Out of Step. The small-town band had just finished a selection more distinguished for vigor than harmony. As the musicians sat mopping their perspiring faces, after acknowledging the applause, the trombonist whispered hoarsely, "What's the next one?" "The Maiden's Prayer," replied the leader after glancing at his programme. "Some mistake!" exclaimed the trombonist, "That's just what I've been playing."

OFFICERS' REPORTS AT WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Of Ontario Diocese Read at the Thursday Session—Many Girls Attended.

(By Whig Staff Reporter) The Thursday morning session of the Diocesan Women's Auxiliary annual meeting opened in St. Peter's Hall, Brockville.

Miss Louise Kirkpatrick, Kingston, Dorcas secretary, read her report. The amount spent on church and hospital furnishings was $3,242.54 on special gifts $263.56 making a total for all Dorcas work $3,506, an increase over the previous year. The number of babies sent was 158; 47 outfits for boys and girls were sent to Indian schools.

Miss Van Straubenzee, the Girls' and Candidates' secretary, read an encouraging report of the year's work. The total amount of givings of the seventeen branches was $965.76. The Girls and Juniors are especially interested in sending outfits to Vera Kewattin, the daughter of a missionary, who is being educated by the W. A. The need of mission study and of leaders to carry on the work among the girls of the church was stressed by the secretary.

Miss Eleanor Reynolds, Brockville, who is the Little Helpers secretary of the diocese, read her report. The 668 little ones' mite boxes had yielded $202.68, a substantial increase over last year. Stirling has a new branch, and the Morvan branch has joined the branch at Hawley which has always been most generous. The banner branch is Christ Church, Belleville with a membership of 82.

Mrs. John Sibbit, Kingston, gave the report of "The Living Message." The number of copies of this, the organ of the W. A., taken in the diocese has gone over the thousand mark and the money received by the secretary amount to $759.27.

Mrs. H. P. Lowe, the secretary for Literature, read her short report. There is an increase in interest and in the books taken out. The sum of $244.45 has passed through the secretary's hands. The collection taken at last year's annual meeting went for work in Herschel Island.

Mrs. Thomas Leech, Sydenham, reported for the Extra-cent-a-day fund. The sum of $213.57, including a balance of $30 from last year, passed through her hands leaving a balance of $19 to be voted on at the annual meeting.

Owing to the absence of Mrs. C. C. Abbott, who was unable to attend the annual meeting, Mrs. John Sibbit read the report of the Forward Movement Committee. Meetings were held by many branches and the way opened from the speakers from the Dominion Board and the committee from the Diocesan Board. Eighty-three branches were circled and Mrs. C. C. Abbott, Mrs. H. P. Lowe, Miss Edith Van Straubenzee and Miss Louise Kirkpatrick were a committee to arrange the meetings and visit the branches.

Notes of the Annual. That it was with pleasure that the senior members noticed the number of young girls at all the meetings. The Girls' and Juniors' banquet on Tuesday evening, with Miss Van Straubenzee, Kingston, Girls' and Candidates' secretary, as speaker, was a great success.

The president spoke of the idea put forward at the meeting of the Dominion Executive in Kingston in April of beginning a Jubilee Fund and another decade will bring the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the W. A.

Greetings were received from Mrs. Gilbert Ferrabee, Montreal, Dominion president, Mrs. Lennox Mills, Montreal; honorary president, Miss Waude, Montreal, Dominion treasurer; from the W.A. at the dioceses of Hamilton, Huron, Algoma, Ottawa, Montreal, Moosonee, Prince Edward Island, Edmonton, Columbia, New Westminster, Rupert's Land, Calgary, Kootenay and Keewatin.

The thanks expressed by the W. A. officers and delegates to the Brockville hostesses for their hospitality was deep and sincere. The meetings were splendidly attended and each of the three Brockville Anglican parishes and many members of other churches were untiring in their efforts to make the stay of the officers and delegates a pleasant one. The I.O.D.E. luncheon on Wednesday was a most enjoyable event.

It was announced at the Thursday afternoon session that the amount of the thank-offering had been increased by additional contributions to $1,424.67. This announcement was greeted with loud applause.

The sum of $11.41 from delayed collections was voted to the fund for a central W. A. room at Kingston.

Reports were read from the deanery secretaries, Mrs. P. H. Huyck, Frontenac; Mrs. Judson Watchorn, Grenville; Mrs. T. W. Reynolds, Leeds; Mrs. Aylesworth, Hastings; Mrs. C. F. S. Radcliffe, Lennox and Addington; and Mrs. Crowe, Prince Edward.

It was with regret that the W. A. heard that Mrs. F. D. Woodcock, Brockville, declined to accept the office of organizing secretary, and it was left to the board to fill her place.

The Editor Hears

That the news that the V.O.N. is to have a car has been heard with pleasure by everyone who knows how many weary miles Miss Leader, the faithful and capable nurse, has walked in pursuit of her duties. The car is being given by Cataraqui Chapter, I.O.D.E., but the upkeep has still to be provided. May we suggest that some other society take on this small annual sum as a contribution to the splendid work being done by the Victorian Order in Kingston.

That Toronto women are advocating shopping within the Empire, and have had excellent addresses given to them by Miss Pilley, organizing secretary of the British Empire Patriotic League.

That quite a lot of snow is still to be found in the woods east of Kingston although in the more sunny places the hepaticas and bloodroots are opening starry eyes on a chilly world. The fields are brown and bare, only a faint tinge of green showing and the swamps where the alders and willows are beginning to turn rose and yellow are almost the only places where there is any sign of spring. May the 10th is the date set for the first wild plum blossoms, but it is safe to say there will be few of them this year in ten days.

That daylight saving time will come into force next Sunday. Don't forget to put the clock one hour ahead on Saturday night and don't come into church when the sermon is being preached, looking open-mouthed at the rest of the congregation as if you thought they were making a mistake. There is said to be a majority in favor of the summer time, so even if you are one of
