WHAT DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH IS DOING

Hon. D. Forbes Godfrey Says 800 Kept Alive by Free Insulin.

Toronto, April 26.—Hon. Dr. Forbes Godfrey, Ontario minister of health and labor, described in an interesting manner the work of the Ontario department of health, before the West York Conservative Association at Mimico Saturday afternoon.

He showed that the department is trying to do its work by education, not by regulation, or legislation, and is paying big dividends on the investment, in combating tuberculosis, diabetes and other dread diseases.

"When one considers the economic importance of this piece of health work, one will not ask the question, does public health pay? As a concrete instance of the financial returns from the public health work of this province consider tuberculosis," said Dr. Godfrey.

"In the past fifteen years, the death rate from tuberculosis in Ontario has dropped over 40 per cent., and why? Sanatorium treatment, which is simply education in health habits and in the use of the four cardinal health accessories, fresh air, sunshine, food and rest. Education of the patient in how to protect others in his neighborhood, and so to keep down the number of infected contacts, and third, education of those exposed, or in contact with a patient, teaching them how to protect themselves. Early detection of the disease; early diagnosis and early treatment.

Effect Big Saving.

Now for the financial side: At the present time, Ontario is paying one and a half million dollars directly chargeable to tuberculosis and made up of grants to sanatoria; payment for patients in sanatoria and mothers' allowance in cases of husbands incapacitated or deceased from tuberculosis. Were our status with respect to tuberculosis the same now as it was fifteen years ago, we would be paying at the very least 40 per cent. more than a million and a half dollars — namely $600,000. The total annual appropriation of the health department is $672,000. Does public health pay? And is the department of health paying a substantial dividend on the investment the province is making in connection therewith.

Benefits of Insulin.

As a physician, I very well remember the time when the doctor had to go down into his own pocket in the case of a poor patient, and pay $7 or $8 for a dose of anti-toxin. Often, too, this was delayed, the delay costing the life of the patient. Now, the same amount of anti-toxin costs the province of Ontario about $1. It costs the physician and the patient, personally, nothing. It is administered early, and the saving of life is enormous. In the same way the free distribution of insulin has more than justified itself. We are spending approximately $35,000 a year on insulin, and we are maintaining alive and well between 800 and 900 good citizens of this province, the great majority of whom would be utterly unable to provide insulin for themselves would go down as a result of diabetes. The cost of insulin has been reduced to the department to 45 cents per 100 units. The present average annual cost per patient is in the neighborhood of $40. It is worth every cent of this, multiplied many times, to maintain this group, many of whom are bread-winners, so that they may keep in good health, support themselves and their families and prevent themselves and their families from being a public charge.

Across Canada and Back.

Marvelous beyond conception insight describes the glories of Canada's Rockies. To be fully appreciated they must be seen. To start out on a trip by one's self into this unfamiliar but far-famed paradise-on-earth, to many appears quite a task. Realizing this, Dean Sinclair Laird, of Macdonald College, an experienced Rocky Mountains traveler, for the third year in succession, has undertaken to conduct a party through this glorious wonderland.

A special train of dining, standard sleeping, and observation compartment cars has been chartered, to leave Toronto on July 19th via the Canadian Pacific Railway. Stops will be made at Port Arthur and Fort William, which together form Canada's greatest grain port; Winnipeg Beach, the popular summer resort for Winnipeggers; Winnipeg, Canada's third largest city; Indian Head, the chief tree distributing centre of the Federal Forestry Branch; Regina, the capital of Saskatchewan; Calgary, Alberta's largest city; Banff, the world-famous mountain resort; by automobile for 104 miles over the Banff-Wilderness Highway, the most spectacular drive in Canada; through Kootenay Lake to Nelson, the commercial centre of Southern British Columbia; then through the Doukhobor country to Penticton; along lovely Okanagan Lake, and to Vancouver, thence by steamer to Victoria.

Returning, the trip will be by the main line of the Canadian Pacific, through the great canyons of the Fraser and Thompson Rivers, and through the Selkirk, and Rockies, affording scenery such as can be found nowhere else on earth: Lake Louise, the Pearl of the Rockies, the most perfect gem of scenery on the world; another day at Banff, Edmonton, the Capital of Alberta; Saskatoon, the city of optimism; Devils Gap Camp, on the Lake of the Woods, near Kenora, thence to Fort William, where one of the fine Canadian Pacific steamers will be used across Lakes Superior and Huron to Fort McNeill, then rail to Toronto, where the trip will terminate.

The trip is open to all, and applications for accommodation, are being received.

Fares from other points than Toronto will be named, and descriptive illustrated booklet sent on application to Dean Sinclair Laird, Macdonald College Post Office, Que.

"All Canada Day" will be celebrated for a short time in history at foreign trade convention opening in Charleston, S.C., on April 28th.
