

CONTROVERSY OVER PITTSBURGH CHURCH

Both Sides Say They Will Hold Service Next Sunday Morning.

Will the Presbyterian congregation of St. John's Church, Pittsburgh, apply for an injunction restraining the Independents from holding service next Sunday morning? This is the question which many people have watched the struggle between the two factions for possession of the little stone church are asking themselves.

Both sides at the present time intend holding service at 10.30 o'clock next Sunday morning and just such a situation threatens as seemed imminent on a Sunday last July. After almost a year of legal battles the question is no nearer to a solution than it was on June 10th last. The injunction taken out by the Independents was not upheld, but the courts were not asked to make any decision as to which side really had the right to the use of the church.

The people directly concerned on both sides feel that they are in the right, but it is quite apparent that they both cannot hold services at the same time in the same church next Sunday. What the outcome will be remains to be seen, but it would seem to be a wise measure to refer the question of the ownership of the church to the courts without more delay and to make some amicable arrangement for both sides to hold services on Sunday at different hours until the matter is finally settled. To force a show-down next Sunday morning will perhaps lead to incidents that will be regretted by all the parties concerned.

MARINE

The tug Sinna of the Sinna Steamship Line arrived here Monday afternoon having in tow three barges, the Melrose, Laureon L. and Burma, all of Montreal, to be loaded with grain for Montreal at the Richardson elevator. A shipment of grain for the local elevator is in route now, and when it arrives the barge, and three others, for which the tug Sinna left yesterday afternoon to tow here, will be loaded with the grain for Montreal. The arrival of the first shipment of grain here will mark the commencement of what is expected to be the busiest season in the shipment of grain experienced by Kingston in years. It is expected that during this summer more grain will pass through Kingston than has in any season in the past ten years, and vessels will be coming into port regularly with shipments to be loaded on barges at the Richardson elevator and taken to Montreal. The steamer City of Kingston arrived here on her first trip down yesterday afternoon, and many citizens took advantage of the opportunity to see the new boat named after this city. She cleared for Montreal after unloading package freight at the local C. S. L. warehouse.

The last of the foreign steamers, which wintered here during the past winter, are to leave port. The Cedarion and Wharton of the Mathews Steamship Line will clear for Port Colborne tonight. The steamer Susie Chipman, which was lately purchased by a Montreal company, will clear for that port today.

The tug Russell left yesterday afternoon with the barge Quebec to load coal at an American port. The pilot records of Monday show the following steamers passing: Edmonton, down at 2.30 p.m.; Beaver-ton, down at 3.15 p.m.; McKinstry, down at 11.50 p.m.; City of Hamilton, up at 11.05 p.m. Tuesday—Winona, down at 2.30 p.m.

The steamers Maplehill, Thunder Bay, O'Hagan and five Eastern boats were expected to pass here during the day.

Repairs to the lighter Cobourg of the Donnelly Salvage and Wrecking Company, which has been in the Davis dry dock for the past few weeks, are almost complete and it is expected that the lighter will leave the dock to-night. The steamer Wolfe Islander will enter the Davis dock for repairs about Thursday or Friday.

TIMELY TIDINGS FROM EMERALD-ON-THE-BAY

Mother's Day Was Honored on Sunday—To Instal Delco Lights.

Emerald-on-the-Bay, May 10.—Seeding operations are in full swing, and the tillers of the soil report the land to be working very good. Owing to the late start they are making every hour count. Allen Instant has been spending a few days at his home here before leaving to take up his duties on the C.S.L. steamer, Thunder Bay, at Toronto.

Arthur Instant, well known local sport, has left to take a berth on a steamer plying out of Ogdensburg, N.Y. Percy McGuinness left a few days ago for Buffalo, N.Y., where he has accepted a position on the steamer, Harvey H. Brown, plying out of that port. Canon J. W. Jones, Kingston, occupied the pulpit of St. Alban's, Stella, and Christ churches, on Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Craig, Demorestville, occupied the pulpit of St. Paul's on Sunday morning. It being Mother's Day, a special form of service was conducted in the different churches. Kenneth Miller and Irwin Tugwell spent Monday in Napanee. Melville Lemmon, of the firm of John Lemmon & Sons, Kingston, has been repairing the boiler in the Stella cheese factory.

J. A. McMullen's tractor arrived from Bath per S.S. Brockville on Friday from Napanee, where it has been undergoing repairs by Hartman and Card, motor mechanics, of that place. The Stellonians can have their electric lights if they wish. But the Emeraldites will stick to the raising of porkers on the favorite house cat.

It is reported in marine circles that John Tugwell contemplates the installing of Delco lights on his Lighter in the near future. William J. McCormick, Lake View, is putting in the crop for A. Reid this spring.

Local fishermen are having very poor luck this spring as the members of the sunny tribe seem to be very scarce. Miss Gladys Tugwell, who is attending the S.C.S., is stopping with Mrs. W. Munro, Bay street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Montgomery, Kingston, are located in the Royal Bank building for the next few weeks. Mrs. G. S. Sargent, Montreal, is spending a few days under the parental roof. C. A. Gibeton and A. L. Tugwell, Collin's Bay, spent Sunday on the island. Ernest Instant, motor expert, Stella, spent Sunday with friends in the village.

ST. ANDREW'S Y.W.M.A. RECEIVES REPORTS

From Its Conyeners and From Miss Fairlie, Provincial Delegate.

Young Women's Missionary Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Church was held in St. Andrew's Hall on Monday evening at eight o'clock with a good attendance. The devotional exercises were conducted by Miss E. Davis. The conyeners of committees gave a reports for the month.

Miss Fairlie, the president, who was the delegate of this Auxiliary to attend the provincial meetings of the W.M.S. in Toronto on April 27, 28, 29, gave a splendid report of the meetings held. In opening her address, she thanked the members for choosing her as their delegate and told them what joy and good she had got out of these meetings. The meetings, said the speaker, were held in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church and were largely attended by the different Presbyterian congregations. Five hundred delegates were present, representing 38 Presbyteries, extending from Port Arthur to Ottawa. These Presbyteries comprise 1,200 branches with a membership of 31,817. The Glengarry Presbyterial was congratulated as being the first to meet fully organized after the memorable June 10th, 1925. This presbyterial now has 22 auxiliaries and 1,143 members.

Each presbyterial had a very encouraging report to give. In one place alone the number of auxiliaries has been doubled. The money raised in the last six months is far above what was hoped for, and the Presbyterian Church is continuing to do its good work.

Miss Fairlie at the close of her address showed the members a picture of the honorary president, Mrs. A. M. McQueen, of Hamilton, and also a picture of the delegates taken on the steps of St. Paul's Church. Mrs. Duff of St. Andrew's Church spoke a few words on the financial side, and thanked the members for their loyal support in the past.
