The Editor Hears

That Canadian women writers have lost a true friend in the passing of Col. George Ham. He arranged a trip for them to St. Louis Fair some years ago and sponsored the forming of the Canadian Women's Press Club. He saw that the women writers and black and white artists belonging to the club were taken every three years to their triennial meeting, and in 1923 when the meeting was held in Vancouver, B.C., was the life of the party. No luncheon of dinner was complete without "The Father of the Press Club," whose genial presence will be much missed at this year's gathering of the club which will be held in Toronto in June.

That the reduction and exemption of the income tax and the news that the old pre-war penny post is coming back has been one of the cheerful events of April.

That a New York Journalist who is a bit hard on the modern girl of 1926 says: "All that the modern girl knows about a needle is that you use it on a victrola."

That the golfers are thinking of golf and pay long visits to the club where a view of the open lake is encouraging and makes them think of the summer days spent on the links.

That Queen Mary knows her own mind and the dressmakers have to take orders from her. The dresses worn at the royal courts at Buckingham Palace this season must not be more than five inches from the ground. Many appeals have been made but the lord chamberlain has turned them down, feeling that sufficient consideration to present fashions has been given in the curtailment of trains which now must be 18 inches on the ground, instead of four yards.

MENUS.

Breakfast—Grape fruit sections, broiled bacon, poached eggs with sprinck on toast, rolled oats muffins, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Mock oyster cream soup, croutons, date graham bread and butter sandwiches, sliced oranges, milk, tea.

Dinner—Tomato bouillon, mock sausages, potatoes au gratin, buttered cauliflower, jellied fruit salad, rye bread, milk, coffee.

The date bread and butter sandwiches are served with the oranges suggested in the luncheon menu. The term "sliced" oranges is rather misleading since oranges properly prepared in this manner are not really sliced at all. The fruit is carefully peeled and then each section is freed from skin. These smooth sections of orange are the "slices."

Mock Oyster Cream Soup. One bunch parsley, 1 cup chicken or veal stock, 2 tablespoons butter,

Slumber King

Bed Spring $12.00

The finest steel fabric spring in all Canada, leads in value

There isn't any mystery about the superiorities of the Slumber King. It is more than a mere claim when we say it is the finest steel fabric spring in all Canada.

You can check its advantages yourself. Compare it with any other fabric spring built. See the four rows of sensitive coils joining its 26 flexible steel strips. That is why it conforms to your body, and allows two sleepers to rest in luxury without disturbing each other. Examine the construction that prevents sagging edges. Notice that no sharp edges protrude to tear bedclothes. Realize how easily it can be kept clean.

With all its exclusive advantages, Slumber King is sold by all furniture stores in Canada at the surprisingly low price of $12. Certainly this is the spring you want and need.

Complete your comfort with an OSTERMOOR

A fitting companion to the Slumber King. Unequaled by any other white cotton felt mattress in Canada for more than 30 years. One quality, the best; one maker, Simmons Limited; one price, the lowest at which so fine a mattress can be sold... $25 Beware of imitations. Look for the Ostermoor label.
