THE TOWN WATCHMAN

The Ontario Synod is to meet the first week of June to elect a bishop. There are a goodly number of Synod members who will recall the election to fill the vacancy caused by the passing of Archbishop Lewis.

Kingston received a splendid advertisement as the result of its fine tourist camp last year, and care should be taken that the city does not receive a blackeye this year by a change of policy.

Nowadays women not only change their minds but they change their faces, says a crusty old bachelor.

The other day old friends met Dr. Jim McManus, who was one of Queen's University champion rugby players thirty years ago. Dr. McManus was a scrapper and played in the halcyon days of Guy Curtis.
