The Season's On! GET BUSY AND WIN A PRIZE

The British Whig is offering three prizes of $5.00, $3.00 and $2.00 to the persons who can solve this baseball contest. Certain letters have been left out of some of the words in the advertisements on this page. When these missing letters have been located and placed in correct order they will form the name of a player on the Kingston team of the C.O.B.L.

RULES OF THE CONTEST

- 1.—Everyone is eligible except employees of The British Whig or members of their families.
- 2.—The contest closes at 12 o'clock noon on Tuesday.
- 3.—Replies will be numbered in the order they are received at The Whig Office. The first correct answer received will be awarded the first prize; the second correct answer or nearest correct answer will be awarded the second prize; and the third correct answer or nearest correct answer will be awarded the third prize.
- 4.—Neatness will be considered in case of a tie.
- 5.—To get a correct reply and win a prize it will be necessary to give the name of the ball player, (both Christian and surname), the word from which each letter in his name was left out and the advertisement in which each of these words appeared.
- 6.—All replies must be addressed to Baseball Contest Editor, The Whig, Kingston. Winners will be announced in Wednesday's paper.
