Was An Ex-Chairman.
The late A. R. Martin, who died in Toronto, on Tuesday, was an ex-chairman of the former Public School Board of Kingston.

Bank Clearings.
The figures of the Kingston Bankers' Clearing House are announced as follows: Week ending April 15th, $673,460; corresponding week, 1925, $739,433.

L. T. Best, Druggist.
Is giving away free with purchases of 25c. or over useful week-end packages containing face powder, face cream, tooth paste and soap.

New Prices for Ladies' Hats.
Starting April 15th, we will sell any Ladies' Colored Hat in our store for $3.98. All new goods this season. —Corrigan's.

Storm Delayed Work.
Outside repairs on the steamers in the harbor were held up on Friday on account of the bad weather. The snow storm will delay the repairs considerably.

Disagreeable Walking.
Overshoes, overcoats and other winter wearing apparel were again donned on Friday for the disagreeable weather. The walks of the city were very slushy as the result of the snow.

Openings in Harbor.
The channel made by Capt. Pyke with the tug Salvage Prince through the harbor is now clear of the ice, which has drifted below the causeway. Open water is in evidence in many places below the bridge.

Married in Brockville.
Miss Jessie McBroom, niece of Dr. J. A. McBroom, and graduate of the Brockville General Hospital Training School for Nurses, and Charles Heaslip well known merchant of Escott were married in Brockville on Wednesday.

Hard on Auto Drivers.
Drivers of cars experienced considerable trouble in keeping their wind shields clear of the snow during the day. The snow being damp, it would stick to the glass surface and obstruct the view of the drivers. The mechanical wind shield cleaners proved very valuable during the storm.

Fractured Arm.
Pearl Brown, four-year-old ward of the Children's Shelter was taken to the Belleville General Hospital suffering from a broken arm, the result of an accident when she fell from a step on which she was sitting. The child is a cripple, suffering from a diseased bone condition so that any slight jarring of her body may cause a broken bone. The distance of the fall was only about five inches.

Returned Home Wednesday.
The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Crawford, Division street, will be pleased to know that their son, Gordon Crawford, who has been seriously ill at the Kingston General Hospital for some time, was able to return home on Wednesday. Gordon Crawford is a student attending Queen's University.

Was Born Near Kingston.
Luke Graham, an old resident of Prescott, passed away Tuesday, after an illness of several months. The late Mr. Graham was born near Kingston seventy-two years ago, but had resided in Prescott many years. He was well known to the travelling public. He is survived by his widow and two sons, Henry and Aleck, Prescott.

Frontenac School Club.
The monthly meeting of Frontenac Home and School Club was held on Tuesday evening. Miss Saunders of St. Paul's Church kindly put on the programme for the evening, with a comedy entitled "Three in One," which was a great success. During the intermission, Miss E. Ashley gave a delightful dance. Candies were sold by Mrs. Gyanne and Mrs. Downs. On behalf of the club, Mrs. W. Marsh, the vice-president, tendered a vote of thanks to Miss Saunders and her efficient workers for making the evening a pleasant and profitable one. The evening closed with singing the National Anthem. Afterwards dainty refreshments were served to the artists by Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Marsh, Mrs. Parks and Mrs. Steacy.

The Late Mrs. J. J. Clarke
The friends in the township of North Fredericksburgh and in Napanee regret to learn of the death of Mrs. J. J. Clarke, which occurred at Napanee, on Tuesday last. Deceased had been in ill health for some time and owing to her advanced age of 76 years, little hope was held out for her recovery. Deceased and her late husband, who predeceased her a few months ago, were lifelong residents of the township of North Fredericksburgh, moving to Napanee a few years ago. She leaves to mourn her loss an only daughter, Mrs. Samuel Baird, with whom she resided.

Got Valuable Information.
"No other service club in this city can be of more real service than the Horticultural Society for its members can co-operate with other service clubs and make the city beautiful, and also free it from pests such as mosquitoes, moths and other winged creatures," said Professor W. T. McClelland of Queen's University, to the members of this thriving society in the City Hall, Belleville, on Tuesday evening before an audience that comfortably filled the auditorium. His address was the Ontario slides and those interested were able to take a great deal of information home with them.

Kingston's New Officer.
The Brockville Recorder-Times of Thursday has the following: "Provincial Constable G. V. Clubbe left this afternoon for Kingston to which city he has been transferred after being stationed in Brockville since December, 1924. During his stay in Brockville Constable Clubbe, through his gentlemanly character, has made many friends who regret his departure from town and wish him every success in the future. He has been a capable officer in every respect and always carried out his duties in an unoffensive manner and in a way that reflected creditably upon his tact and sense of fair play. His successor will be Simon J. Elliott, who for the past year has been stationed at Pembroke, and who recently took an active part in the investigation of the Billings and Stringer deaths, which occurred in the woods near Barry's Bay, Ont., early last January."

George Ham, noted humorist, author and C. P. R. publicity man, is dead in Montreal at the age of 79.
