"NO, NO, NANETTE" COMING. "No. No. Nanette," the most pronounced musical comedy success ever recorded, comes to Kingston next Saturday when it will play an engagement at the Grand Theatre for two performances, matinee and night.

This sparkling Frazee musical play has risen to such triumphant records in all the leading amusement capitals of the world, from Chicago to London, from London to Australia, and from Australia home again to New York, that it now ranks as the outstanding musical comedy success of all time. In these and many other large cities it is still the reigning sensation, with audiences clamoring for seats month after month, until seems impossible to satisfy the d
