What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

DRAMA OF THRILLS AND COMEDY AT CAPITOL

A hitherto untapped vein of western action drama, well mixed with comedy, yields a "strike" of rich ore in "The Wild Bull's Lair." Fred Thomson's production which opens to-day at the Capitol Theatre.

The western star, who has enjoyed a meteoric rise to great popularity in the last year, is at his best in the role Dan Allen, a fearless cattleman who eventually solves the mystery of "The Wild Bull's Lair" and who is the only rancher immune to the supposedly supernatural which is at work on the summit. Silver King, his wonderful horse, has an excellent part, and struts his stuff with his usual intelligence and spirit. Although Thomson and his horse naturally stand out at the head of the cast, all the roles are filled admirably, and the direction of the picture is fine.

"Take films" to Gibson's.

The marriage was quietly solemnized at St. James Church, Perth, on May 4th, of Miss Eady Johnston, daughter of Mrs. B. Johnston, Spencerville and Edward Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Taylor, Bathurst.

Elder's are now manufacturing all popular flavors.

J. J. Johnston, Delora, aged thirty-nine years died in his sleep last Saturday.

"Woodbury Creams," at Gibson's.

He who sits down and longs for wealth will be a long time getting it.

The members of all branches of the L.O.O.F. are cordially invited to a reception to be held in honor of B.R.O. A. E. Ross, M.D., GRAND MASTER, to be held in the ODD FELLOWS' TEMPLE on FRIDAY EVENING, May 21st, at 8 o'clock.

H. N. McCULLAGH, Chairman. B. J. GILBERT, Secretary.

The One Hundred and Seventh Anniversary of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows will be held at St. Paul's church on Sunday, May 23rd, at 11 a.m. Members are requested to meet at the new Odd Fellows' Temple at 10 a.m.

Visiting members are cordially invited to join with us.

GASOLINE EXPLODED IN A MOTOR BOAT

Firemen Called to Extinguish Blaze—Young Merchant Slightly Burned.

On Wednesday evening a young business man was putting in a little time working on his motor boat tied up at the Water Works wharf. He accidentally lit a match for the purpose of investigating if there was any gas in the tank or not. There was.

Flames burst out in short order and a hasty call was put in for the firemen, who arrived on the scene in jig time and as a result the damage to the motor boat was not heavy. In the meantime the young man must grow a new set of eyebrows and replace some scorched hair as a result of his investigation.

NO ENTHUSIASM FOR STRIKE.

Miss Charlotte Whitton's Comment on British Trouble.

"The amazing thing has been the calm 'unexcitement' with which they have all taken the matter. There is no enthusiasm for the strike, no matter what the papers say," writes Miss Charlotte Whitton from London, England, to a friend regarding the conditions early this month when the general strike was on in the Old Country.

Miss Whitton and her friend, Miss Margaret Grier, were held up in London on their way home from Geneva, where Miss Whitton was acting as assessor for North and South America on the League of Nations' new commission for the protection of young people.

SPORT

PRINTERS ARE OUT.

Withdrawn From Kingston Softball League This Afternoon.

The Printers' team of the Kingston Softball League was withdrawn on Thursday afternoon and will not take part in further games, it was decided this afternoon. There has been considerable trouble in keeping the team together and arranging other details for the team to stay in the League, but as the interest was not there, it was decided to quit altogether.

KITCHENER SUBSCRIBES TO QUEEN'S ENDOWMENT

Dr. Bruce Taylor Says Universities Should Be State Institutions.

Kitchener, May 20.—At the meeting here last night in the crystal room of the Walper Hotel of the K. W. Queen's Alumni Association, $1,500 was subscribed to the Queen's endowment.

The meeting was addressed by the campaign organizer, Mr. Stafford, of Kingston, and Dr. R. Bruce Taylor, D.D., L.D., principal of Queen's University. The meeting was presided over by Lieut.-Col. W. M. O. Lochhead, M.A. In his address, Dr. Taylor emphasized the resources, the growth of Queen's and the prominent part it plays in the educational life of Canada.

Dr. Bruce Taylor addressed the regular luncheon meeting of the Kitchener-Waterloo Men's University Club at the Walper Hotel yesterday. In speaking of the difficulties confronting universities of Canada, he declared the reason was not due to extravagant administration, but because the advancement of education necessitates tremendous improvements to laboratories and other departments, while the fees of students had not increased proportionately. He said the time had come when the Government should consider universities as State institutions, and give them the same support as is being received by the primary and secondary schools.

OBITUARY

Mrs. John Murphy.

The death occurred in the city on Wednesday of Johanna Hayes, wife of John Murphy. She was a Roman Catholic in religion. The funeral will take place from the residence of her brother, Richard Hayes, 61 Elm street, on Friday morning to St. Mary's cathedral, where a solemn requiem mass will be sung at nine o'clock.

