Kanamori.
Hear Japanese Evangelist, Tuesday, 8 p.m., St. James' church hall.

Was Soloist in Chalmers.
Miss Lottie Sanders was soloist in Chalmers' Church on Sunday morning and rendered with marked effect the recitative and solo, "Peace Be With You."

Another Cool Spell.
Judging by the weather on Monday morning, April has a good "kick" left. After a few days of warm weather citizens were of the opinion that spring had arrived.

Committed for Trial.
At Gananoque, on Wednesday, Michael Walsh and his wife, Mabel Walsh, were committed for trial on charges of perjury. They were granted bail on each furnishing sureties of $1,000.

Safe-Blowers Make Haul.
Safe-blowers visited Campbellford early on Thursday entering Davidson's garage, where motor licenses are issued, secured a large sum in money and cheques, and made a clean get-away.

Arrested After Years.
William Baldwin, wanted since 1924 for assault, was arrested at Marlbank, on April 15th, by Provincial Officer D. B. Wagar, Enterprise, and brought to Napanee, where he will appear before Police Magistrate G. F. Ruttan, to answer to said charge.

A Severe Sufferer.
S. G. Hogle, Violet East, is doing as well as can be expected. About sixteen months ago Mr. Hogle suffered the amputation of one of his legs, from gangrene, and a couple of weeks ago had to have the other leg amputated.

Died at Newburgh.
Mrs. Mary Carter, respected resident of Newburgh, passed away, Wednesday, after a few days' illness. Her daughter, Mrs. Mitchell, Toronto, was hastily summoned and arrived on Tuesday to be with her mother in her last hours.

Visited in Kingston.
Sir Alexander Bertram, who died in Montreal on Saturday, was in Kingston last fall and took part in a dinner given him by the Engineering Society of Queen's University. He made many warm friends on that occasion.

To Speak in Ottawa.
Col. Alexander Macphail, C.M.G., D.S.O., professor of engineering at Queen's University, will be in Ottawa at the end of the week, and on Saturday evening will deliver an address at the annual meeting of Queen's alumni.

Will Build Church.
The congregation of Westminster church, Smith's Falls, has definitely decided to build a church and school-room on property in Beckwith street where an excavation already exists. The building will be of limestone and is expected to cost in the neighborhood of $75,000.

Opening the Season of Navigation.
The Rockport Navigation Co., Ltd., will open season of navigation between Kingston and Cape Vincent, N.Y., Monday, April 26th. Daily, except Sunday, leaving Kingston 8 a.m., returning leave Cape Vincent 2.30 p.m. Subject to change without notice. Phone 2195.

It Never Materialized.
Here's what we read of twenty-five years ago in the Perth Courier: Kingston has a scheme to draw electric power from the Mississippi river, sixty miles away. The head of the big falls is eighty feet, and the power so given is calculated at 5,000 horse-power.

Time for High Water.
The two branches of the Tay river at Perth are at present overflowing their banks and the two dams are being put to a severe test. Most of the boat-houses are submerged, some of them half way to the roof and the water in the basin on Thursday was within a few inches of the top of the wharf.

Died From Infection.
John L. Backus, aged fifty-five years, a resident of Brownville, N.Y., died in hospital on Thursday night, from infection of the toe and sugar diabetes. He was born in Sydenham, Ont., a son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Backus. He was employed in the Brownville Paper Mills.

Ran Into Hotel.
About three o'clock on Monday morning, a car travelling south left the highway at Spencerville, and crashed into the hotel, knocking down a verandah post, breaking several windows and smashing the front door. The car was badly wrecked and one of its occupants had his head severely cut.

The Messenger at Marlbank.
The messenger of death called away Robert Kirk, Marlbank, on Thursday evening. He had been an old resident there for many years. In his old age he lived with his daughter, Mrs. Gilbert Brown. He leaves his daughter and one son, Samuel, who lives on the old homestead, at Témworth.

Died at Elphin.
At the advanced age of ninety years and five months Mr. John Miller, for sixty-four years a well-known and prosperous farmer and drover of Elphin, passed away at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McGregor at Balderson on April 15th, Mrs. McGregor being one of the three daughters of deceased.

