not until we perfected "ironized yeast"—which comes in concentrated tablet form, was it possible to take yeast and iron in the right proportions to build up weight. Vegetable "Iron" when combined with yeast is quite easy to digest, therefore better for the system. And "yeast" when ironized, becomes just twice as beneficial as ordinary fresh or cake yeast. Ironized Yeast tablets are composed of concentrated food elements, therefore, they are pleasant to take and free from drug-like effects. If you are under weight, do not enjoy good health, lacking in energy and force, "ironized yeast" tablets will pick you right up, and if they fail, you get your money back. Sold by James B. McLeod and all good druggists at $1.00 for a large 60-tablet package. Harold F. Ritchie & Co., Ltd., Toronto, Canada.

Letter Tells of Wonderful Relief After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

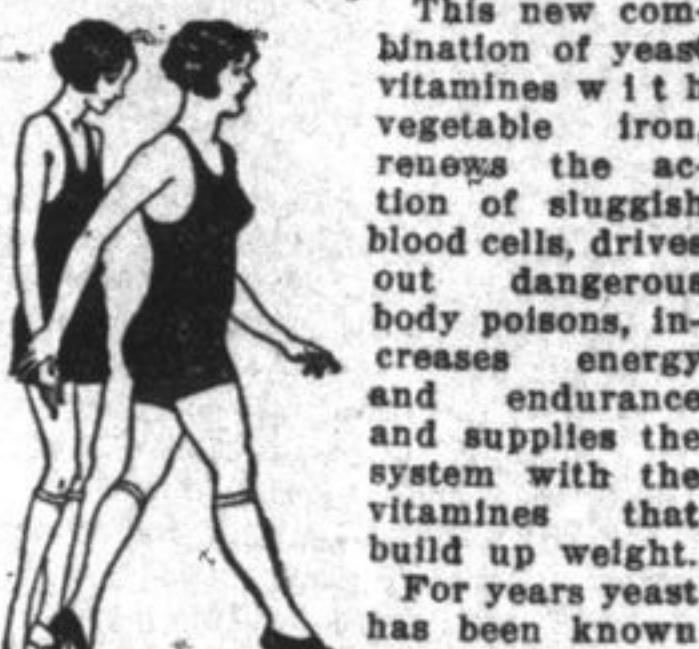

Coniston, Ontario. "After a severe operation and a three weeks' stay in a hospital I returned home so weak that I was unable to move a chair. For four months I was almost frantic with pains and suffering until I thought sure there would not be any help for me. That very severe pains in my left side and suffered agony every month. One day when I was not able to get up my mother begged me to try your medicine. My husband got me a bottle of Vegetable Compound at once and I took it. I started a second bottle, and to my surprise and joy the pains in my side left me completely and I am able to do all my work without help. I am a farmer's wife, so you see I can't be idle long. In all I have taken six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, five boxes of the Compound Tablets, two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine, and have also used the Sensitive Wash."—Mrs. L. L. Lussanzen, Box 308, Coniston, Ontario.

Presence of Mind. During the World War one of the great steamships that was used as a transport for soldiers was on her way across when a torpedo boat was sighted. In anticipation of the danger they were in, all on board were lined up on deck. There was a deathly hush for an instant, when suddenly from down the line a negro's voice rang out: "Is dar anybody heah dat wants to buy a gold watch and chain?"

Just What. Neither Sam nor Rastus could tell time. But Sam had a nice, big watch, which he exhibited with a fine air of superiority. "What time am it?" asked Rastus. Sam hesitated and then extended the timepiece. "Dar she am." Rastus looked at it carefully, and then said: "Darn if she ain't."

Easy to Gain With Yeast and Iron

WEDDINGS

Dumble-Speer Wedding. The marriage took place in Pittsburgh, Pa., on Wednesday last at the home of the bride's sister, Mr. T. Jones, III., of Mrs. Chas. E. Speer, Jr., Pittsburgh and Cobourg, to Col. Wilfrid Dumble, son of the late John Henry Dumble, Esq., former police magistrate, and Mrs. Dumble, Cobourg. The groom is a graduate of the Royal Military College, but has resided in England for some years. Col. and Mrs. Dumble are spending a few days at the bride's Cobourg home before going abroad to spend some months.

Clifford-Knowlton. The marriage was solemnized in St. Mary's Cathedral on Wednesday morning by Rev. Father Halligan, of Miss Clara Knowlton and Mr. John Clifford. The bride wore a pretty frock of blue crepe-de-chine and a grey hat. Her bridesmaid Miss Elsie Lawless was also in blue. The best man was Mr. Gus Murphy. A wedding breakfast was prepared at the home of Mrs. J. B. Lappan, Mack street, and afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Clifford left for Watertown, N.Y., the bride wearing a navy blue suit and a small hat. The young people will reside in Kingston.

AUNT HET

"I aim to do right; but if a man was to flirt with me, I'll bet I'd get so weak an' trembly I couldn't look mad."

Just What. Neither Sam nor Rastus could tell time. But Sam had a nice, big watch, which he exhibited with a fine air of superiority. "What time am it?" asked Rastus. Sam hesitated and then extended the timepiece. "Dar she am." Rastus looked at it carefully, and then said: "Darn if she ain't."

That a Kingston lady, with well-mannered children of her own, tells us the following story: One day this week she was passing from a shop into the street, and as she opened the door a young girl rushed in, making her hold the door open for her. After the ill-mannered girl had passed her, not even keeping to the right, the lady went out and was met by the mother of the girl whom her daughter had preceded into the shop. The mother, who knew better than her daughter, said: "Please excuse my daughter, she is a very good girl, but she is ignorant enough to say to older people whom they know 'Miss'—is speaking" when telephoning. Some things our mother taught us may be considered old-fashioned but good morals and good manners, the good manners founded on kindly consideration for others, always remain the same.

That this is "Save-the-Forest Week." It is the duty of every Canadian to save our splendid forests, but unfortunately every year a dreadful toll is taken from them by sheer carelessness. The fire not quite put out by the picnickers, the cigar carelessly thrown down, are responsible for serious fire losses. The children in the schools are taught to guard against fire in their homes and in camps, but children soon forget school lessons not emphasized at home, so parents should help to keep before the minds of their children the necessity for carefulness with fire.

That writing from Paris, Mrs. Julia Henshaw, observes: "Le Tah-Hou is not a dental cream, nor yet a new cocktail, but just the latest and most fashionable game played in Paris in place of mah jong. A curious mixture of chess-moves played with mah jong tiles on a checkered board, it possesses many attractive qualities." At any rate it will be a way to utilize mah jong sets when the popularity of the game wanes.

That the Navy League banquet held in the King Edward, Toronto, was a brilliant event of this week. It was held in memory of the glorious Zebrugge achievement. A special table was arranged for the Silver Cross mothers of the G. W. V. A. and all societies and organizations were represented down to the smallest Boy Scout.

That the sight of the steamer Wolfe Islander was a welcome one to the residents of Wolfe Island, who have had a long period of difficult and unsafe crossing. In a few days the harbor will be clear of ice and the sound of the boat whistles will be heard once more.

The travelers' tree is a palm, so called because the traveler can get cool water to drink by tapping the base of the leaf stalk. It is all well enough to call a spade a spade, but there are times when it should be done in a whisper.
