ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS by Olive Roberts Barto

BIDDY HEN AND THE GOBLIN.

Mrs. Bunny wasn't a bit cross because Mister Tingaling and the Twins had broken into her house, as you might say.

Indeed she and Mister Bunny and her sister-in-law all had a good laugh, and it ended up in the visitors being invited to stay to lunch.

Mrs. Bunny set three more places, and that made six of them.

The Twins thought they wouldn't care for carrot-pie, but really it tasted almost like pumpkin-pie. And as for plain-tain-seed cookies, you hardly could tell them from caraway.

They talked about the bad little goblin, Snitcher Snatch, and his relations, the Gaskookumses.

"I tell you what, Mister Tingaling," said Mister Bunny as he lighted a cigar after lunch, "you'll have to watch out for those young rascals. That Snitcher Snatch would do almost anything."

"Listen!" said Mrs. Bunny suddenly. "That sounds like Biddy Hen clucking out there. What's she doing away over in these woods, I'd like to know. She belongs over in the barnyard."

Nancy ran over to Mrs. Bunny's dining room window. I did tell you, didn't I, that their magic shoes made the Twins so tiny they could even have gone into a mouse-hole, had they wished.

"Yes, it is Biddy Hen," she said. "And there's someone beside her. Oh, I do believe it's the bad little goblin himself. Yes, sir! It's Snitcher Snatch."

They all rushed to the window of Mrs. Bunny's house in the pine-tree stump and peeped from behind the curtain.

And this is what they saw and heard. Biddy Hen was saying, "Cluck-a-luck! Cluck-a-luck! I'm looking for a new house, so I can make a nest that Farmer Greenway won't find."

"I know the very place you wish, Madam," Snitcher Snatch replied, not knowing, of course, that anyone knew a fine place for a nest. I have a house in a big hollow log, behind some bushes, that is for rent right now, and you can have it if you pay me two eggs a week."

"Is it your house? Are you the landlord?" asked Biddy Hen happily. "I'll be most happy to look at it."

"Yes, these are all my houses," said the bad little goblin, waving his hand around in a wide sweep. I am the landlord and you may pay me your rent in eggs. I'm very fond of eggs. Do you leave home often, Mrs. Hen?"

"No, not when I'm setting," said poor Biddy Hen. "I'm afraid my eggs will get cold and not hatch. I just leave my nest about three times a day for a short time, to scratch around for bugs and food."

"Just when do you leave home?" asked the bad little goblin. "Maybe I could come and look at your eggs while you're away, so as to be perfectly sure they are safe."

"That's very kind of you, I'm sure," said Mrs. Hen. "If you'll just show me the place now, I think I'll rent it."

But just then a gust of wind came along and blew off the little goblin's hat. And Mrs. Hen saw his pointed ears!

"Cluck-a-luck! Get out of here!" she cried crossly. "You're a cheat!" And she made a dive at him with her beak.

But Snitcher Snatch scooted off and disappeared among the bushes. "Well, the very idea!" exclaimed Mister Tingaling.

MAGNESIA BEST FOR GASSY STOMACH

Bisurated Magnesia Promptly Ends Gas, Sourness and Acid Indigestion.

If everything you eat turns to gas and your stomach is a constant ferment of sourness and Acid Indigestion, try taking a little pure Bisurated Magnesia after meals for a while and get the immediate relief from stomach trouble this simple prescription unfailingly gives.

It is a serious mistake to seek relief from indigestion or a bad stomach by using pepsin or other artificial digestants. You get relief but weaken the stomach and do not reach the cause which, nine times in ten, is simply "too much acid" in the stomach. Bisurated Magnesia, taken after meals, dissolves or neutralizes this acid, sweetens and cleans up the stomach, drives out gas and bloating and lets the stomach digest your food as nature intended without a particle of trouble.

Reliable druggists everywhere supply the genuine Bisurated Magnesia in both powder and tablets in sealed packages. Do not confuse with ordinary citrate, Milk or lump magnesia. Be sure to get Bisurated, which is not a laxative and is especially prepared for stomach trouble.
