JUNIOR GAME FOR MONDAY

Circle-Six Will Put Up More Fight This Time.

The Circle-Six have been down to real hard practice since receiving a stiff drubbing at the hands of the Victorias and if determination counts anything it's going to be a mighty battle Monday morning, as the Circle Six are determined to return the compliment to the Vics and Matt Coyne's collection are out to keep up their good start. On account of Monday being a holiday, the time of the game was changed till ten o'clock in the morning so that people would be given a better opportunity to see the game.

There has been a great deal of speculation as to the strength of the two teams since the first game. Many think that the Victorias have got just the start they need and that they are going to come through this season while other fans are of the opinion that the Circle Six will snap out of it now and get down to their regular baseball. One thing is certain and that is that they did not play at their best in the first game. They have every reason to do it Monday as the game will mean a great deal to either team.

Bobby Jones finished second in a race at Bowie the other day. . . . We don't know who finished first but it must have been Hagen.

Walter Johnson started the season with a 15-inning win over the Athletics. . . . We've always claimed that all he ever needed to be a great pitcher was a little experience.

In insisting that Dempsey fight Harry Wills those New York gentlemen, contrary to the popular supposition, seem to prefer brunets.

Exactly 212,000 fans paid to see the opening games in the big leagues and not more than 43 of them agreed with the umpire on the first called strike.

CIRCLE SIX vs. VICTORIAS

SPORTING NOTES AND COMMENT

Kingston will certainly miss the horse races this season, but the owners cannot be expected to race their horses under unsuitable conditions. The track at the Fair Grounds needs grading badly and at one place on the course considerable work is needed to take a grade off. Race horses are not used to climbing hills and although the grade is only small it is hard on the horses when they strike the incline.

The Circle-Six and Victorias clash again on Monday morning and it is generally conceded that things are going to be quite different than when the Vics. handed out the drubbing in the opener. Circle-Six realize now that they have to fight, and fight hard, for a chance to represent Kingston in the O.B.A.A. playoffs and they are out to nab that opportunity. The Vics. have gained a great deal of confidence since their first win and are past the stage-struck stage, which means that Circle-Six are facing a big task. Last year's champions are confident that there is going to be a different story Monday.

For the benefit of some person who is evidently day dreaming who would like to point out that the tennis courts at Queen's University are not in readiness for playing. Perhaps there are some phantom racquet performers around the university.

Work on the courts at the Kingston Tennis Club is progressing rapidly and the foundation is being laid for the concrete. The members of the club will be able to get going on the new courts about June 10th.

A large crowd was on hand to see the girls' softball game last night. It takes the fair maidens to attract attention.

The Kingston C.O.B.L. team travels to Belleville on Monday to prance around with the Grand Trunks. Belleville is hopeful of taking the cake this season and fully expects to trim the locals. We'll see.

The sailing boats at the Kingston Yacht Club will be taking the water very soon and the familiar white specks will be seen on the lake. The dinghy races will be starting soon, but not too soon for the sailors, who are anxious to experience the thrills of tipping over and other stunts.

The president's and vice-president's match at the Cataragui Golf Club was scheduled to be played to-day. This contest always attracts a great deal of attention and a large crowd witnesses the tilt each season.

The mighty Frontenac Regiment had a close shave from being downed by the K.C.I. kids. The Regiment is a strong and smooth working team, but they found unexpected stiff opposition in the boys from the Collegiate. It looks as if the race in the K.S.L. is going to be interesting this season.

The wounded horn casually and remarked, "These mosquitoes remind me of the summer I spent in Jersey City."

The new battle cry of the Mussolini mob is, "The Nose Knows."

Chicago has legalized prizefighting but it's going to take a long time to persuade the boys that it is nicer to wear boxing gloves than carry guns.

Thirty ounces will be the maximum weight of clothes worn by English girls this summer, and some of them probably won't object to being short-weighted.

HE'S REDLEG NOW

Art Nehf, Veteran Southpaw, Sold to Cincy Club.

ART NEHF.

Veteran pitcher of the Giants, who has been sold to Cincinnati. Nehf, who for many seasons rated one of the greatest southpaws in the circuit, made his major league debut with the Boston Braves in 1916. Four years later he was sold to the Giants for a reported price of $55,000. In 1924 Nehf had a sensational year, winning 14 games and losing but four. He didn't go so well last year, however. Manager Hendricks of the Reds looks for Nehf to turn in several good campaigns for his team.

Championship Events To Be at Twin Cities

Fort William, May 22.—The Canadian championships in track and field sports for this year will be held at Fort William and Port Arthur on July 31st and August 2nd. August 2nd falls on a Monday so that the preliminaries will be held on Saturday afternoon and the finals on Monday which is Civic holiday.

This event will be considered by the Olympic Committee as the first trial in picking the team to represent Canada at the next Olympic games. Due to this and also to the fact the Twin Cities are almost the geographical centre of Canada, it is expected that in so far as the number of entries are concerned, that these championships will be the largest ever held in Canada. It is

DEMPSEY IS PICKED TO BEAT TUNNEY

JACK DEMPSEY.

By Joe Williams.

Before the summer season is ended Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, and Gene Tunney, foremost white challenger, will step into the ring and start firing loaded punches at each other.

Who'll win? I'll let Eddie Kane answer that one for you. Kane managed Tommy Gibbons until the St. Paul heavyweight retired some months ago. Kane is closer to Gibbons than a recalcitrant hunion and when he speaks on matters touching on, and appertaining to, the nose-busting racket he is reflecting Gibbons' mind. If any one in the world is qualified through actual experience to tell whether Dempsey is better than Tunney, or vice versa, that one man is Gibbons.

Three years ago, out in the little cow town of Shelby, Mont., Gibbons fought 15 rounds with Dempsey and was on his feet. In pretty good shape, when the contest ended.

Last summer, at one of the ball parks here, Gibbons went on against Tunney and was knocked out for the first time in his long career; not only knocked out but outclassed. The bout was actually one-sided.

Consider the facts: Dempsey couldn't stop Gibbons. What's more he couldn't even score a knockdown. (And don't let anybody tell you he wasn't trying, either.) On the other hand, Tunney stretched the Irishman and did so with comparative ease.

You'd think, then, that Gibbons' pick would be Tunney. But it isn't. Kane says Gibbons is stringing along with Dempsey and not because of any prejudicial feelings. If anything Gibbons has a somewhat higher personal regard for Tunney than for the champion.

"Gibbons simply has an honest conviction that Dempsey is a greater fighter than Tunney," says Kane, "and he believes that if the two ever fight, which appears likely now,

HELPFUL GOLF HINTS

By Walter Hagen.

The beginner should never go near a golf course until he has learned some idea of how to hit a ball. Getting the proper swing before approaching golf grounds will save a lot. Beginners should remember the first-class players hate to waste time playing with a duffer who only retards their progress. Learning the game while playing in a match is no way to get any headway. You are spoiling your own game and that of the good players.

There is another angle to the game too. Beginners do congest a golf course. They can't play the game fast enough to hold their place and a great many of them do not know enough about golf etiquette to invite those behind to come through. As a result the course is held up.

Try and remember that you must keep close behind those ahead of you. The general rule in regard to this is to play when the players in front of you have had their second shot. If this is not enough one must wait until they are well out of range.
