Fred Bentley, One of Napanee's Popular Athletes, Moves to Iroquois Falls.

Napanee, April 26-On Sunday morning the Odd Fellows lodges No. 86 and 212, and also the Queen of Sheba Rebekah lodge, attended divine service in St. Andrew's United Church, in commemoration of the one hundred and seventh anniversary of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Rev. A. J. Wilson delivered a very appropriate sermon. The choir was composed of twentyfive brother Odd Fellows. Bro. Reginald Wiseman sang very acceptably, "There is a Land Mine Eye Hath Seen." Despite the inclement weather the church was filled to capacity.
