A SUPERB CAST IN "WHERE WAS I?" COMEDY

Denny is Supported by Well-Known Players in Coming Capitol Comedy.

If an unparalleled cast of comedians makes an exceedingly funny picture, the reason for the great success of Reginald Denny's "Where Was I?" which is coming to the Capitol Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday is explained.

It could not be anything but a rip-roaring comedy-drama full of the most joyous laughs that ever greeted the screen's funniest actor. He got away to a flying start with the clever "Leather Pusher" series several years ago and has since been steadily progressing through bigger and funnier movies.

He is supported in this picture by Chester Conklin, Lee Moran, Otis Harlan and others. Conklin has long been famous as one of the screen's greatest comedians. For years he starred in comedies; but with the coming of the big features and the need for comedy relief in them, he took up that form of the art.

Lee Moran, another old-time comedian, followed about the same channel of fate as Conklin. He was a stage comedian for many years, then later took up starring a picture.

Reginald Denny is without doubt

DATED at Kingston, this 22nd day of May, 1926.

AMBROSE SHEA, Administrator.

LATE ALEXANDER MANSON.

Deceased Was Born in This City in 1854.

Harrowsmith, May 22.—The death of Alexander Manson, which took place at his home, Pleasant Valley, Friday morning, May 14th, removes an old and highly respected resident of the township of Portland.

The late Mr. Manson was born in the City of Kingston, in the year 1854, and came when quite young and settled on a farm in Pleasant Valley, west of Harrowsmith, where he has since lived continuously, and his ready sympathy with those in trouble, earnest endeavor in the cause of right and cheerful disposition, made him a general favorite with young and old and many were the regrets expressed when the news of his death was received.

The late Mr. Manson was a life member of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, Harrowsmith. In religion a Presbyterian, in politics a staunch Liberal, he always took a deep interest in everything that pertained to the welfare of the community.

In the year 1891 Mr. Manson married Miss Margaret McMahon, second daughter of the late John and Jane McMahon, of the township of Hinchinbrook. Five sons were the result of their union. His funeral, which was largely attended, occurred on Sunday, 2 p.m. Mr. McMILLAN, pastor of Wilton church, conducted the service at the home. Many beautiful wreaths and tributes of flowers were placed on and around the casket as an evidence in which disease was held in the community. Mrs. German and daughter, Miss German, gave some beautiful hymns and solos during the service which was much appreciated. Besides his widow, four sons, and two grandchildren are left to mourn his demise. His sons are George, John, Russell and Erwin.

Those attending the funeral from a distance were Miss Laura Houston, Cleveland, Ohio, niece of the deceased; J. A. McMahon, Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. McMahon and North Cronby and J. H. Manson, Rimby, Alberta. Mr. Knight, Sydesham, had the funeral obseques in charge.

The Family Market Basket

The prices of potatoes continued to drop at Saturday's market, and after 11 o'clock, farmers still had plenty of bags to be sold at 28 dollars each. Eggs remained at 23 and 30 cents and butter sold at forty cents per pound. Strawberries appeared at one place, and sold at 35 cents a quart box. Onion, lettuce and rhubarb were very plentiful, and sold at 5 cents a bunch.

Stores Painted Bright.

The Princess street merchants have gone in for color display, and nearly all the stores which have been painted this spring are a very bright color. The merchants are now ready for the tourist trade.

Water Very Rough.

The water was very rough Saturday morning, and persons out in small launches had rough passages. The high wind splashed the water against the wharves, sending the spray high in the air.

Two alien laborers working on the track near Wyndham were struck by a Pere Marquette train and instantly killed.

CEREMONIES AT BELLEVILLE.

A telegram was received from H. A. King of the Belleville Baseball Club this morning advising that the game in Belleville on Monday between Kingston and Belleville is to be played at 3.15. A parade is to be held at two o'clock when the opening ceremonies will take place. The Belleville and Kingston teams will take part in the parade.

LADIES' SOFTBALL

The Treasures scored another win in the Ladies' Softball League Friday evening, defeating the Wonder Y's by a score of 28-8. The Treasures were too strong for the Wonder Y's and although the latter team worked very hard, they could not keep up with the Treasures' sluggers. The winners were without the services of their star first base player Miss Salisbury, who sustained an injury to her hand in the last game.

Treasurers—F. Connolly, c; E. Beck, p; B. Aldridge, 1b; L. Ferris, 2b; E. Ellerton, ss; G. Gollighey, 3b; E. Scrutton, lf; E. Turner, cf; V. Onslow, rf.

Wonder Y's—A. Rawley, c; M. Aeselstine, p; C. Smithers, 1b; M. Bird, 2b; V. Latour, ss; L. Hawkins, 3b; P. Campbell, lf; L. Garrison, cf; E. Patterson, rf.

Umpires—Richards and Mycks.

Some players in the Ladies' Softball League are under the impression that a player can run on the last strike if the catcher misses the ball and be safe at first base if they beat the play. The official ladies' softball rules distinctly state that it is not necessary for the catcher to hold the last strike, and a player cannot run on it.

Up To Weather Man.

The Peterboro C.O.B.L. team left for Kingston on Saturday morning and it was decided that the game would be played this afternoon unless heavy rain made it too disagreeable.

College Six Won.

The College Six defeated the St. Mary's team in a Midget League game at the Cricket Field Saturday morning by the score of 16-4.

Everything Looking Fine.

Belleville, May 21.—The showers of yesterday made everything look green and beautiful. Mr. Sargoff and family, from near Dolrook, have moved to the farm of Mrs. MacDonald. Our school has increased to the number of fifteen as a daily attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Jeffrey and baby, Lucien, spent last Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Jeffrey, Glenvale.

Mrs. Samuel Hamilton is on the sick list. Master George Salisbury, Kingston, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Salisbury, Mr. and Mrs. R. Curl, Harrowsmith, spent Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. John Curly's. Mrs. Myrtle McWilliams spent a few days with Mrs. S. Connolly, Yarker. Miss Dorothy Hamilton is home after spending some time in Napanee.

Howard Mayberry of Hamilton, basium weight, and Vic Foley of Vancouver, fought ten rounds to a draw at Vancouver on Friday night.
