THE VANISHING AMERICAN
AT THE CAPITOL THEATRE
The final epic of the American Indian reached the screen at the Capitol Theatre yesterday in Paramount's picturization of the Zane Grey story, "The Vanishing American," which features Richard Dix, Lois Wilson, Noah Berry and Malcolm McGregor.

Here is a picture of indefinable heart-appeal, of glorious action and of eternal romance.

LOIS WILSON IN "THE VANISHING AMERICAN" A PARAMOUNT PICTURE

"The Vanishing American" treats of a subject near to the hearts of all of us—the passing of the Red Man. There is no part of American history that is more romantic, more interesting, more epochal in quality than the story of the first Americans—the Indians.

The story treats of the subject of the Red Man in his last stand against civilization in the same manner that the crossing of the Western plains was handled by James Cruze in "The Covered Wagon."

As a serial in the Ladies' Home Journal, "The Vanishing American" was one of the most valuable motion picture properties of the past ten years—and it has been given a production in keeping with its tremendous importance.

Those who have watched the record of Paramount in the production of epics of the Great West, will, after seeing "The Vanishing American," no longer question the ability of that organization to produce the greatest productions of this class to appear upon the screen.

YOUNG MARRIED COUPLE
AIR TROUBLES IN COURT
Wife Told Magistrate She Had Been "Murdered" Several Times.

The troubles of a young married couple occupied over an hour of Magistrate Farrell's time Friday morning. Charges of "threatening to kill," and using bad language came thick and fast after Magistrate Farrell had waded through all the evidence, and there was a good deal of it, hubby was fined $10 and costs and bound over to keep the peace.

The trouble had its start on Sunday evening last, when the young husband came home and found no supper waiting for him. His wife was in bed and he had to get his own supper. Then the battle started. The young wife claimed that her husband attacked her and knocked her head against the wall. He also smashed some dishes and the baby's carriage. After the row, the wife went to the home of her aunt, and here another row occurred on Thursday when her husband called. It was alleged that her husband threatened to kill "the man of the house."

The couple have three children, and after giving his decision, Magistrate Farrell gave them a heart-to-heart talk, telling them that their case presented quite a problem for the court, but that it was up to them to try and make the best of it for the sake of their children.

SPORT
KINGSTON COLLEGIATE TEAM AGAIN DOWNED
Defeated in Second Game With St. Catharines Here by 22-19.

Making a desperate fight to hold the fast St. Catharines team in check K.C.I. went down to defeat at the hands of the "St. Kitts" by a score of 22-19 in the return game of the Ontario Basketball Association semifinals at Queen's gymnasium last night, losing on the round by 99-30.

The locals faced an impossible task in trying to overcome the huge lead piled up by St. Catharines in their home town but they worked like demons in an effort to make it a real game, and they did. The large crowd that was on hand was treated to a game crammed full of spectacular work on the part of both teams. The visitors used their regular players for the first part of the game, only and then rushed in their spares, who seemed to be every bit as good. Phil Brockel, physical instructor of the local "Y," handled the game very capably.

Both teams started off at a whirlwind pace and before long the score started mounting up on both sides of the list. Buck and Smith turned in a brilliant performance for K.C.I. in the first half but their work was overshadowed by the Jassier visitors. The St. Catharines regulars tore around the floor like madmen and it could easily be seen that it was no disgrace to go down to defeat at the hands of such a team. The first half ended 15-8 for the winners.

Both teams came back stronger than ever after the rest period and fast work was still very much in evidence. Halbert, the racy centre man of St. Catharines, worked very nicely and was responsible for hanging up many of the baskets for the visitors. The winners also displayed pretty team work and there was no doubt but that they were a superior team. K.C.I. held them down better in the final session and ran up their score to nineteen while the "St. Kitts" added seven more points, making the final score 22-19.

By defeating K.C.I. in the semifinals, St. Catharines won the right to meet Ottawa for the provincial honors. The first game will be played tonight and the second Saturday night, both at Ottawa.

The teams were:
St. Catharines—Forwards: Newman, Halbert; centre, Diggs; defence, Peart, Cambray; subs, Dixon, Wiley, Calderone, Meecher, Hollenboack.
K.C.I.—Forwards, H. Smith, Buck; centre, Edgar; defence, F. Sanders, Bews; Subs, D. Sanders, Gratton, E. Sanders, G. Smith.
Referee—P. H. Brockel.

