OUR TAILORING

Have we ever made clothes for you, Sir?

If we have we've nothing to say, for we're sure that you'll come again.

If we have not, then we have something to say.

We desire to call your attention to the fact that the best dressed men come here for clothes.

They come here because they know that we're

Experts at Tailoring

They come knowing that the garments we make for them will be artistically cut from choice, late style fabrics—that the cut, trimmings, making and fit will be absolutely correct.

Suppose you try our sort of Tailoring, Sir!

We believe we'll be able to please and surprise you.

Moderate prices always.

Prices you'll willingly pay.

CITY AND DISTRICT

Elected Vice-Presidents.
Mr. William Harty, Jr., and Mrs. John Macgillivray, Kingston, were chosen vice-presidents of the Eastern Ontario Liberal Association.

Attending Dental Convention.
Doctors Simpson, Millan, Walsh, Winnett and Glover are attending the annual convention of the Ontario Dental Association at Toronto.

Sent Up For Trial.
Charged with breaking and entering the store of Fenton & Smith, Pembroke, Ernest Geffold, aged twenty, was committed for trial. A plea of not guilty was entered.

Cars Towed In.
Three cars were towed into the city Sunday afternoon suffering from accidents, but no person was injured. One car had the front badly smashed.

Port Hope Pastor Here.
The Rev. F. W. Anderson, M.A., Port Hope, spoke at both services at the Sydenham Street United Church on Sunday, the attendances being very large. The sermons were highly instructive.

At Gospel Tabernacle.
Mr. A. G. Bentley of Toronto spoke at the evening service at the Gospel Tabernacle Sunday, preaching on "God's Greatest Message to Man." The service was largely attended.

College of Pharmacy.
The following appear in the list passing the senior examinations of the Ontario College of Pharmacy: George Brooks, Picton; L. S. Richards, Renfrew; E. Mellow, Napanee; J. T. Cooke, Renfrew.

Many on Causeway.
Hundreds of people strolled over the causeway on Sunday afternoon and the traffic was very heavy with cars also. The warm breeze off the river was refreshing, and enticed many people on the bridge.

Tulips In Park.
Tulips are in bloom in the City Park and also in gardens at many homes about the city. The weather of the past few days has been ideal for the flowers, and they have broken out in bloom rapidly.

The Diamonds Fixed Up.
The cricket field is being put into fine shape for baseball and other games. The two diamonds have been scraped and cleaned and now appear as smooth and as level as billiard tables.

Assist The Tuberculous Veterans.
Have you contributed to the Tuberculous Veterans Emergency Fund Campaign? Kindly mail or deliver your subscriptions to the Honorary Treasurer, P. Du Moulin, Esq., manager Bank of Montreal, to-day.

School Principal Resigns.
C. C. Arthur, M.A., for thirty-three years on the staff of the Cobourg Collegiate Institute, and for sixteen years of that time principal, has resigned from the staff, his resignation to take effect at the end of the present school term.

To Start The Season.
It was announced to-day that Mayor T. B. Angrove and Professor Manley Baker would start the season off in the senior baseball race on Wednesday night when Peterboro comes here to clash with Kingston at the stadium.

Visitors at C. P. R.
Many people visited the local C.P.R. station on Sunday to see the hundreds of tulips now in bloom in the gardens. Red, yellow and other colors, some mixed, present a brilliant display, with the green grass affording a pretty background.

Mayor To Open Courts.
The formal opening of the Regis Tennis Club will take place on Tuesday evening at seven o'clock at the Palace Rink property where the courts of the Regis Tennis Club have been built. The new club will be opened by His Worship Mayor T. B. Angrove.

A Regretted Death.
Miss Irene Gladys Dopson, Smith's Falls, daughter of Mrs. R. J. Dial, passed away at Innesville after many months illness. Being in declining health she was also afflicted by total blindness for some time. She was twenty-one years of age. Besides her mother she leaves one brother, Herbert Dopson, Smith's Falls.