Large Extra-mural Lists.
It was announced at Queen's University this morning that extra-mural registration during the winter had totalled 865. There have been 660 applications in the Spring in extra-mural work, the applications having closed on April 10th.

Giving to God's Cause.
Rev. Dr. W. T. G. Brown preached an effective sermon in Sydenham street United Church, on the monetary support of the church. The consecration of the money of a Christian determined his religious convictions to a marked degree. Conscientious giving was an act of worship.

Missing From Lyn.
Mrs. Murrell, Lyn, has requested the police to assist her in searching for her son, aged eleven years, who left his home on Tuesday. He is described as being of a dark complexion, has brown hair, wore brown corduroy trousers, a brown sweater, fawn coat, black shoes and stockings.

Highway Officials Here.
Mr. W. H. Brown and Mr. M. Wood of the Department of Highways, Toronto, were at the Court House on Monday morning for a conference with County officials with regard to making the general system uniform. Mr. Brown and Mr. Wood were in conference with Road Superintendent Fair, Warden C. J. Graham of Kingston Township and County Treasurer Frank Purdy.

Wounds Made by a Dog.
E. Warner, caretaker of the club house, Point Anne, is recovering from the accident. He was destroying a dog and the shot not taking instant effect, the animal turned on him. Mr. Warner was bitten in eleven places about the right forearm and left hand and it was only the speed in which medical assistance was rendered that saved Mr. Warner from dangerous infection which might have resulted from so many wounds.

The Late W. W. Howell.
Wellington Wesley Howell, a retired farmer and bachelor, and a native of Prince Edward county, his parents being of U.E.L. extraction, passed away at the home of Mrs. Mary Spencer, Belleville, on Thursday evening. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Griffith Howell, born in 1850 and the last surviving member of a family of six sons and one daughter. For years he successfully carried on farming in Prince Edward.

Boys Gather Garbage Cans.
Apparently some boys, with the spring feeling decided to exercise their limbs by collecting garbage cans. A lady informed The Whig by telephone on Monday morning that a collection of garbage cans had been placed outside No. 69 Upper William street, a vacant house. Any persons residing in that district who have missed their garbage cans may find the missing utensils among this collection.

Body Recovered.
On Saturday the bodies of Eugene Ellsworth and Bernard Broyn, drowned December 19th last, were recovered from the Belleville harbor at a spot about one hundred feet from the place where the little fellow sank. W. R. Brown, Bernard's father, hastened to the spot and was present when the little forms were taken from the water. Adjutant Ellsworth was notified of the recovery of his child's body and will arrive in the city from London, Ont., where he is stationed.

Death of Reuben B. Hubbs.
Reuben B. Hubbs, Prince Edward county, passed to his reward early on Friday. Deceased was born and raised on the homestead on the second concession of Ameliasburg, seventy-nine years ago. He was an Anglican, a member of Lake Lodge A.F. and A.M., and a staunch Conservative. He leaves a wife, seven sons, R. C. Ameliasburg; C. S. Alberta; G. M. Winnipeg; W. B. Toronto; E. M. Belleville; A. D. Saskatchewan, and H. C. Toronto, also one daughter, Mrs. A. L. Porter, Toronto.

OBITUARY

Mrs. James V. McFadden.
Mrs. James Vincent McFadden, formerly Miss Ruth Coyne, passed away at the Hotel Dieu Hospital on Saturday morning after a short illness. The deceased was a well-known resident of this city and was predeceased by her husband by about two months. She is survived by five small children, three girls and two boys.

The funeral took place on Monday morning from her late residence, Patrick street, to St. Mary's Cathedral, where a solemn requiem mass was sung for the happy repose of her soul. Interment was made at St. Mary's cemetery.

Irving Berlin and the former Ellen Mackay, his wife, expect to go from Paris to London, shortly, where they will collaborate in writing a play.
London has report that South Africa is agitating for appointment of General Smuts as Governor-General, setting a precedent.

DAILY MEMORANDUM.