WOMAN WAS INJURED; AWARDED DAMAGES
Mrs. Goodison Won Her Case in the Division Court.

Judge Lavelle on Friday morning gave judgment in the Division Court action of Mrs. Goodison vs. Mike Kaama, for $120 and costs in favor of the plaintiff.

The action arose when Mrs. Goodison asked damages for injuries she claimed were caused when a horse belonging to the defendant ran away and knocked her down.

The defense was that the horse had been caused to run away because of a collision with a truck, and that it was not due to negligence on the part of the defendant.

INDUCTION AT ST. GEORGE'S
Of Rev. Dr. W. W. Craig as Rector Friday Evening.

"THREE BAGS FULL"
The Dumbells will offer their very latest and smartest revue, "Three Bags Full," at the Grand Opera House next Tuesday and Wednesday. A pre-peek into each of the three bags, as each act is called, discloses some wonderful entertainment. For instance, the first bag contains such bright bits as "Jock" Holland's ditty of gay Paree, "I Got Ze Eye"; "Red" Newman's "Bit of a Devil" (in rector-characterization); Al Plunkett's newest conception, "Huckleberry Blues"; Ross Hamilton and the boys in "Romany Rose," with its picturesque gypsy setting; Stan Bennett's "Life on the Rolling Sea"; a new and novel sketch entitled "Wow, Wow, Wow"; and a Grand Opera finale, with "Red" as the conductor.

"THE MERRY WIDOW"
DELIGHTFUL PRODUCTION
Von Stroheim has produced in "The Merry Widow," Monday for the Capitol Theatre, Monday for the Capitol Theatre, Monday for the Capitol Theatre. The picture has all the Continental mien of his "Foolish Wives," all the realism for which he is noted, and a sense of humor which is delightful.

Mae Murray, always a favorite, has doubled her claim to immortality in the hearts of picture-goers by her portrayal of the title role. While Miss Murray has always been considered a vital personality and a capable actress, as the "Merry Widow" she rises to emotional heights that have seldom been equaled on the screen. She lends to the role all the charm for which the part has so long been remembered, and gives it her own personality.

Interest in the story never for a moment laxes, each successive scene remaining in the writer's memory, but the most indelible impression made, as it was in the famous stage play, by the unforgettable "Merry Widow Waltz." As danced by Mae Murray and John Gilbert it is more than a waltz, a veritable ode of tenderness and passion.

NATIONAL HOCKEY HEADS HAVE SERIOUS PROBLEM
Will Settle Size of Hockey Loop at Saturday's Meeting.

Montreal, April 30.—At the continuation of the semi-annual clean-up meeting of the National Hockey League, Saturday, the delegates will have a serious problem to face. It is a nutshell, either they grant franchises to Detroit and Chicago, or find themselves fighting a powerful rival professional circuit.

Although this has not been as a threat by bidding promoters, it amounts to this: These two cities will have hockey! Whether it is National League hockey or not is up to the members of the premier Canadian loop. Already it is understood from Detroit and Western sources that a franchise has been granted to a team for a new league in the auto city. This league will operate if the N.H.L. does not go into the territory, and the chances are that the nucleus will be obtained from the present Central Hockey League, which has been going under an amateur name in Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth, Winnipeg, and the Canadian Soo.

If the N.H.L. goes into Chicago and Detroit, it will take a syndicate of $35,000,000 or $40,000,000 backing to try and buck them. If at the meeting these clubs are not permitted to become members of the League it looks like breakers ahead for the National League. Exactly what will happen will be seen Saturday. Until then, no one will talk. At the same time it is understood that Toronto and Ottawa are against the inclusion of more clubs.

PARTRIDGE ALIGHTS
In the Yacht Club Yard—Chased Away by Dog.

Apparently weary from a long flight, a beautiful specimen of the partridge alighted on the grass in the Kingston Yacht Club yard Thursday afternoon. The bird remained on the ground for some time and was finally chased by a dog. It then flew to a nearby tree and after resting there for nearly an hour, flew away.

It is very uncommon for this species of a bird to be seen in the city. Mr. A. Cassidy, steward of the Kingston Yacht Club, stated that when he noticed the bird it appeared very tired and persons could approach close to it without it taking flight.
