AUNT HET

"It's easy to manage a husband if you get one big enough so he's ashamed to act the baby."

The Diplomat. "Did you make these biscuits, my dear?" "Yes, darling."

"Well, I would prefer that you wouldn't make any more."

"Why not, dear?" "Because, angel, you're too light for such heavy work."—Masonic Craftsman.

The Editor Hears

That during the past week in Montreal and in Toronto, many of the foremost men and women of Canada have gathered to make plans for the future of the Canadian child. To make the men and women who will further develop this great country such citizens as will develop it along the best lines, who will be strong mentally and physically, who will have a wide outlook and yet cling to the faith and the standards of the British race, is the earnest hope of the people who with the desire to really help in the future of Canada and with a deep knowledge of the child and its needs, spent their holiday time in conference. But what of the parents of the children for whom these plans are made? Do they co-operate in the fullest measure with the boards of education and the teachers? It is a question they should seriously ask themselves.

That a proposal to have a "British Empire Shopping Week" is the proposal submitted to the women of the empire by Lady Cowan, president of the Women's British Empire Patriotic League. Australia is taking up the proposal enthusiastically and Lady Cowan, speaking recently in Toronto, brought the subject before the National Executive of the I.O.D.E. that met in Toronto last week. Lady Cowan believes that the best celebration that can mark Empire Day is a "Made in the Empire" parade.

That Mrs. L. F. Goodwin, who is a portrait painter of unusual ability who has had excellent advantages, has allowed the public to see a portrait of the late Right Hon. Sir Richard Cartwright, G.C.M.G., P.C., painted from a miniature with the assistance of a photograph; a portrait of a lady and two miniatures of children, one her own small daughter, painted on ivory. The pictures are in the window of the Kirkpatrick Art Gallery and have already been greatly admired. The treatment of the subject is most admirable, the backgrounds are original and effective and the likeness and delicate flesh-tints a triumph of art. Mrs. Goodwin is the wife of Dr. Goodwin of Queen's University.

exactly as for the pictures. Window shades, the ordinary holiday variety as well as the recently featured linen and crocheted kind, may be washed with great satisfaction. Spread the shade over a flat surface, rub it briskly with a sponge dipped frequently in suds. Rub off the suds with a soft cloth, rinse with clear water and dry thoroughly. Do first one side, then the other. If they are very dirty waxed floors may be washed quickly with a light lukewarm suds. After a thorough rinsing and drying with a soft cloth fresh wax should be rubbed thoroughly into the surface.

Women's Lives

are relieved of a great hygienic handicap in this way. Positive protection—discards like tissue

THERE is now a new way in woman's hygiene. A way scientific and exquisite that ends the uncertainty of old-time "sanitary pads." It is called "KOTEX." Eight in every 10 better-class women have adopted it.

You wear sheer frocks and gowns without a second thought, any time, anywhere. You meet every day, every business or social demand unhandicapped.

NO LAUNDRY
Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment

Five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads, it banishes danger of mishaps.

Deodorizes, too. And thus ends ALL fear of offending.

You obtain it at drug or department stores simply by saying "KOTEX." Women thus ask for it without hesitancy. Costs only a few cents for a package of 12.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Sunbury.
At the March meeting of the Sunbury Women's Institute the secretary read a letter from Mr. Angus McCallum, manager of the Sunbury senior hockey team, to Miss Eleanor Kells, the president of the Institute, thanking the ladies for their interest and for their kindness in giving an oyster supper for the team. A letter from Mr. John Mundell, manager of the junior hockey team, which expressed the thanks of the team for the interest and entertainment given them by the Institute, was also read. The hats made by the members of the millinery class conducted by Miss McDiarmid from the Department of Agriculture, were tried on and found to be most becoming. A paper was read on "The Value of Art in the Home" by Mrs. William Cooper.

Spring Soup.
For a new soup which holds the very essence of spring take two medium-sized carrots, a medium-sized white onion, a cup of medium white sauce, two tablespoonsful of butter, white pepper, two medium-sized potatoes, a cupful of small green peas, a pint of white stock, either veal or chicken, and salt. Cut the carrots and potatoes into very thin strips. Slice the onion and fry in butter until yellow. Cook carrots and potatoes and onions in boiling water. Cook peas in another vessel, uncovered. Combine the vegetables and add hot sauce and white stock. Salt and pepper to taste. Garnish with spoonfuls of whipped cream decorated with chopped parsley.

His Time Coming.
"Well, sir," asked the musician, "what do you think of my compositions?" "In all probability," replied the critic, "they will be played long after Beethoven and Wagner are forgotten."

"Really?"

"Yes, but not before."—Christian Science Monitor.

You spend 1/3 of your life on a spring—be sure of its comfort

You and everybody else spend one-third of your life in bed—more than 20 years on a bedspring. For the trifling sum of $12 you can be sure that every one of those long years will be spent in luxurious ease on a Slumber King.

No other steel fabric spring in Canada offers so much comfort at any price. Only Slumber King has patented construction that prevents sagging edges. No other joins its 26 ribbon steel strips with four rows of lively coils allowing them to conform to your body. Besides, Slumber King cannot tear the bedclothes and is easiest to keep clean.

See it at any furniture store in Canada. Apply the money it saves you towards the purchase of an Ostermoor. This finest white cotton felt mattress and greatest value in all the Dominion is sold everywhere at one low price, $25. Be sure to find the Ostermoor label.
