DELIGHTFUL EVENING AT MEMORIAL HALL

Pupils of Miss Florence Hudon Presented a Most Entertaining Programme.

There are few programmes in the year that can draw as large an audience as the annual programme arranged by Miss Florence Hudon, with her pupils as the performers. With a small gathering of parents and friends in her own drawing room as a beginning, some years ago, the Kingston girl, who has made such a success as a teacher of dancing, has for several seasons found that Memorial Hall, in the city buildings, was almost too small to hold those interested in her pupils' exhibition of dancing. Tuesday evening was no exception to the rule, for the hall was filled with interested spectators, who spent a delightful evening watching with eagerness the graceful dancing of the young girls, some of them mere babies, who are pupils in the Florence Hudon school of dancing. Not only has Miss Hudon taught all these Kingston girls to dance beautifully, but she has composed some of the prettiest dances herself. Toe-dancing, which is so difficult, has been learnt by a number of her pupils, and there is one noticeable feature in Miss Hudon's pupils—the extreme grace with which the majority of them use their hands and arms, their supple wrists, as flexible as those of a violin player, and their charmingly graceful gestures.

Capt. Light conducted the music, with Miss Lorraine Grimshaw as pianist. Mr. Charles Gates was chairman, and performed his duties to perfection. The appreciation of some of the pupil's friends was shown by the beautiful bouquets they received, with which Mr. Gates presented them. At the proper moment he called Miss Hudon to the stage and presented her, on behalf of her pupils, with a beautiful arm bouquet of roses. The other recipients of flowers were Miss Edith Ashby, Miss Margaret Bailey, a graceful young dancer, who received two bouquets, Miss Margaret Newlands, who is everyone's darling and has been dancing since she was three years old, Miss Sybil Hambrook, Miss Lorraine Grimshaw who did some difficult dances and played the piano also. Among the loveliest, most graceful and altogether charming dances were those of Miss Kathleen Murphy. Her butterfly dance and her ballet were exquisite.

The Greek dance and the erinoline dance were both graceful and cleverly done. Mr. Evan Parker both in his solo dance and with his excellent partners, charmed the audience.

The programme was as follows: Overture Polonaise Militaire "Chopin," orchestra, Kewpie Dolls; Annette Schaburg Phyllis, Mary Gummer, Audrey Robbs, Edith Kilan, Genevieve Kane, Eleanor Crossfield, Margaret Newlands, Mary O'Connor, Belinda;—(Toe) Lorraine Grimshaw, Trio: Edith Ashby, Eleanor Moore, Helen Zakos, Tango: Florence Morton, Evan Parker, Vignette; (Toe), Nora Rees, Duet: Pauline and Marlon Martin, Solo: (Toe), Margaret Bailey, Poikette; (Toe) Miriam Cohen, Dixie: Margaret Newlands, Lady Betty; (Toe), Ina Echlin, Mort de Papillon: Kathleen Murphy, Solo: (Toe) Vina Young, Crinoline Days: Song, Marlon Bruton, dance, Florence Morton, Marlon Bruton, Kathleen Grimshaw, Netty Cherry, Sylvia Ballet: (Toe) Freda Elwood, Aubade Printaniere: (Toe) Evelyn Jesse, Greek Group: "Chaminade" Kathleen Murphy, Ina Echlin, Vina Young, Lorraine Grimshaw, Silver Star: (Toe) Sybil Hambrook, Furlana: "Italian" Solo: Evan Parker, Polka Mignon: (Toe) Catherine Crothers, La Dancause: Margaret Newlands, Faust Ballet: (Toe) Patricia Sowards, Valse Amoureuse: (Toe) Lorraine Grimshaw, Rose Buds: (Toe) Hilda Laird, Air de Ballet: Kathleen Murphy, Duet: Florence Morton, Evan Parker.
