this to run concurrently with the other sentence.

Woodruff was summoned to appear before the magistrate some time ago, but skipped out. He was located in Ottawa, and on Friday, on being discharged from an Ottawa hospital, he was taken into custody by Provincial Constable Maclachlan and brought to Kingston. He pleaded guilty to selling the liquor. The charge was laid by License Inspector William McCammon, and C. R. Webster was on hand to conduct the prosecution.

Premier Briand and the Spanish Ambassador, Count Quinones de Leon, conferred regarding methods of opening peace negotiations with Abd-El-Krim, provided the Riffian chief seriously desires peace parleys.

DEATHS.

JONES — In Kingston on April 9th, 1926, Sophia Jones, widow of the late Thomas A. Jones, aged 71 years.

Funeral from Mr. Joseph McBride's residence, 562 Princess Street on Monday afternoon at 2.00 o'clock to Cataraqui Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of the late Herbert Freeman, Godfrey, who went to be with Jesus April 10th, 1925.

Gone from our midst in the prime of his life,
Gone from his home, and his dearly loved wife,
Long he'll be missed by the hearts bowed in sorrow,
Yet hoping to meet in a better to-morrow.
Rest! Bert, with beauties of Heaven about thee,
Rest! though our lives will be lonely without thee,
Rest with thy kindred, that passed on before,
Where sickness ne'er enters, and parting is o'er.

—Sadly missed by his wife.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. Patrick Fallon, 23 Redan Street, wish to thank the House of Providence Sisters and their many friends for their kind expressions of sympathy; also for the many spiritual and floral offerings received on the death of their beloved mother.
