'FOR HEAVEN'S SAKE!'

LATEST LLOYD COMEDY Harold Lloyd may some day answer the requests of thousands of admirers throughout the country, to produce a college sequel to 'The Freshman,' but his latest comedy, 'For Heaven's Sake!' takes him out of the light atmosphere that distinguished his football classic into the more sombre air of a big city's underworld. The picture opens at the Capitol next Wednesday for four days. However, the transition has in no wise affected his ability to provoke laughter, inasmuch as all advance reports indicate that 'For Heaven's Sake!' is a fast-moving comedy with an abundance of rapid-fire action, a wholesome thread of romance and an assortment of funny gags that would make even a wooden Indian laugh. Lloyd's characterization is different from any he has previously portrayed.

Jobyna Ralston is again his lovely leading lady, heading a supporting cast which includes in its notable personnel many of the players who have so ably assisted the respected comedian in the past.

MARK TWAIN CLASSIC

IS A SCREEN TRIUMPH In 'A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court,' by Mark Twain, William Fox again presents on the screen the great literary classic at the Capitol Theatre, where this special production opens an engagement of two days, to-day and Tuesday. Mark Twain never wrote anything funnier than 'A Connecticut Yankee' or anything more representative of the spirit of America. It is the challenge of the New World to the old. The principal character, Martin Cavendish, is a typical Yankee with a long line of New England ancestors. He has heard a good deal about the glories of the 'good, old times,' and when he is suddenly transplanted to King Arthur's Court he has an opportunity to find out the truth for himself.

She resided in the city for many years and was very well known, her death bringing great sorrow to her family, and a large circle of friends. She is survived by her husband, five daughters, Ida, Ethel, Florence, Alma and Marion, and two sons, George and Clarence, the latter being a member of The British Whig stereotyping-room staff. SPORT

ROY CLARKE A BETTER FIGHTER THAN DEMPSEY

The Toronto Star Weekly says editorially: 'Provincial Constable Roy Clarke went to a shack in Algoma occupied by a luntie standing 6 ft. 2 in., weighing 200 lbs., and armed with a rifle and an axe, defying the world. Clarke closed with the man as he stepped into the doorway with his rifle, and in the shack a fight raged for twenty minutes. The man was made prisoner. It was such a fight as Jack Dempsey wouldn't go into for a million dollars.'

THREE TEAMS READY.

Three teams were on hand to meet the executive of the Mercantile League on Saturday night to enter the juvenile series in the O.B.A.A. A discussion as to prospects for securing a fourth team took place, and in view of the fact that it was believed that a fourth team would make the league much more interesting, it was decided to leave the matter over until to-day and a meeting will be held to-night at which it is hoped another juvenile team will be entered to go with the three already desirous of doing so.

Tag Day Netted $425.

The tag day held on Saturday in aid of the Victorian Order of Nurses netted the sum of $425.00 for this worthy organization. The committee is well pleased with the response to the appeal, and are heartily grateful to all those who helped to make this amount by their work or contributions.

TWO LOCAL APPEALS HAVE BEEN ALLOWED

Two appeals, made by Mr. A. B. Cunningham, K.C., on behalf of his clients before the Appeal Court at Toronto on Monday morning, were allowed. The appeals were from decisions handed down by Judge Madden, at the last sitting of the County Court, in the cases of Powell vs. Simpson and Knight vs. Lalonde. Mr. W. M. Nickle appeared for the executors of the Powell estate and Mr. Cliff Reynolds for Mrs. Lalonde. In the case of Powell vs. Simpson, the Appeal Court held that if a landlord rented property to a second tenant, during the life of a lease, with the first tenant, that the landlord could not hold the first tenant to the lease. In the Knight vs. Lalonde case the court was called on to decide whether a widow had undisputed right to the first $1,000 of the estate left by her husband, or if there were creditors, they should be paid before the widow would receive anything. The court decided that the creditors must be paid before any of the beneficiaries should receive anything.

IRISH LABOR PARTY WANTS TO KEEP CLEAR

And Advise Shippers Not to Forward Any Goods to England. Dublin, May 10.—The Irish Labor party has advised shippers not to forward goods to England. It says that Irish labor desires to keep clear of the strike. All Irish internal services are running normally. The failure of the English market has brought about drops in prices in Irish commodities. As an instance, eggs in Donegal are selling at two pence a dozen. Mail which arrived at Kingston from England last Friday has not been unloaded. Trades unionists are refusing to handle the sacks because they assert they were previously handled by 'black legs.'
