What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

AT THE CAPITAL
"Bluebeard's Seven Wives" Has Blanche Sweet and Lois Wilson. There is a highly diverting comedy on the screen of the Capitol Theatre today and Saturday in the Robert T. Kane production, "Bluebeard's Seven Wives," released through First National. Besides bringing a full quota of laughs, Kane has assembled a most unusual cast. Witness: Blanche Sweet, Lois Wilson, Ben Lyon, Dorothy Sebastian, Diana Kane and Sam Hardy, and many more.

"Bluebeard's Seven Wives" is one of the most original things ever accomplished in the comedy line. The picture gets its title from the exploitation stunt evolved by a motion picture press agent (Sam Hardy) to make his young movie star (Ben Lyon) a popular sensation. The comedy is fast throughout and there is a beautiful Romeo and Juliet scene enacted by Lyon and Blanche Sweet. It is more than worth while seeing; it is too good to be missed.

RURAL POSTMASTERS FACE LOWER REVENUE
Situation Created by Two-cent Postage to Be Reviewed.

Ottawa, May 7.—Answering a question in the House of Commons yesterday, respecting compensation for rural postmasters after the introduction of the two-cent stamp on July 1st, Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, made the following statement:
"It is realized that the adoption of the 2c letter rate on the 1st of July next will result in a substantial decrease in the revenue of rural post offices. As rural postmasters are paid on a commission basis, there would be a corresponding decrease in their salaries, unless their rates of compensation are increased.
As postmasters' salaries are based on the revenue of the previous year, 2c postage would not affect their salaries in any event until 1927. In the interval, the question of compensation of rural postmasters will receive sympathetic consideration by those who are charged with the duty of fixing the rates."

SWITCHMAN RUNS AMUCK AT GUELPH
Shoots Stanley Burns in Abdomen and Fires at Another Man.

Guelph, May 7.—Charles Roberts, switchman on the Canadian National Railway, who has been acting strangely, ran amuck with two revolvers last night and tried to kill Stanley Burns, also of the C.N.R. staff, against whom he had a fancied grievance. Entering Burns' house about 11 o'clock, Roberts yelled: "Now I have you," and began to shoot. One bullet struck Burns in the lower abdomen and plowed its way into the thigh. Apparently the demented man then headed for the switch house where he met another employee named Craig, at whom he fired three shots, none taking effect. Roberts was arrested about one o'clock this morning. If blood-poisoning does not set in, Burns is expected to recover.

A Steady Income all your life
Comforting to think of, isn't it? Retire when you want to, not when you have to!
Simply means putting aside a small portion of your present income—which is more than you need to live on—for such time as you wish to cease working.
That's all an endowment policy is—
A sum provided for your latter years!
Paid to you in a lump sum, or a regular monthly income, just as you desire it.
A little sum each month, that you will never miss now, will give you untold happiness later on.
Investigate the advantages of endowment insurance. It will be a pleasure to answer any questions you may ask.