Anson Yeoman.

Anson Yeoman, aged thirty-three years, died at the Mowat Memorial Hospital on Wednesday after a lengthy illness. Deceased formerly resided at Newburgh, but since coming to Kingston had lived at 364 Johnson street. The funeral will be held on Friday afternoon to Cataraqui cemetery.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

For Construction Work on New Randolph Hotel.

The tender for the construction work of the New Randolph Hotel has been let to Mr. Michael Sullivan and the tender for the plumbing, heating, sheet metal work, ventilation, etc., has been let to Graves Bros. plumbing and heating contractors of Kingston.

The work of demolishing the buildings, which at present occupy the site of the new hotel, is progressing, but one tenant has not yet vacated the premises and this is delaying the work slightly. Mr. Sullivan is ready to go ahead with excavation immediately the ground is cleared.

Tenders for the electrical work and for the steel construction work are to be called for very shortly.

SEVENTH COMPANY OF KINGSTON GIRL GUIDES

The seventh company of the Kingston Girl Guides met in the Armouries on Monday, as usual. Service stars were presented to those completing required attendance for the past year. Company drill and teaching formed the better part of the meeting. There was a smaller attendance than usual. The company will join the annual Guide parade on Sunday. No meeting will be held next Monday.

W. E. D. Stokes Dies.

New York, May 20.—W. E. D. Stokes died in his home here yesterday morning. Mr. Stokes, wealthy realty operator and financier, was long in the public eye because of the sensational divorce brought against him by his wife, Helen Elwood Stokes. He was 73 years old.

Drops Dead at Windsor.

Windsor, May 20.—Gordon Philip, secretary of the Border Chamber of Commerce, dropped dead in his office shortly before noon today. He was formerly secretary of the London Chamber of Commerce, coming to the border a little over a year ago.

WEDDINGS.

Keefe-Gray.

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday, May 19th, in the United Church, Norwood, Ont., when Miss Gray, younger daughter of Mrs. Gray, Norwood, formerly of Sharbot Lake, Ont., and the late Robert Huston Gray, was united in marriage to Mr. I. Harland Keefe, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Keefe, Norwood.

The front of the church was banked with ferns, geraniums, tulips, hyacinths and white lilies. The winsome bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. J. Edgar Edwin, of Perth, while her sister, Miss R. Pearl Gray, R.N., of Peterborough, acted as bridesmaid. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus from the organ played by Miss Reba Squire, B.A., of Toronto. The bride was attired in a French gown of golden georgette with Swiss embroidered trimmings and wore an imported picture hat of mohair and georgette to match. She carried a shower bouquet of opelia roses and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was the gift of the groom, a white gold bar pin with diamond setting.

The bridesmaid wore a dainty frock of blue georgette trimmed with pastel shades and a large hat to match. She also wore a bouquet of Richmond roses. She also wore the gift of the groom, a sapphire birthstone ring in white gold. Mr. Carman G. Knox acted as groomsmen.

After the ceremony a reception, followed by a rehearsal luncheon was held at "Lilac Bloom" the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Gray received her guests attractively gowned in navy georgette over flowered crepe and large black tulle hat and wore a corsage bouquet of American beauty roses. The house was attractively decorated with spring flowers, and daffodils graced each of the little tea tables. Following the toasts, the happy couple left on a motor trip to Western Ontario, the bride travelling in a smart ensemble dress of Britany blue crepe, blonde coat and hat, with shoes and stockings to match. Many handsome gifts were received from local and distant friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Keefe will be at home after July 1st at their residence, Ridge street, Norwood.

COLLIN'S BAY PRESENTATION

Harold Clarke's Pavilion to Open the 24th of May.

Collin's Bay, May 20.—A social evening was held in the Sunday school room of the United Church on Friday evening last, when a presentation was made to Mrs. William Blackley and Mrs. S. McDonald in appreciation of their services rendered in this Sunday school as teachers and official for many years. A. E. Powley, superintendent of the Sunday school, made the presentation and the recipients expressed their thanks in a few well chosen words. The short programme and refreshments provided by the members of the Sunday school were appreciated by all present.

Miss Miller and scholars of Collin's Bay Public school observed Arbor Day in the usual way and the school grounds are in a very good condition.

Miss Miller spent the week-end with her parents on Amherst Island. Miss Mary McKay has returned to her home here after spending the winter in Picton.

Harold Clark is making extensive improvements on his pavilion, which he intends opening the 24th of this month. It is hoped that he will have a successful season.

The Ladies' Aid of this place intend holding a quilting in the basement of the United Church on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Halliday and his mother have returned from spending their vacation at Toronto and other western points.

The residents of Collin's Bay are busy in their gardens, which are much admired by the many summer visitors.