Rev. C. W. Lea Preached.
Rev. C. W. Lea of Toronto was the speaker at the morning service of Queen Street United Church on Sunday morning and he also preached in the evening. Rev. Mr. Lea gave two very fine sermons which were much appreciated by the large congregations which heard him.

Cheese Board Sales.

St. Hyacinthe, Que., 213 at 17 1/2 c.
London, 165 boarded, 16 1/2 c. bid, no sales.

To Be Paroled for Work To Support His Family
Dr. Lavell, of the Provincial Parole Board, was in the city to-day, conferring with officials regarding the parole of George Kehoe. Kehoe was committed to jail recently on a charge of non-support. If he is paroled and secures employment outside the jail, any money he earns will go toward the support of his wife and family.

Brunswick, according to an announcement of the Department of Agriculture for New Brunswick. Mr. Lewis has taken over his new duties and will make his headquarters at Sussex. His appointment was made for a period of six months.

Sang Fine Quartette.
During the evening service at the First Baptist church on Sunday, a very fine quartette number, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say" was sung by Messrs. William Eys, W. J. Salisbury, James Saunders and S. A. Salisbury. The number was much appreciated by the congregation.

In Juvenile Court.
Two lads lost their bicycles and as a result two other boys were summoned to a session of the Juvenile Court held on Monday morning, in connection with the missing "bikes." The two lads summoned claimed that they had disposed of the wheels to two other lads, and so the case was enlarged until Saturday.

Fine Lynx Shot.
A very good specimen of lynx was killed in Lancaster, about one mile north of the village, on the farm of Albert F. Copas. The animal was treed by a dog which accompanied children gathering wild flowers. The beast was brought down by a well-placed bullet from a .32 rifle by Horace Copas, and is an object of local interest.

Moose Seen Near Barn.
A small dog owned by the cheesemaker at Green Valley cheese factory, near Beckett's Landing, by its barking, attracted attention to the neighborhood of a barn on Dan Rintoul's farm, and investigation showed that it was objecting to the presence of a full-grown moose. On approach of the men the moose headed across field and disappeared in the neighboring woods.

Sentence Imposed.
On Saturday morning William J. McDonald, New Glasgow, N.S., appeared before Judge Reynolds for sentence on a charge of obtaining money under false pretences. Some weeks ago he secured a letter from the Gananoque post-office by fraud. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to six months, with a further indeterminate sentence of two years less one day in the Ontario Reformatory.

Bathing House Opens.
The Richardson Bathing House opened for the season on Monday, but bathers ready to dare the cold waters were lacking and there was no person on hand to open up the season by taking a plunge. Cleaning up work was started and everything will be in readiness when the swimmers start the season. Mr. and Mrs. Maxom are in charge of the bathing house this season.

LARGE CROWD ATTEND R.C.H.A. INSPECTION
Which Was Held at the Lower Commons, Barriefield, on Monday Morning.

The annual inspection of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery was held at the lower commons, Barriefield, Monday morning, Major-General J. H. Elmsley, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., officer commanding military district No. 3, being the inspecting officer and Major S. G. Bacon, the officer in command.

A very large crowd witnessed the inspection and were impressed with the neatness of the brigade as it passed the inspecting officer in walk, followed by trotting. Military manoeuvres were carried out with skill and precision. Following the inspection of the brigade at Barriefield, an inspection of the stables and barracks took place, everything being in the neatest condition.

RATEPAYERS VOTING ON TWO BY-LAWS
A Very Small Vote Had Been Recorded Up Till the Noon Hour.

To-day, the ratepayers are voting on two by-laws, one to raise by debentures, the sum of $25,000 for alterations at the fair grounds, and one to grant the Monarch Battery Company Ltd., a fixed assessment of $1,000 for ten years.

Up till noon, the voting at the polls was reported to be very light. At the polling booth in the city buildings, only six persons had voted, while at one poll on King street, it was reported that only ten votes had been cast, and throughout the city all the polls reported a very light vote up till noon, but it was expected that after the noon hour, voting would be brisker, but the general opinion was that there would not be a very heavy vote polled.
