What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

"NO, NO, NANETTE" TODAY It is welcome news that "No, No. Nanette" now the reigning sensation of New York, London and Australia, and which played to solid capacity for more than a year in Chicago and completely stole the hearts of Boston theatre-goers for seven months, as it did for twenty-seven weeks in Philadelphia, is booked for two performances at The Grand Theatre. today, "No. No. Nanette" with its famous song hits, "I Want to be Happy" and "Tea for Two," is an outstanding musical production.

The awakening of love carries her into womanhood, and as the stirrings of passion effect the transformation here strike the pangs of separation He love is torn from her.

Then she is a circus girl, a trapeze performer, clad in tights and spangles, tinseled ballet skirts and ornate wraps. Here she is a woman of the world, disillusioned, despairing, clutching at counterfeit love as she sighs for the true one lost. Then again she is a cripple, maimed by the act of a woman insane with jealousy. All of these chafacterizations would perhaps be simple enough to an actress of Miss Shearer's attainments when done singly, but linked in one picture and considering that they represent a fairly rapid transition their achievement is extraordinarily praiseworthy. Don't fail to see er's best.

Work on Farms.

Two young Irishmen arrived in Kingston this week, the first of large contingent of immigrants who landed at Halifax from the SS. Penland on April 12th. They were brought out by the colonization department of the C.N.R., and one was sent here to take a farm job, while the other accompanied him on speculation. The farmer who was to employ the one young man, decided that be wanted a man with more experience, so the men applied to the local employment office. They were both placed on farms. These two young men said that three others from their boat had also come to Kingston, but after sleeping for a night or two at the police station, had decided to go on to Toronto in search of employ-
